

AWARDS CEREMONY PRESENTATION SPEECH by film-critic and screenwriting instructor John Petrakis

Thank you, Niko.

I would also like to thank my fellow jurors, film critic and Loyola University lecturer, Zbigniew Banas, and award-winning filmmaker, Mark Mamalakis.

When Niko asked if I might consider being a judge for this young but growing festival, I hesitated at first. Like many other writers and teachers who must cobble together a living from assorted jobs, I can be very stingy with my time. But I accepted for two reasons. First, in memory of Theo Angelopoulos, who passed away last year, and was not only the greatest of all Greek film directors, but one of the most honored and respected filmmakers in all the world. And second, because in this time of political and economic strife in Greece, it is important that we encourage the arts as a means to examine how our homeland found itself in such a dilemma and how it can pull itself out.

To that end, I would like to announce the winners.

In the Short Film category, the winner is VICIOUS CIRCLE, written, directed and produced by Salvador Georgantas, which we found to be a loving homage to silent film, the power of a punchline and the way that comedy is often the best way to face adversity.

Transforming Labour Joan Sangster,2010-05-22 The increased participation of women in the labour force was one of the most significant changes to Canadian social life during the quarter century after the close of the Second World War Transforming Labour offers one of the first critical assessments of women s paid labour in this era a period when more and more women particularly those with families were going out to work Using case studies from across Canada Joan Sangster explores a range of themes including women s experiences within unions Aboriginal women s changing patterns of work and the challenges faced by immigrant women By charting women s own efforts to ameliorate their work lives as well as factors that re shaped the labour force Sangster challenges the commonplace perception of this era as one of conformity domesticity for women and feminist inactivity Working women s collective grievances fuelled their desire for change culminating in challenges to the status quo in the 1960s when they voiced their discontent calling for a new world of work and better opportunities for themselves and their daughters Amateur Musical Societies and Sports Clubs in Provincial France, 1848-1914 Alan R. H. Baker,2017-09-14 This book explores leisure related voluntary associations in France during the nineteenth century as practical expressions of the Revolutionary concept of fraternit Using a mass of unpublished sources in provincial and national archives it analyses the history geography and cultural significance of amateur musical societies and sports clubs in eleven d partements of France between 1848 and 1914 It demonstrates that although these voluntary associations drew upon and extended the traditional concept of cooperation and community and the Revolutionary concept of fraternity they also incorporated the fundamental characteristics of competition and conflict Although intended to produce social harmony in practice they reflected the ideological hostilities and cultural tensions that permeated French society in the nineteenth century Telling Stories Geoff Palmer,2014-10-15
