Literature and Medicine Patricia Novillo-Corvalán, 2015-06-05 This is the first study to examine the representation of illness disability and cultural pathologies in modern and contemporary Iberian and Latin American literature Innovative and interdisciplinary the collection situates medicine as an important and largely overlooked discourse in these literatures while also considering the social political religious symbolic and metaphysical dimensions underpinning illness Investigating how Hispanic and Lusophone writers have reflected on the personal and cultural effects of illness it raises central questions about how medical discourses cultural pathologies and the art of healing in general are represented Essays pay particular attention to the ways in which these interdisciplinary dialogues chart new directions in the study of Hispanic and Lusophone cultures and emerging disciplines such as the medical humanities Addressing a wide range of themes and subjects including bioethics neuroscience psychosurgery medical technologies Darwinian evolution indigenous herbal medicine the rising genre of the pathography and the illness as metaphor trope the collection engages with the discourses of cultural studies gender studies disability studies comparative literature and the medical humanities This book enriches and stimulates scholarship in these areas by showing how much we still have to gain from interdisciplinary studies working at the intersections between the humanities and the sciences

The Grotesque Modernist Body David Cruickshank, 2024-04-26 The Grotesque Modernist Body explores how and why modernist authors drew on the traditions of the grotesque body in order to represent modern reality accurately The author employs the concept of the grotesque body as a theoretical framework with which to examine rigorously a range of modernist novels poems and visual media by Conrad Lewis Eliot and Barnes alongside their historical contexts and theories of humour and horror This monograph challenges the prevailing narrative of modernism's abstract psychological and impersonal inward turn by tracing its mechanical animal hybrid bodies back to the medieval carnival satire of Rabelais the gothic horror of the long nineteenth century from Hoffmann Shelley and Poe to H G Wells and Henry James and the uncanny dreamlike art of Goya and Rousseau

Mothers, Mobility, Narrative Mary Jo Bona, 2025-05-01 Shows how US literary representations of mothering across racial ethnic and LGBTQ communities challenge ideological prescriptions about motherhood and maternal love Mothers Mobility Narrative pairs women identified writers whose work illuminates a range of maternal practices in the face of egregious structural inequalities and obstacles By using the critical lens of maternal feminism alongside recent theories of time space and memory Mary Jo Bona reengages the field of motherhood studies to explore linkages between motherhood and movement Across genres Harriet Jacobs Willa Cather Toni Morrison Audre Lorde Kym Ragusa Carole Maso Cristina Garcia and Rebecca Makkai develop maternal figures who in battling against institutional oppressions in eras of slavery colonialism dictatorship and pandemic expose the fundamentally intersectional nature of social categorization and disrupt traditional discourses of the maternal Mothers Mobility Narrative rethinks maternity across a century and a half of literary expression in the United States compelling readers to embrace more capacious understandings of maternal subjectivity care and kinship

I Confess! Thomas Waugh, Brandon Arroyo, 2019-11-21 In the postwar decades sexual revolutions first women's suffrage flappers Prohibition and Mae West later Alfred Kinsey Hugh Hefner and the pill altered the lifestyles and desires of generations Since the 1990s the internet and its cataclysmic cultural and social technological shifts have unleashed a third sexual revolution crystallized in the acts and rituals of confession that are a staple of our twenty first century lives In I Confess a collection of thirty original essays leading international scholars such as Ken Plummer Susanna Paasonen Tom Roach and Shohini Ghosh explore the ideas of confession and sexuality in moving image arts and media mostly in the Global North over the last quarter century Through self referencing or autobiographical stories testimonies and performances and through rigorously scrutinized case studies of gay for pay gaming camming YouTube uploads and the films Tarnation and Nymph maniac the contributors describe a spectrum of identities desires and related representational practices Together these desires and practices shape how we see construct and live our identities within this third sexual revolution embodying both its ominous implications of surveillance and control and its utopian glimmers of community and liberation Inspired by theorists from Michel Foucault and Gilles Deleuze to Gayle Rubin and Jos Esteban Mu oz I Confess reflects an extraordinary paradigm shifting proliferation of first person voices and imagery produced during the third sexual revolution from the eve of the internet to today

Spoken Word Jacob Smith,2011-02-07 How quickly we forget Not so many decades ago we were all listening to Vaughn Meader s First Family album Steve Martin on LP or Columbia s I Can Hear It Now Alas spoken word records like so many aspects of phonography have been relegated to garage sales and footnotes Finally thanks to Jacob Smith s Spoken Word this important form of entertainment and culture is receiving the attention it so richly deserves Rick Altman author of Silent Film Sound Jacob Smith s engaging study of spoken word LPs is as revelatory as it is welcome No other book has so thoroughly explored a phenomenon that was unique to the 1950s and 1960s when LPs were the only widely available medium that allowed consumers to enjoy repeated exposure to recorded material Krin Gabbard author of Hotter Than That The Trumpet Jazz and American Culture Smith s work contains historical material that few scholars have studied and many people have never even heard of The grouping of these unique case studies results in new connections to and between various performance styles materials and industries Susan Murray author of Hitch Your Antenna to the Stars

Sacred Tropes: Tanakh, New Testament, and Qur'an as Literature and Culture Roberta Sabbath,2009-09-30 Contemporary sacred text scholarship has been stimulated by a number of intersecting trends a surging interest in religion sacred texts and inspirational issues burgeoning developments in and applications of literary theories intensifying academic focus on diverse cultures whether for education or scholarship Although much has been written individually about Tanakh New Testament and Qur an no collection combines an examination of all three Sacred Tropes interweaves Tanakh New Testament and Qur an essays Contributors collectively and also often individually use mixed literary approaches instead of the older single theory strategy Appropriate for classroom or research the essays utilize a variety of literary theoretical lenses including environmental cultural studies gender psychoanalytic ideological economic historicism law and rhetorical criticisms through which to examine these sacred works

Dracula and the Gothic in Literature, Pop Culture and the Arts ,2015-10-14 This volume brings together fourteen articles that reappraise the productivity of Stoker s Dracula and the strong influence it still exerts on today s generations The volume explores various multimodal and multimedia adaptations of the book by critically examining its literary cinematic theatrical televised and artistic versions In so doing it reassesses the origins evolution imagery mythology theory and criticism of Gothic fiction and of the Gothic sub culture The volume is innovative in that it congregates various angles to the Gothic phenomenon providing an overview of the interdisciplinary relationships between different cultural artistic and creative reworkings of the Gothic in general and of Stoker's legacy in particular The Cambridge Companion to Australian Poetry Ann Vickery, 2024-06-13

 An invaluable resource for staff and students in literary studies and Australian studies this volume is the first major critical survey on Australian poetry. It investigates poetry's central role in engaging with issues of colonialism, nationalism, war and crisis, diaspora, gender and sexuality and the environment. Individual chapters examine Aboriginal writing and the archive, poetry and activism, print culture and practices of internationally renowned poets such as Lionel Fogarty, Gwen Harwood, John Kinsella, Les Murray and Judith Wright. The Companion considers Australian leadership in the diversification of poetry in terms of performance, the verse novel and digital poetics. It also considers Antipodean engagements with Romanticism and Modernism.

The Routledge Companion to Native American Literature Deborah L. Madsen, 2015-10-05
 The Routledge Companion to Native American Literature engages the multiple scenes of tension, historical, political, cultural and aesthetic that constitutes a problematic legacy in terms of community, identity, ethnicity, gender and sexuality, language and sovereignty in the study of Native American literature. This important and timely addition to the field provides context for issues that enter into Native American literary texts through allusions, references and language use. The volume presents over forty essays by leading and emerging international scholars and analyses regional, cultural, racial and sexual identities in Native American literature, key historical moments from the earliest period of colonial contact to the present, worldviews in relation to issues such as health, spirituality, animals and physical environments, traditions of cultural creation that are key to understanding the styles, allusions and language of Native American Literature, the impact of differing literary forms of Native American literature. This collection provides a map of the critical issues central to the discipline as well as uncovering new perspectives and new directions for the development of the field. It supports academic study and also assists general readers who require a comprehensive yet manageable introduction to the contexts essential to approaching Native American Literature. It is essential reading for anyone interested in the past, present and future of this literary culture.

The Cambridge History of Classical Literature E. J. Kenney, W. V. Clausen, 1982
 The Cambridge History of Classical Literature provides a comprehensive critical survey of the literature of Greece and Rome from Homer till the Fall of Rome. This is the only modern work of this scope; it embodies the very considerable advances made by recent classical scholarship and reflects too the increasing sophistication and vigour of critical work on ancient literature. The literature is presented throughout in the context of the culture and the social and historical processes of which it is an integral part. The overall aim is to offer an authoritative work of reference and appraisal for one of the world's greatest continuous literary traditions. The work is divided into two volumes each with a similar and broadly chronological structure. Among the special features are important introductory chapters by the General Editors on Books and Readers discussing the conditions under which literature was written and read in antiquity. There are also extensive Appendices on Authors and Works giving detailed factual information in a convenient form. Technical annotation is otherwise kept to a minimum and all quotations in foreign languages are translated.
