Teachers, administrators, and education professors will find ideas that will transform classrooms into places where students are filled with confidence and empowered to strive for excellence Translanguaging and Transformative Teaching for Emergent Bilingual Students City University of New York-New York State Initiative on Emergent Bilinguals, 2020-11-26 A critical and accessible text, this book provides a foundation for translanguaging theory and practice with educating emergent bilingual students. The product of the internationally renowned and trailblazing City University of New York New York State Initiative on Emergent Bilinguals CUNY NYSIEB, this book draws on a common vision of translanguaging to present different perspectives of its practice and outcomes in real schools. It tells the story of the collaborative project's positive impact on instruction and assessment in different contexts and explores the potential for transformation in teacher education. Acknowledging oppressive traditions and obstacles facing language-minoritized students, this book provides a pathway for combatting racism, monolingualism, classism, and colonialism in the classroom and offers narratives, strategies, and pedagogical practices to liberate and engage emergent bilingual students. This book is an essential text for all teacher educators, researchers, scholars, and students in TESOL and bilingual education as well as educators working with language-minoritized students Research in Education, 1974 Testing the Untestable in Language Education Amos Paran, Lies Sercu, 2010-06-07 The testing and assessment of language competence continues to be a much-debated issue in foreign language teaching and research. This book is the first one to address the testing of four important dimensions of foreign language education which have been left largely unconsidered: learner autonomy, intercultural competence, literature and literary competence, and the integration of content and language learning. Each area is considered through a theoretical framework followed by two empirical studies raising questions of importance to all language teachers: How can one test literary competence? Can intercultural competence be measured? What about the integrated assessment of content and language in CLIL and teaching? Is progress in autonomous learning skill gaugeable? The book constitutes essential reading for anyone interested in the testing and assessment of seemingly largely untestable aspects of foreign language competence Spoken English 3' 2003 Ed. , Communication and Student Socialization Ann Q. Staton, 1990 Focusing on the role communication plays in the process of student socialization at the elementary and secondary school levels, this text examines the underlying theoretic framework. It contains chapters that explore the socialization process by youngsters at various grade levels or with special needs. The final chapter compares and contrasts the socialization process across the spectrum of elementary middle and high school
