Planting New Towns in Europe in the Interwar Years

Helen Meller, Heleni Porfyriou, 2016-06-22 The key theme of the papers in this book concerns the prospects of building new urban environments and creating new societies in Europe during the interwar years The contributions do not focus on the system of government communist fascist or democratic but rather on what actually got built by whom and why and how the international communication of ideas was filtered through the prism of local concerns and culture As such the volume serves to tease out connections between urban form and social aspirations and between the moral basis of social planning and how it was interpreted Did the new towns of the interwar years actually create a planned society where visions met realities aided by the design of new urban forms This is one of the principal questions investigated by the contributors here in all the different political contexts of their chosen new towns

Paradise Planned Robert A.M. Stern, David Fishman, Jacob Tilove, 2013-12-03 Paradise Planned is the definitive history of the development of the garden suburb a phenomenon that originated in England in the late eighteenth century was quickly adopted in the United States and northern Europe and gradually proliferated throughout the world These bucolic settings offered an ideal lifestyle typically outside the city but accessible by streetcar train and automobile Today the principles of the garden city movement are once again in play as retrofitting the suburbs has become a central issue in planning Strategies are emerging that reflect the goals of garden suburbs in creating metropolitan communities that embrace both the intensity of the city and the tranquility of nature Paradise Planned is the comprehensive encyclopedic record of this movement a vital contribution to architectural and planning history and an essential recourse for guiding the repair of the American townscape

The Routledge Handbook of Planning Theory Michael Gunder, Ali Madanipour, Vanessa Watson, 2017-08-23 The Routledge Handbook of Planning Theory presents key contemporary themes in planning theory through the views of some of the most innovative thinkers in planning They introduce and explore their own specialized areas of planning theory to conceptualize their contemporary positions and to speculate how these positions are likely to evolve and change as new challenges emerge In a changing and often unpredictable globalized world planning theory is core to understanding how planning and its practices both function and evolve As illustrated in this book planning and its many roles have changed profoundly over the recent decades so have the theories both critical and explanatory about its practices values and knowledges In the context of these changes and to contribute to the development of planning research this handbook identifies and introduces the cutting edge and the new emerging trajectories of contemporary planning theory The aim is to provide the reader with key insights into not just contemporary planning thought but potential future directions of both planning theory and planning as a whole This book is written for an international readership and includes planning theories that address or have emerged from both the global North and parts of the world beyond A Modern History of European Cities Rosemary Wakeman, 2020-01-23 Rosemary Wakeman's original survey text comprehensively explores modern European urban history from 1815 to the present day It provides a journey to cities and towns across the continent in search of the patterns of development that have shaped the urban landscape as indelibly European The focus is on the built environment the social and cultural transformations that mark the patterns of continuity and change and the transition to modern urban society Including over 60 images that serve to illuminate the analysis the book examines whether there is a European city and if so what are its characteristics Wakeman offers an interdisciplinary approach that incorporates concepts from cultural and postcolonial studies as well as urban geography and provides full coverage of urban society not only in western Europe but also in eastern and southern Europe using various cities and city types to inform the discussion The book provides detailed coverage of the often neglected urbanization post 1945 which allows us to more clearly understand the modernizing arc Europe has followed over the last two centuries Re-Humanizing Architecture Ákos Moravánszky, Judith Hopfengärtner, 2016-12-19 After the Second World War a divided Europe was much affected by a period of reconstruction This was influenced by the different political systems in the socialist East and in the capitalist West the focus was on cohesion in society and its cultural and architectural expression In parallel to the rapidly progressing industrialization of the building industry debates on the humanization of the built environment were led on both sides with great intensity The volume shows how on the back of existentialism new monumentality and socialist realism quite similar concepts and strategies were developed in order to find answers to questions relating to adequate structures for new forms of community and identity

Industrial Location and Site Planning Hans Mertens, 2025-05-02 This book looks at the complexity of the topic of industrial site planning Levels and actors are understood and discussed in terms of their mutual interaction There is no stable end state in any industrial sector At best these are states of balance in motion The aim is therefore to show paths and phases of development that help to overcome stagnation thresholds and to explore the triggering moments for new dynamics Technological justifications such as AI Industry 4.0 decarbonization are only one dimension Industrial policy cooperation models intercommunal for example in the case between market participants and producers as well as integrative planning activities both have socio-economic and ecological dimensions Based on various regional examples from central Germany and certain international comparisons this volume helps illustrate industrial location developments in the context of ongoing regional structural changes The author's architect and member of relevant specialist organizations MBA in Switzerland and the USA involvement with a wide variety of projects monuments university and industrial buildings residential construction etc over almost 40 years is based on design and construction practice Furthermore 7 technical experts have reflected on the diverse dimension of the subject presented in this volume Additionally deindustrialization scenarios are contrasted with the necessity and path to neo industrialization

The Palgrave Handbook of Bottom-Up Urbanism Mahyar Arefi, Conrad Kickert, 2018-06-27 Who shapes our cities In an age of increasing urban pluralism globalization and immigration decreasing public budgets and an ongoing crisis of authority among designers and planners the urban environment is shaped by a number of non traditional stakeholders The book surveys the kaleidoscope of views on the agency of urbanism providing an overview of the various scholarly debates and territories that pertain to bottom up efforts such as everyday urbanism DIY urbanism guerilla urbanism tactical urbanism and lean urbanism Uniquely this books seeks connections between the various movements by curating a range of views on the past present and future of bottom up urbanism The contributors also connect the recent trend of bottom up efforts in the West with urban informality in the Global South drawing parallels and finding contrast between social and institutional structures across the globe The book appeals to urbanists in the widest sense of the word those who shape study and improve our urban spaces Making it Modern Aaron Betsky, 2016-12-15 At its root modernism is that fundamental It is a question of having something to represent that is of the moment In the most radical interpretation modernism always comes too late The modern is that which is always new which is to say always changing and already old by the time it has appeared Modernism is always a retrospective act one of documenting or trying to catch what has already appeared an attempt to fix life as it is being lived Modernity is just the very fact that we as human beings are continually remaking the world around us through our actions and are doing so consciously Modernism is a monument to or memory of that act which in its own making tries to remake the world it is pretending to represent

The selfmade land Gerhard Dekker, Len de Klerk, Peter Paul Witsen, Hans van der Cammen, 2012-09-26 Nederland is n van de meest dichtbevolkte landen ter wereld Dan moet je verstandig omgaan met de beschikbare ruimte Waar gaan we werken waar wonen en waar vakantie houden Wat bebouwen en wat blijft ongerept Nergens ter wereld wordt daar zo grondig over nagedacht als in Nederland Internationaal geldt Nederland als gidsland op het gebied van de ruimtelijke ordening Vanwege deze positie en om aan de vraag vanuit het Engelstalige onderwijs te voorzien verschijnt nu deze geheel herziene Engelstalige editie van het standaardwerk Ruimtelijke ordening Spatial Planning Systems and Practices in Europe Mario Reimer, Panagiotis Getimis, Hans

Blotevogel, 2014-02-05 Ideal for students and practitioners working in spatial planning the Europeanization of planning agendas and regional policy in general Spatial Planning Systems and Practices in Europe develops a systematic methodological framework to analyze changes in planning systems throughout Europe The main aim of the book is to delineate the coexistence of continuity and change and of convergence and divergence with regard to planning practices across Europe Based on the work of experts on spatial planning from twelve European countries the authors underline the specific and context dependent variety and disparateness of planning transformation focusing on the main objectives of the changes the driving forces behind them and the main phases and turning points the main agenda setting actors and the different planning modes and tools reflected in the different policy and planning styles Along with a methodological framework the book includes twelve country case studies and the comparative conclusions covering a variety of planning systems of EU member states According to the four ideal types of planning systems identified in the EU Compendium at least two countries have been selected from each of the four different planning traditions regional economic France Germany Urbanism Greece Italy comprehensive integrated Denmark Finland Netherlands Germany land use planning UK Czech Republic Belgium Flanders along with two additional case studies focusing on the recent developments in eastern European countries by looking at Poland and in southern Europe looking at Turkey

Urban Visions Carmen Díez Medina, Javier Monclús, 2018-06-23 This book is a useful reference in the field of urbanism It explains how the contemporary city and landscape have been shaped by certain twentieth century visions that have carried over into the twenty first century Aimed at both students and professionals this collection of essays on diverse subjects and cases does not attempt to establish universal interpretations it rather highlights some outstanding episodes that help us understand why the planning culture has given way to other forms of urbanism from urban design to strategic urbanism or landscape urbanism Compared with global interpretations of urbanism based on socioeconomic history or architectural historiography Urban Visions From Planning Culture to Landscape Urbanism aims to present the discipline couched in international contemporary debate and adopt a historic and comparative perspective The book s contents pertain equally to other related disciplines such as architecture urban history urban design landscape architecture and geography Foreword by Rafael Moneo

Urban Transport XXVI S. Syngellakis, 2020-11-24 A continuous requirement for better urban transport systems and the need for a healthier environment has resulted in an increasing demand for new solutions Innovative systems new approaches and original ideas need to be thoroughly tested and critically evaluated before they can be implemented in practice Moreover there is a growing need for integration with telecommunications systems and IT applications in order to improve safety security and efficiency This volume also addresses the need to solve important pollution problems associated with urban transport in order to achieve a healthier environment The variety of topics covered by the included research works which were presented at the 26th International Conference on Urban Transport and the Environment reflect the complex interaction of urban transport systems with their environment and the need to establish integrated strategies The goal is to arrive at optimal socio economic solutions while reducing the negative environmental impacts of current transportation systems

Interurban Knowledge Exchange in Southern and Eastern Europe, 1870-1950 Eszter Gantner, Heidi Hein-Kircher, Oliver Hochadel, 2020-10-22 Around 1900 cities in Southern and Eastern Europe were persistently labeled backward and delayed Allegedly they had no alternative but to follow the role model of the metropolises of London Paris or Vienna This edited volume fundamentally questions this assumption It shows that cities as diverse as Barcelona Berdyansk

Budapest Lviv Milan Moscow Prague Warsaw and Zagreb pursued their own agendas of modernization In order to solve their pressing problems with respect to urban planning and public health they searched for best practices abroad The solutions they gleaned from other cities were eclectic to fit the specific needs of a given urban space and were thus often innovative This applied urban knowledge was generated through interurban networks and multi directional exchanges Yet in the period around 1900 this transnational municipalism often clashed with the forging of urban and national identities highlighting the tensions between the universal and the local This interurban perspective helps to overcome nationalist perspectives in historiography as well as outdated notions of center and periphery This volume will appeal to scholars from a large number of disciplines including urban historians historians of Eastern and Southern Europe historians of science and medicine and scholars interested in transnational connections

Street-Level Architecture Conrad Kickert, Hans

Karssenbergl,2022-08-04 This book provides the tools to maintain and rebuild the interaction between architecture and public space Despite the best intentions of designers and planners interactive frontages have dwindled over the past century in Europe and North America This book demonstrates why even our best intentions for interactive frontages are currently unable to turn a swelling tide of economic and technological evolution land consolidation introversion stratification and contagious decline It uses these lessons to offer concrete locational programming design and management strategies to maximize street level interaction and trust between street level architecture its inhabitants and the city This book demonstrates that designers developers planners and managers ultimately have to create the right preconditions for inhabitants and passersby to bring frontages to life These preconditions connect architecture to its urban social economical and technological context Only the right frontage in the right context with the right design the right inhabitation and the right attitude to the city will become part of the ecosystem of trust and interaction that supports public life This book empowers the many participants in this ecosystem to build inhabit and enjoy truly urbane architecture

Los Angeles Anton

Wagner,2022-07-12 For the first time Anton Wagner s groundbreaking 1935 book that launched the study of Los Angeles as an urban metropolis is available in English No book on the emergence of Los Angeles today a metropolis of more than four million people has been more influential or elusive than this volume by Anton Wagner Originally published in German in 1935 as Los Angeles Werden Leben und Gestalt der Zweimillionenstadt in S dkalifornien it is one of the earliest geographical investigations of a city understood as a series of layered landscapes Wagner demonstrated that despite its geographical disadvantages Los Angeles grew rapidly into a dominant urban region bolstered by agriculture real estate development transportation infrastructure tourism the oil and automobile industries and the film business Although widely reviewed upon its initial publication his book was largely forgotten until reintroduced by architectural historian Reyner Banham in his 1971 classic Los Angeles The Architecture of Four Ecologies This definitive translation is annotated by Edward Dimendberg and preceded by his substantial introduction which traces Wagner s biography and intellectual formation in 1930s Germany and contextualizes his work among that of other geographers It is an essential work for students scholars and curious readers interested in urban geography and the rise of Los Angeles as a global metropolis      Politics of Urban Knowledge Bert De Munck, Jens Lachmund, 2023-03-23 This book uses politics of urban knowledge as a lens to understand how professionals administrations scholars and social movements have surveyed evaluated and theorized the city identified problems and shaped and legitimized practical interventions in planning and administration Urbanization has been accompanied and partly shaped by the formation of the city as a distinct domain of knowledge This volume uses politics of urban knowledge as a lens to develop a new perspective on urban history and urban planning history Through case studies of mainly 19th and 20th century examples the book demonstrates that urban knowledge is not simply a neutral means to represent cities as pre existing entities but rather the outcome of historically contingent processes and practices of urban actors addressing urban issues and the power relations in which they are embedded It shows how urban knowledge making has reshaped the categories rationales and techniques through which urban spaces were produced governed and contested and how the knowledge concerned became performative of newly emerging urban orders The volume will be of interest to scholars and students in the field of urban history and urban studies as well as the history of technology science and knowledge and of science studies
