The Community College Library Janet Pinkley,Kaela Casey,2022-04-13

Community colleges are a cornerstone of higher education and serve the unique needs of the communities in which they reside. In 2019, community colleges accounted for 41 percent of all undergraduate students in the United States. Community college librarians are engaged in meaningful work, designing and delivering library programs and services that meet the needs of their diverse populations and support student learning. The Community College Library series is meant to lift the voices of community college librarians and highlight their creativity, tenacity, and commitment to students. The Community College Library Reference and Instruction collects research programs and new approaches to reference and instruction implemented by community college librarians around the U.S. Chapters include sample activities and materials and cover topics including using race-centered and trauma-informed practices in the reference interview, incorporating online workshops into an existing information literacy program, and using student-driven pedagogy to navigate the early stages of research. This book demonstrates the innovative and replicable ways community college librarians are meeting the information and research needs of their college population both in person and remotely, all while providing a safe, inclusive space for students to explore and learn.

Strength Of My Ancestors Within Me Vivene Joy Brown, 2023-07-31 After surviving an abusive relationship, raising seven children, and wrestling with self-doubt and fear, Vivene Brown brings wisdom and insight to her memoir and first book, Strength Of My Ancestors Within Me. A riveting story about a woman's perseverance in her fight to break the cycle of violence and give her children more support and opportunity than she experienced growing up, this tale of reliance will inspire readers and encourage those fighting to be free from their own repressive relationships. Ms. Brown also traces the history of her ancestors, giving the narrative a setting that begins in 1923 Jamaica and continues into 2023 Canada. Her own history of neglect, abuse, and turmoil features prominently against a powerful backdrop consisting of a century of trials, overcoming, and self-discovery. Along the way, she uncovers secrets that have been hidden for generations, providing her with an even greater understanding of her past and readers with a deeper appreciation of history and the scourge of slavery around the world. Ms. Brown offers her audience advice, insight, and lessons on love, family, and relationships. Postcards to Hitler Bruce Neuburger, 2024-04-09 Postcards to Hitler is the story of a Munich family living as close neighbors to the demagogue who will become the primordial commander of the Nazis, as passionately told by one of their surviving relatives, Bruce Neuburger. As the story begins, Europe has enjoyed many decades of peace on its own soil, and Jews are enjoying a social renaissance in the industrializing, urbanizing, rising star that is Germany. It is not at all clear that this good fortune might begin to unravel. Benno Neuburger, a modest German land investor from Munich, and Anna Einstein, daughter of a cattle dealer from Laupheim, marry in 1907. Their family life begins at a relatively prosperous moment in Germany and a particularly optimistic time for German Jews. Even when news of an assassination in an obscure Balkan corner of the continent passes like a cold wind through Munich on a warm beer garden July day in 1914, people shudder but feel no great alarm What follows is a prolonged and bloody war provoked by inter colonialist competition which gives way to German defeat a revolution and a brief socialist interlude in Munich soon cannibalized by a merciless counter revolution and the pitiless demagoguery of defeated generals Living amidst this swirl Benno and Anna and their extended families in the German towns of Laupheim Traunstein and Wolfratshausen cling to hope for a peaceful resolution to the a period of prolonged crisis They struggle to survive as the economic and political climate becomes more difficult but to no avail Munich becomes the epicenter of German fascism fed by national resentment and racial madness and their own families are caught up in the storms and terror that follow Children turned refugees a bloody pogrom resettlements via train rides east desperate acts of resistance arrest and trials proceed as a Holocaust unfolds around them Postcards to Hitler is a deeply researched narrative history drawn from direct interviews and a mass of archival documents of great personal import including the Neuburgers final letters describing daily lives in close proximity to the Fuhrer and surrounded on all sides by a slow moving parade of horror until the perimeter between themselves and the Holocaust disappears The Canadian Abridgment ,1966

Heritage from Father Hormisdas Ndayishimiye,2014-02-12 Heritage from Father is a poignant testimony on the suffering from discrimination and the 1994 Genocide against the Tutsi in Rwanda It is also a testimony of love compassion and healing after the authors parents six brothers and sisters were killed in the genocide In this testimony the author highlights his awareness of Gods blessings upon him through people from different cultural and ethnic backgrounds It is evidence that the awareness reminds him of the values of gratitude and faith instilled by his father from early age The very values that had healed his father during the persecutions of the Tutsi in the years that preceded the horror of the 1994 genocide Heritage from Father is also an account of how the saving hand of remembrance kept away from him the pressing need for hatred that had started to overrun him and how it urged him to life in peace instead with himself and with the world This is particularly true in his personal style of forgiving the executioners of his family and relatives in spite of their refusal to own responsibility

during the upbringing of their bicultural daughter When her enthusiasm for Spanish language immersion at home meets with the child's resistance the author is forced to question the visceral attachment she feels for her birth language Stumbling through motherhood she ponders how to live an authentic sense of self while mothering in English She resolves not to push the daughter to speak Spanish and risk damaging their mother daughter bond Instead the author begins to write and crafts this family legacy as an invitation for her daughter to embrace her Cuban Spanish lineage This Latina mother's journey of self reflection dredges memories of her birthplace family exile cultural adaptation and social integration Through the narrative lens of a child refugee daughter wife mother professor and an acculturated Cuban American the author depicts the culture clashing complexities of her biculturalism It is while examining the precariousness of family relationships that the author arrives at a deeper understanding of the nuances of ethnic identity Through this writing she achieves a genuine embrace of the extraordinary adoptive country that irrevocably ties her to her beloved American daughter May you reader be inspired to collect and stitch for posterity your tapestry of family stories
