White Couple Owned By Their Black Master:

Black Slaveowners Larry Koger, 2011-12-02 Drawing on the federal census wills mortgage bills of sale tax returns and newspaper advertisements this authoritative study describes the nature of African American slaveholding its complexity and its rationales It reveals how some African American slave masters had earned their freedom and how some free Blacks purchased slaves for their own use The book provides a fresh perspective on slavery in the antebellum South and underscores the importance of African Americans in the history of American slavery The book also paints a picture of the complex social dynamics between free and enslaved Blacks and between Black and white slaveowners It illuminates the motivations behind African American slaveholding including attempts to create or maintain independence to accumulate wealth and to protect family members and sheds light on the harsh realities of slavery for both Black masters and Black slaves BLACK SLAVEOWNERS Shows how some African Americans became slave masters MOTIVATIONS FOR SLAVEHOLDING Highlights the motivations behind African American slaveholding SOCIAL DYNAMICS Sheds light on the complex social dynamics between free and enslaved Blacks ANEBELLUM SOUTH Provides a perspective on slavery in the antebellum South Charles W. Chesnutt and the Fictions of Race Dean McWilliams, 2010-07-01 Charles Chesnutt 1858 1932 was the first African American writer of fiction to win the attention and approval of America's literary establishment Looking anew at Chesnutt's public and private writings his fiction and nonfiction and his well known and recently rediscovered works Dean McWilliams explores Chesnutt's distinctive contribution to American culture how his stories and novels challenge our dominant cultural narratives particularly their underlying assumptions about race The published canon of Chesnutt's work has doubled in the last decade three novels completed but unpublished in Chesnutt's life have appeared as have scholarly editions of Chesnutt's journals his letters and his essays This book is the first to offer chapter length analyses of each of Chesnutt's six novels It also devotes three chapters to his short fiction Previous critics have read Chesnutt's nonfiction as biographical background for his fiction McWilliams is the first to analyze these nonfiction texts as complex verbal artifacts embodying many of the same tensions and ambiguities found in Chesnutt's stories and novels The book includes separate chapters on Chesnutt's journal and on his important essay The Future American Moreover Charles W. Chesnutt and the Fictions of Race approaches Chesnutt's writings from the perspective of recent literary theory To a greater extent than any previous study of Chesnutt it explores the way his texts interrogate and deconstruct the language and the intellectual constructs we use to organize reality The full effect of this new study is to show us how much more of a twentieth century writer Chesnutt is than has been previously acknowledged This accomplishment can only hasten his reemergence as one of our most important observers of race in American culture Meet Me at the Fair: A World's Fair Reader Celia Pearce, Bobby Schweizer, Laura Hollengreen, Rebecca Rouse, 2014 Together with the Olympics world's fairs are one of the few regular international events of sufficient scale to showcase a spectrum of sights wonders learning opportunities technological advances and new or renewed urban districts and to present them all to a mass audience Meet Me at the Fair A World's Fair Reader breaks new ground in scholarship on world's fairs by incorporating a number of short new texts that investigate world's fairs in their multiple aspects political urban architectural anthropological sociological technological commercial popular and representational Contributors come from eight different countries and represent affiliations in academia museums and libraries professional and architectural firms non profit organizations and government regulatory agencies In taking the measure of both the material artifacts and the larger cultural production of world's fairs the volume presents its own phantasmagoria of disciplinary perspectives historical periods geographical locales media and messages mirroring the microcosmic form of the world's fair itself The End of Supplication Yannick Marshall, 2025-10-02 The figure of the supplicant negro a figure famously represented in Josiah Wedgwood's 18th century anti slavery medallion continues to sideline radical Black anti colonialist struggle The End of the Supplication contends that Black freedom struggles are anti colonial movements against anti Blackness and the permutations of slavery and as such they are ill served by a dominant Civil Rights discourse that escapes neither the paternalism of white abolitionism nor the caricatures of minstrelsy The book traces the roots of the white supremacist ideology behind the disarmed supplicant negro figure and it shows how this ideology continues to inform present liberal presentations of Black people as passive subjects at the mercy of white power which only reinforces the relatively light consequences white supremacists generally incur for harming Black people These discussions lead to the conclusion that in our contemporary context of rising openly white supremacist politics the figure of the supplicant negro must be definitively destroyed in order to make way for more effective resistance to anti Black racism This book is a must read for students and researchers interested in colonialism and decolonization diaspora studies critical race and whiteness studies African American studies Black studies and Indigenous studies It is also of keen interest for anyone frustrated with the still recurring admonition to go slow when it comes to eradicating structural racism Ebony, 1983-10 EBONY is the flagship magazine of Johnson Publishing Founded in 1945 by John H Johnson it still maintains the highest global circulation of any African American focused magazine Episodes from a History of Undoing Reghina Dascal, 2011-12-14 Episodes from a History of Undoing The Heritage of Female Subversiveness paraphrasing Rada Khumar's seminal study of the development of the feminist movements in India The History of Doing is a volume purporting to illustrate women's resistance to patriarchal colonization through societal norms and hegemonic discourses Whether mythical amazons mediaeval authors or regular canons Renaissance monarchs activists and academics philosophers or politicians such women have become trail blazers in their fields attempting to forge new epistemes through strategies of undoing refashioning rewriting or revising political and cultural concepts practices and institutions The volume comprises 11 essays authored by academics from Brazil Hungary Poland Romania Turkey and the USA and addresses a wide readership of academics students historians NGO activists etc The volume is prefaced by Professor Margaret R Higonnet from Connecticut

University Sex Sounds Danielle Shlomit Sofer,2022-07-05 An investigation of sexual themes in electronic music since the 1950s with detailed case studies of electrosexual music by a wide range of creators In Sex Sounds Danielle Shlomit Sofer investigates the repeated focus on sexual themes in electronic music since the 1950s Debunking electronic music's origin myth that it emerged in France and Germany invented by Pierre Schaeffer and Karlheinz Stockhausen respectively Sofer defines electronic music more inclusively to mean any music with an electronic component drawing connections between academic institutions radio studios experimental music practice hip hop production and histories of independent and commercial popular music Through a broad array of detailed case studies examining music that ranges from Schaeffer's musique concrète to a video workshop by Annie Sprinkle Sofer offers a groundbreaking look at the social and cultural impact sex has had on audible creative practices Sofer argues that electrosexual music has two central characteristics the feminized voice and the climax mechanism Sofer traces the historical fascination with electrified sex sounds showing that works representing women's presumed sexual experience operate according to masculinist heterosexual tropes and presenting examples that typify the electroacoustic sexual canon Noting electronic music history's exclusion of works created by women people of color women of color and in particular Black artists Sofer then analyzes musical examples that depart from and disrupt the electroacoustic norms showing how even those that resist the norms sometimes reinforce them These examples are drawn from categories of music that developed in parallel with conventional electroacoustic music separated segregated from it Sofer demonstrates that electrosexual music is far more representative than the typically presented electroacoustic canon

What is Colonialism? Patrick Colm Hogan,2023-11-30 What is Colonialism develops a clear and rigorous account of what colonialism is and how it works It draws on and synthesizes recent work in cognitive science affective science and social psychology along with Marxism and related forms of analysis Hogan begins with some fundamental conceptual distinctions such as the degree to which a group shares beliefs dispositions and skills versus the degree to which they share identification with a category Building on these distinctions he defines colonialism in terms of political economic and cultural autonomy clarifying the nature of culture and autonomy particularly He goes on to articulate an invaluable systematic account of the varieties of colonialism The final chapters outline the motives of imperialists differentiating these from their ideological rationalizations and sketching the harms caused by colonialism The book concludes by considering when or if one can achieve a genuinely postcolonial condition Hogan illustrates these analyses by examining influential literary works by European writers such as Joseph Conrad and by non Europeans such as Athol Fugard Kamala Markandaya and Wole Soyinka This accessible and informative volume is the ideal resource for students and scholars interested in colonialism and empire

The Emergence of Black English Guy Bailey,Natalie Maynor,Patricia Cukor-Avila,1991-04-10 Debate over the evolution of Black English Vernacular BEV has permeated Afro American studies creole linguistics dialectology and sociolinguistics for a quarter of a century with little sign of a satisfactory resolution primarily because evidence that bears directly on the earlier stages of BEV is sparse This book brings together 11 transcripts of mechanical recordings of interviews with former slaves born well over a century ago It attempts to make this crucial source of data as widely known as possible and to explore its importance for the study of Black English Vernacular in view of various problems of textual composition and interpretation It does so by providing a complete description of the contents of the recordings by providing transcripts of most of the contents and by publishing a group of interpretive essays which examine the data in the light of other relevant historical cultural social and linguistic evidence and which provide contexts for interpretation and analysis In these essays a group of diverse scholars on BEV analyze the same texts for the first time the lack of consensus that emerges may seem surprising but in fact highlights some of the basic problems of textual composition and interpretation and of scholarly dispositions that underlie the study of BEV The papers raise crucial questions about the evolution of BEV about its relationship to other varieties and most important about the construction and interpretation of linguistic texts On the Lam William Beverly,2015-11 From the author of the novel Dodgers an exploration of how the fugitive criminal took the spotlight in American literature film and media news Worldchangers Shandi Stevenson,2023-05-16 Who was exiled and then killed just for giving his people the Bible in their own language What woman defied the KKK to bring hope to the children of former slaves Who brought religious freedom to North America Whose courageous leadership helped launch the black church If you were rescued from decades of opium addiction would you be willing to help thousands of other addicts to freedom Who became the voice for the outcast of India What is God calling you to do to change the world In Worldchangers challenge your faith as you meet men and women from around the world who turned some of the darkest moments of history into transforming opportunities Experience the true stories of Christians who lived the adventure of saying yes to a faithful God and be transported to unforgettable moments when ordinary people trusted God for things that seemed impossible and as a result changed the world for the better In these true stories you will experience triumph against all odds wars famines epidemics and oppression and find hope in the midst of heartbreak Worldchangers will give you new courage in trusting the God Who makes a way where there is no way and will hopefully encourage you to make some changes for the good in the world in which we live Ebony ,1983-10 EBONY is the flagship magazine of Johnson Publishing Founded in 1945 by John H Johnson it still maintains the highest global circulation of any African American focused magazine Policing Black Lives, Revised and Expanded Edition Robyn Maynard,2025-10-15T00:00:00Z The bestselling first edition of Policing Black Lives became a mainstay of bookshelves and classrooms across North America and Europe as the first comprehensive account of the state sanctioned surveillance criminalization and punishment of Black lives in Canada This revised and expanded edition updates the original text in the wake of global Black uprisings in 2020 and offers new insights on how to build liveable futures without policing Delving behind Canada s veneer of multiculturalism and tolerance award winning scholar and activist Robyn Maynard traces the afterlives of slavery across multiple institutions Maynard sheds light on the state's role in perpetuating colonial dispossession racial profiling police killings incarceration immigration detention deportation exploitative migrant labour practices disproportionate child removal and the school to prison pipeline as well as the ubiquity of Black resistance The first new chapter meticulously documents how half a century of police reforms have served to undermine Black freedom struggles while expanding the scope and scale of policing in Canadian society In the second Maynard advances a compelling vision for making policing obsolete and building new forms of safety Henry F.
