Town Without Pity Don Hale Crime Series:

Town Without Pity Don Hale, 2002 Don Hale's fight to clear Stephen Downing of murder and the trail of clues the authorities want to hide In 1973 a woman was brutally murdered in a graveyard in a picturesque market town Stephen Downing aged seventeen but with the mental age of eleven was working as a gardener in the graveyard He was charged with the crime and served 27 years in prison Six years ago Don Hale the editor of the local newspaper began his own investigation into the murder This is the story of one man trapped in a web of evil and of another's courageous fight to free him Town Without Pity Don Hale, 2013-09-13 Special Revised edition to commemorate the 40th anniversary of this unsolved murder This is the true story of one man's quest to help investigate and overturn the murder conviction of Stephen Downing jailed more than 27 years before for a brutal murder than he did not commit It also highlights the dangerous roller coaster ride endured by the author during his attempts to reveal fresh evidence that the authorities deliberately tried to hide Dubbed by the national press as the Bakewell Tart murder the original hardback book soon became a best seller and real life thriller It was later adapted into a popular two part BBC1 TV drama produced by Hat Trick Productions starring Stephen Tompkinson Caroline Katz and all star cast that attracted over 9M viewers for each night of shown It was later distributed by BBC Worldwide and appeared on television in numerous countries to global acclaim This book has now been produced for the first time ever in paperback during 2013 to commemorate the tragic 40th anniversary of the unsolved murder of Wendy Sewell

The Agents Directory Rachel Vater, 2004 Finding the right agent can be a bewildering frustrating and byzantine process for beginners and experienced writers alike How do you tell a good agent from a bad agent What's the best way to approach an agent What exactly does an agent do In The Agents Directory editor turned agent Rachel Vater answers these questions and more Unlike guides that have readers sifting through page after page of listings of agencies that aren't accepting new writers won't read manuscripts or will charge money up front The Agents Directory offers an exclusive guide to the best literary and script agents looking for new clients Each listing provides detailed up to date information about the type of work each agent accepts clients he or she represents recent sales contact information and the best way to submit work Detailed instructions for writing a query letter complete with sample queries help readers make a great impression on an agent A bonus directory to writing conferences across the US and Canada provides networking opportunities with other writers agents and editors The Agents Directory also includes an extensive list of writer's organizations invaluable resources to support a commitment to writing The Mammoth Book of More Bizarre Crimes Robin Odell, Paul Donnelley, 2016-02-04

Fact is never more strange than fiction than when it comes to crime and the crimes described here are so bizarre it's inconceivable that they could have been made up In this all new collection of truly unusual crimes a sequel to the bestselling Mammoth Book of Bizarre Crimes Odell and Donnelley tell the extraordinary stories of criminal acts far stranger than any fiction including the murder of Italian fashion designer Gianni Versace by spree killer Andrew Cunanan and the killing of intern Chandra Ann Levy who had had an affair with US Representative Gary Condit though he was cleared of any involvement in her murder They reveal how Danilo Restivo was eventually convicted of the murder of Heather Barnett in England after the ritualistic placing of hair connected him to another murder in Italy They tell the terrible story of the inexplicably brutal murder over a number of days of 15 year old Kristy Bamu by his sister and her lover because they believed him to be practising witchcraft They also give a chilling account of the thirty one year old mother of two Joanna Dennehy who killed three men I started killing she said to see if I was as cold as I thought I was Then it got moreish and I got a taste for it The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,2002 Unsolved Murders of the UK Phil Drake,2025-11-04 Unsolved Murders of the UK Cold cases from 1951 to Present Day delves into the mysterious and haunting cases of individuals who were brutally taken from this world yet their killers were never brought to justice From mysterious disappearances to seemingly motiveless killings as well as other cases that continue to perplex law enforcement this book takes a closer look at the victims the crimes and the police investigations as well as the theories surrounding each case With a focus on the cold cases that have remained unsolved for decades this book offers a comprehensive examination of the most intriguing and disturbing murders in the UK s recent history Join us as we explore the twisted minds of the killers and the relentless pursuit of justice for the victims and their families This book will captivate true crime enthusiasts and armchair detectives alike Children Who Kill Carol Anne Davis,2014-05-22 Why would two young boys abduct torture and kill a toddler What makes a teenage girl plot with her classmates to kill her own father Society regards children as harmless but for some the age of innocence is shortlived messy and ultimately murderous Mary Bell Robert Thompson and Jon Venables are infamous for their crimes against other children but many of the less familiar studies here are equally as shocking Thirteen murderers the youngest only ten used fire poison bullets and strangulation on victims from infants to pensioners In a comprehensive study of juvenile homicide Carol Anne Davis offers new psychological insights and a hard hitting look at the role of society in an area too shocking to ignore The Journalist ,2002 Town Without Pity 2 - Who Really Killed Wendy Sewell? Don Hale,2016-05-27 This is a brand NEW REVISED and UPDATED edition with unique scene of crime photographs and maps Town Without Pity Who really killed Wendy Sewell In 1973 in the picturesque market town of Bakewell Wendy Sewell was brutally and bloodily murdered Wendy had a secret life involving liaisons with several men in the town This secret life has never been fully investigated before It suited many people in Bakewell that a boy from the council estate should take the blame When local newspaper editor Don Hale began to follow the trail of clues trying to get to the truth a campaign of intimidation began culminating in attempts to murder him Because of Don Hale s detective work and his courage Stephen is now free because the appeal court judges quashed his conviction TOWN WITHOUT PITY reveals the evidence the authorities still want to hide This latest edition includes a host of new information and exclusive photographs from the scene of crime plus details about fresh evidence that now suggests potential links to the Yorkshire Ripper Peter

Sutcliffe with facts supplied by former cold case detective Chris Clark There is now new medical evidence available including a compelling buried pathology report hidden for the past 40 plus years The case remains unsolved and yet it has been controversially restricted for 95 years despite new claims of links to two other similar and still unsolved murders and this latest association with the Ripper It has recently been featured within Judge Robert Rinder s crime series on ITV and remains a fascinating murder mystery

The Case of Stephen Downing Stephen Downing,2020-02-19 The memoir of a man wrongfully convicted of murder and his 27 years spent in the U K prison system until his conviction was overturned On September 12 1973 seventeen year old na ve gardener Stephen Downing returned from his lunch break to discover the badly beaten unconscious thirty two year old Wendy Sewell lying on the footpath of Bakewell Cemetery close to Catcliff Wood and the consecrated chapel where she had been attacked Stephen ran to the nearby workmen s building and in the meantime Wendy s attacker returned and dragged her body to a second location where she was subsequently found soon after Despite having learning difficulties Downing was immediately taken into custody questioned at length without a solicitor and eventually signed a false confession statement Wendy died some two days later from her injuries Following a very biased three day trial during February 1974 Downing was found guilty by a jury convicted and sentenced to what was eventually a full life sentence Just eight months later during October 1974 there followed an appeal with fresh evidence from an eye witness who saw Wendy Sewell alive after Downing left the cemetery for lunch However the prosecution trashed this evidence and the appeal failed In the years following Downing s incarceration he was moved from prison to prison continuing to maintain his innocence and in doing so jeopardizing any chance of parole as he was In Denial of Murder until eventually his plight reached journalist Don Hale Hale s tireless efforts led to an appeal in which Downing was released after some twenty seven years the longest miscarriage of justice in the United Kingdom s legal history
