WHITE DOG

White Dog Romain Gary

White Dog Romain Gary:

White Dog Romain Gary, 2004-12 Both a personal memoir and a French novelist's encounter with American reality White Dog is an unforgettable portrait of racism and hypocrisy Set in the tumultuous Los Angeles of 1968 Romain Gary's story begins when a German shepherd strays into his life He was watching me his head cocked to one side with that unbearable intensity of dogs in the pound waiting for a rescuer A lost police canine this white dog is programmed to respond violently to the sight of a black man and Gary's attempts to deprogram it like his attempts to protect his wife the actress Jean Seberg like her endeavors to help black activists like his need to rescue himself from the predicament of being trapped lock stock and barrel within a human skin lead from crisis to grief Using the re-education of this adopted pet as a metaphor for the need to quash American racism Gary develops a domestic crisis into a full scale social allegory LIFE, 1970-10-09 LIFE Magazine is the treasured photographic magazine that chronicled the 20th Century It now lives on at LIFE.com the largest most amazing collection of professional photography on the internet Users can browse search and view photos of today's people and events They have free access to share print and post images for personal use LIFE, 1970-10-30 LIFE Magazine is the treasured photographic magazine that chronicled the 20th Century It now lives on at LIFE.com the largest most amazing collection of professional photography on the internet Users can browse search and view photos of today's people and events They have free access to share print and post images for personal use Pet Projects Elizabeth Young, 2019-12-17 In Pet Projects Elizabeth Young joins an analysis of the representation of animals in nineteenth century fiction taxidermy and the visual arts with a first person reflection on her own scholarly journey Centering on Margaret Marshall Saunders a Canadian woman writer once famous for her animal novels and incorporating Young's own experience of a beloved animal's illness this study highlights the personal and intellectual stakes of a pet project of cultural criticism Young assembles a broad archive of materials beginning with Saunders's novels and widening outward to include fiction nonfiction photography and taxidermy She coins the term first dog voice to describe the narrative technique of novels such as Saunders's Beautiful Joe written in the first person from the perspective of an animal She connects this voice to contemporary political issues revealing how animal fiction such as Saunders's reanimates nineteenth century writing about both feminism and slavery Highlighting the prominence of taxidermy in the late nineteenth century she suggests that Saunders transforms taxidermic techniques in surprising ways that provide new forms of authority for women Young adapts Freud to analyze literary representations of mourning by and for animals and she examines how Canadian writers including Saunders use animals to explore race ethnicity and national identity Her wide ranging investigation incorporates twenty first as well as nineteenth century works of literature and culture including recent art using taxidermy and contemporary film Throughout she reflects on the tools she uses to craft her analyses examining the state of scholarly fields from feminist criticism to animal studies With a lively first person voice that highlights experiences usually concealed in academic studies by scholarly discourse such as detours zigzags roadblocks and personal experience this unique and innovative book will delight animal enthusiasts and academics in the fields of animal studies gender studies American studies and Canadian studies The Difficulty of Being a Dog Roger Grenier, 2000-12 Forty three vignettes in which the author visits the great dogs of history and legend beginning at the beginning with Ulysses and his dog Argos on to Virginia Woolf and her dog Flush Elizabeth Barrett Browning's cocker spaniel Andr Gide Freud's dog L n Franklin D Roosevelt's Scottish terrier Fala Michael and Jerry heroes of Jack London's novels Napoleon's dog and the dogs collected and deported from the city of Constantinople in 1910 sent to a desert island without food and water Horror Noire Robin R. Means Coleman, 2013-03 From King Kong to Candyman the boundary pushing genre of the horror film has always been a site for provocative explorations of race in American popular culture In Horror Noire Blacks in American Horror Films from 1890's to Present Robin R Means Coleman traces the history of notable characterizations of blackness in horror cinema and examines key levels of black participation on screen and behind the camera She argues that horror offers a representational space for black people to challenge the more negative or racist images seen in other media outlets and to portray greater diversity within the concept of blackness itself Horror Noire presents a unique social history of blacks in America through changing images in horror films Throughout the text the reader is encouraged to unpack the genre's racialized imagery as well as the narratives that make up popular culture's commentary on race Offering a comprehensive chronological survey of the genre this book addresses a full range of black horror films including mainstream Hollywood fare as well as art house films Blaxploitation films direct to DVD films and the emerging U S hip hop culture inspired Nigerian Nollywood Black horror films Horror Noire is thus essential reading for anyone seeking to understand how fears and anxieties about race and race relations are made manifest and often challenged on the silver screen Dog Susan McHugh, 2004-08-04 Dogs are perhaps our most popular pets and certainly one of the best loved of all animals They are not only humanity's best friend they are also its oldest burial sites dating back 12 000 years indicate that dogs moved alongside prehistoric peoples before during and after both species settled the world The story of the canine has been fundamentally entwined with that of humanity since the earliest times and this ancient and fascinating story is told in Susan McHugh's Dog This book unravels the debate about whether dogs are descended from wolves and moves on to deal with canines in mythology religion and health dog cults in ancient and medieval civilizations as disparate as Alaska Greece Peru and Persia and traces correspondences between the histories of dogs in the Far East Europe Africa and the Americas Dog also examines the relatively recent phenomenon of dog breeding and the invention of species as well as the canine's role in science fact and fiction from Laika the first astronaut and Pavlov's famous conditioned dogs through to science fiction novels and cult films such as A Boy and his Dog Susan McHugh shows how dogs today contribute to human lives in a huge number of ways not only as pets and guide dogs but also as sources of food in Asia entertainment workers and scientific and religious objects Dog reveals how we have shaped these animals over the millennia and in turn how dogs have shaped us

Essential Cinema Jonathan Rosenbaum, 2004-04-27 In his astute and deeply informed film reviews and essays Jonathan Rosenbaum regularly provides new and brilliant insights into the cinema as art entertainment and commerce Guided by a personal canon of great films Rosenbaum sees in the ongoing hostility toward the idea of a canon shared by many within the field of film studies a missed opportunity both to shape the discussion about cinema and to help inform and guide casual and serious filmgoers alike In Essential Cinema Rosenbaum forcefully argues that canons of great films are more necessary than ever given that film culture today is dominated by advertising executives sixty second film reviewers and other players in the Hollywood publicity machine who champion mediocre films at the expense of genuinely imaginative and challenging works He proposes specific definitions of excellence in film art through the creation a personal canon of both well known and obscure movies from around the world and suggests ways in which other canons might be similarly constructed Essential Cinema offers in depth assessments of an astonishing range of films established classics such as Rear Window M and Greed ambitious but flawed works like The Thin Red Line and Breaking the Waves eccentric masterpieces from around the world including Irma Vep and Archangel and recent films that have bitterly divided critics and viewers among them Eyes Wide Shut and A I He also explores the careers of such diverse filmmakers as Robert Altman Ra l Ruiz Frank Tashlin Elaine May Sam Fuller Terrence Davies Edward Yang Hou Hsiao hsien and Orson Welles In conclusion Rosenbaum offers his own film canon of 1 000 key works from the beginning of cinema to the present day A cogent and provocative argument about the art of film Essential Cinema is also a fiercely independent reference book of must see movies for film lovers everywhere

Watermelons, Nooses, and Straight Razors David Pilgrim, 2017-12-30 All groups tell stories but some groups have the power to impose their stories on others to label others stigmatize others paint others as undesirables and to have these stories presented as scientific fact God s will or wholesome entertainment Watermelons Nooses and Straight Razors examines the origins and significance of several longstanding antiblack stories and the caricatures and stereotypes that support them Here readers will find representations of the lazy childlike Sambo the watermelon obsessed pickaninny the buffoonish minstrel the subhuman savage the loyal and contented mammy and Tom and the menacing razor toting coon and brute Malcolm X and James Baldwin both refused to eat watermelon in front of white people They were aware of the jokes and other stories about African Americans stealing watermelons fighting over watermelons even being transformed into watermelons Did racial stories influence the actions of white fraternities and sororities who dressed in blackface and mocked black culture or employees who hung nooses in their workplaces What stories did the people who refer to Serena Williams and other dark skinned athletes as apes or baboons hear Is it possible that a white South Carolina police officer who shot a fleeing black man had never heard stories about scary black men with straight razors or other weapons Antiblack stories still matter Watermelons Nooses and Straight Razors uses images from the Jim Crow Museum the nation s largest publicly accessible collection of racist objects These images are evidence of the social injustice that Martin Luther King Jr referred to

as a boil that can never be cured so long as it is covered up but must be exposed to the light of human conscience and the air of national opinion before it can be cured Each chapter concludes with a story from the author's journey challenging the integrity of racial narratives

The Flight of Events German ARCE ROSS, 2024-05-31 The Flight of Events the second book of a Psychopathology of Melancholia Series after Manie m lancolie et facteurs blancs Beauchesne Paris 2009 is a work on altruistic anguishes in manic depressive suicides In this book German Arce Ross has chosen to focus on the psychological processes that occur prior to the act of suicide rather than on the act itself We can detect these processes in a subject during the period between the decision to commit suicide and the passage to the act In the consideration of certain moments preceding a suicidal or criminal act in the case of critical episodes that are non delusional non hallucinated and non acted but sometimes assimilated to psychotic or twilight moments where we locate in particular a discontinuity or a radical rupture albeit momentary with the Other we can observe that there are things facts or events that happen to the subject without any form of control over them whatsoever In these uncontrolled intersubjective events what the subject suffers from is a tendency to undergo the acts that he himself makes others perform During this flight of events it is not entirely true that the subject flees the events of his life it is rather the events that flee

Afro-Dog Bénédicte Boisseron, 2018-08-14 The animal rights organization PETA asked Are Animals the New Slaves in a controversial 2005 fundraising campaign that same year after the Humane Society rescued pets in the aftermath of Hurricane Katrina while black residents were neglected some declared that white America cares more about pets than black people These are but two recent examples of a centuries long history in which black life has been pitted against animal life Does comparing human and animal suffering trivialize black pain or might the intersections of racialization and animalization shed light on interlinked forms of oppression In Afro Dog B n dicte Boisseron investigates the relationship between race and the animal in the history and culture of the Americas and the black Atlantic exposing a hegemonic system that compulsively links and opposes blackness and animality to measure the value of life She analyzes the association between black civil disobedience and canine repression a history that spans the era of slavery through the use of police dogs against protesters during the civil rights movement of the 1960s to today in places like Ferguson Missouri She also traces the lineage of blackness and the animal in Caribbean literature and struggles over minorities right to pet ownership alongside nuanced readings of Derrida and other French theorists Drawing on recent debates on black lives and animal welfare Afro Dog reframes the fast growing interest in human animal relationships by positioning blackness as a focus of animal inquiry opening new possibilities for animal studies and black studies to think side by side

Is That a Fish in Your Ear? David Bellos,2011-10-11 A New York Times Notable Book for 2011 One of The Economist s 2011 Books of the Year People speak different languages and always have The Ancient Greeks took no notice of anything unless it was said in Greek the Romans made everyone speak Latin and in India people learned their neighbors languages as did many ordinary Europeans in times past Christopher Columbus knew Italian Portuguese and Castilian Spanish as well as the classical languages But today we all use translation to cope with the diversity of languages Without translation there would be no world news not much of a reading list in any subject at college no repair manuals for cars or planes we wouldn't even be able to put together flat pack furniture Is That a Fish in Your Ear ranges across the whole of human experience from foreign films to philosophy to show why translation is at the heart of what we do and who we are Among many other things David Bellos asks What's the difference between translating unprepared natural speech and translating Madame Bovary How do you translate a joke What's the difference between a native tongue and a learned one Can you translate between any pair of languages or only between some What really goes on when world leaders speak at the UN Can machines ever replace human translators and if not why But the biggest question Bellos asks is this How do we ever really know that we've understood what anybody else says in our own language or in another Surprising witty and written with great joie de vivre this book is all about how we comprehend other people and shows us how ultimately translation is another name for the human condition
