Handbook of Research on Connecting Philosophy, Media, and Development in Developing Countries Okocha, Desmond Onyemechi, Onobe, Melchizedec J., Alike, Mirian Ngozi, 2022-05-13 Developing nations have been experimenting with different models and theories in their quest for development for decades but are missing some critical elements when mirrored or judged via a Westernized lens In order for these countries to successfully establish their identity and address issues that have held them back in the past further study on the use of media and philosophy in correlation with development must be conducted The Handbook of Research on Connecting Philosophy Media and Development in Developing Countries examines how media can be utilized to bridge the gap between the past and the future for developing countries and drive sustainable development The book also seeks to reimagine development within developing regions through the prism of their unique cultures religions media and philosophies so they can take hold of their identity and portrayals within the international arena Covering topics such as human development new media language and culture this major reference work is ideal for government officials policymakers scholars researchers academicians practitioners instructors and students Corporate Governance Models and Applications in Developing Economies Agyemang, Otuo Serebour, Ansong, Abraham, Agyei-Mensah, Ben Kwame, 2019-08-30 Virtually all developing transitioning and emerging market economies are faced with one pressing concern at the moment how to establish the groundwork for long term economic performance and competitiveness in a diverse market However without the existence of good corporate governance in these economies small enterprise will cease to exist in developing countries Corporate Governance Models and Applications in Developing Economies is a collection of innovative research that contributes to the better understanding of corporate governance models by documenting the structures principles tenets case studies and applications for the development of good business practices in developing economies While highlighting topics including risk management financial distress and insider trading this book is ideally designed for corporate managers executives economists strategists investors shareholders students researchers academicians business professionals and policymakers [Export Credit Agencies in \[name of Country\]: Nigeria](#) ,2007

Corporate Environmental Management 3 Richard Welford, 2013-12-19 Corporate Environmental Management 3 examines the complex yet crucial issues faced when we make a genuine commitment to move towards sustainable development It tackles the nature of the international economic order and the efficacy of free trade and globalization in response to the growing recognition that businesses and organizations must now effect real change to ensure a sustainable future It analyses strategies for managers researchers academics and students to achieve operations consistent with this goal and provides accounts of best practice offering substantial references to leading articles in the field With welcome clarity of thought and expression analysis is made of the structural as well as cultural adaptations demanded of businesses in changing socioeconomic circumstances Can an ethic be derived from the concept of sustainable development to be applied to the practice of business Will the globalization of economic activity have a detrimental and decisive effect on the ability of business to bring about the vital progress needed What are the implications of postmodern social theory with its emphasis on the uncertainty of value and commitment for corporations attempting to effect change This third book in the comprehensive and authoritative Corporate Environmental Management series provides an ideal introduction to the main practical and theoretical issues for those new to the subject whilst those familiar with the series will find it a thoughtful and incisive development of the debate Richard Welford is Professor of Corporate Environmental Management at the University of Huddersfield professor of Sustainable Management at the Norwegian School of Management and a Director of ERP Environment Originally published in 2000 A Proposal for the Re-founding of Nigeria 'Emeka O. Cyprian Nwagwu, 2006 This book covers the modalities and strategies of the re founding of Nigeria relative to the political socioeconomic and leadership challenges facing Nigeria and its prospects for rebirth in the twenty first century It explores the idea that the African State can be re founded conditional on its ability to learn from its history and that changes to the state can be made before significant political economic and social development can take place Climate Crisis and Sustainable

Creaturely Care Christine Nellist, 2021-09-28 This volume encapsulates the thoughts and research of academics across the globe in regards to the biggest crisis of our generation climate change Considering this global crisis through the lens of creation care this volume reviews the damage we have done to our environment and how our misuse of resources threatens all forms of life on earth via food insecurity rising sea levels mass migration and social unrest This book presents a global voice on our historical impact on the world the governance that allowed it and how creation care can present a way out of this crisis Education for Sustainable Futures Douglas Bourn, Namrata Sharma, Mirian Vilela, 2025-09-15 Education for Sustainable Futures highlights the immense potential that the recognition and application of the Earth Charter could have for global education efforts From Ethical Review to Responsible Research and Innovation Sophie Pellé, Bernard Reber, 2016-06-16 The scientific and technological upheavals of the 20th Century and the questions and difficulties that went along with them climate change nuclear energy GMO etc have increased the necessity of thinking about and formalizing technoscientific progress and its consequences Expert evaluations and ethics committees today cannot be the only legitimate sources for understanding the social acceptability and desirability of this progress Responsibility must be shared out on a wider scale as much in society as in the process of research and innovation projects This book presents the main works of Responsible Research and Innovation RRI from a moral responsibility point of view for which it calls upon no fewer than 10 understandings to bring out those which are positive and to support an interpretive and combinatory pluralism In this sense it demonstrates moral innovation It analyzes numerous cases and proposes perspectives that are rarely discussed in this emerging field current practices of ethical evaluation concerns of the integrity of research means for participatory technological evaluation etc It contributes to the pledges of RRI which largely remains theoretically undetermined even though it reorganizes the relationships between science innovation and society Workplace Rats Michael Owoko (Ph.D), Do you know an unsuspecting employee or executive in your organization may be a thief and involved in unethical practices Business failures are often linked to poor business model and financial management These may be contributory but stealing perpetrated through fraud is the major cause Some employees and executives within the lowest and highest rung of organizational ladder are pilfers They exploit any cavity within the system to generate unearned income for selfish ends They are called Workplace Rats in this book Their actions are likened to rats because they leave in their trail loss of valuables resulting in most times to bankruptcy or business closure These dubious characters are also found among entrepreneurs business executives politicians and top government functionaries This book is therefore an exposition of methods deployed by Workplace rats and how organisations can prevent them from executing their fraudulent and unethical practices at the workplace
