Metaphor and the Slave Trade in West African Literature Laura T. Murphy, 2012-04-02 Metaphor and the Slave Trade provides compelling evidence of the hidden but unmistakable traces of the transatlantic slave trade that persist in West African discourse Through an examination of metaphors that describe the trauma loss and suffering associated with the commerce in human lives this book shows how the horrors of slavery are communicated from generation to generation Laura T Murphy s insightful new readings of canonical West African fiction autobiography drama and poetry explore the relationship between memory and metaphor and emphasize how repressed or otherwise marginalized memories can be transmitted through images tropes rumors and fears By analyzing the unique codes through which West Africans have represented the slave trade this work foregrounds African literary contributions to Black Atlantic discourse and draws attention to the archive that metaphor unlocks for scholars of all disciplines and fields of study Restoring Mentalizing in Attachment Relationships Jon G. Allen, 2012-07-30 In Restoring Mentalizing in Attachment Relationships Treating Trauma With Plain Old Therapy Jon G Allen Ph D argues that the incorporation of mentalizing into attachment theory and research provides a solid foundation for trauma treatment and offers therapists and patients a pathway to recovery In plain language accessible to clinicians and laypeople alike Allen describes trauma in attachment relationships reviews the literature and makes a compelling evidence based argument for the efficacy of psychotherapy Specifically the book Presents a comprehensive view of attachment trauma across diverse diagnostic conditions directly linking these to the psychotherapeutic interventions that work best Allows therapists from different theoretical frameworks by using these best practices to treat patients with a wide range of problems and disorders Situates mindfulness and mentalizing as central to secure attachment focusing clinicians attention on these most critical dimensions of healing relationships Provides a thorough review of the research on attachment mindfulness and mentalizing and evaluates the effectiveness of the most popular trauma treatments thereby equipping clinicians to treat patients across the spectrum of trauma related psychiatric disorders Employs a down to earth conversational writing style that makes the book accessible to patients and family members as well as to professionals Trauma can be the result of blatant events such as violence abuse and neglect or the subtle yet pervasive failure to connect Both contribute to developmental psychopathology and cause lasting emotional pain Plain old therapy according to Allen is a valuable and proven resource for addressing trauma and treating patients with complex psychiatric disorders This fascinating and eminently useful book should help to restore psychotherapy to its well deserved stature Toppling Things as Memorial Contestation , 2025-01-07 Following the murder of George Floyd in 2020 monuments became a focal point protestors toppled or spray painted them even danced on them These politically visually and emotionally potent events may have looked instantaneous yet frequently sprang from years of activism as well as protracted political and academic debate Toppling Things challenges stereotypical notions monument topplings as riotous spontaneous or irrational Bringing together the ideas and emotions the uncertainty and convictions of artists activists and academics the volume rejects a neatly tied up distant narrative As it sheds light on the global personal immediate and historical processes around the fall of a monument the volume engages directly with the complexity of toppling activism and monument removal as a form of lived experience Hearth Annick Smith,Susan O'Connor,2018-10-09 A multicultural anthology edited by Susan O Connor and Annick Smith about the enduring importance and shifting associations of the hearth in our world A hearth is many things a place for solitude a source of identity something we make and share with others a history of ourselves and our homes It is the fixed center we return to It is just as intrinsically portable It is in short the perfect metaphor for what we seek in these complex and contradictory times set in flux by climate change mass immigration the refugee crisis and the dislocating effects of technology Featuring original contributions from some of our most cherished voices including Terry Tempest Williams Bill McKibben Pico Iyer Natasha Trethewey Luis Alberto Urrea and Chigozie Obioma Hearth suggests that empathy and storytelling hold the power to unite us when we have wandered alone for too long This is an essential anthology that challenges us to redefine home and hearth as a place to welcome strangers to be generous to care for the world beyond one s own experience Guided by the Wind Leona Bentley,2024-01-15 A path through hell is their only way toward a future together Star leads a dangerous life Beneath the brutal sun he helps his father Ty guide settlers through the harshest lands Those who survive the monsters bandits and other omnipresent threats often succumb to the elements Star has his own demons to worry about ones from his past that he s never been able to outride but so long as he has Ty and the wind at his back he s content Damien Sole is a wanted man His ragtag family of outlaws is on the run from bounty hunters who would as happily kill them as arrest them and they re in need of a guide Star doesn t look like much with his slim build and cat like features but there s ferocity in his sharp green eyes that Damien can t resist What starts as a spark of lust between the two men flares into an inferno As ancient secrets surface they bring new enemies with them Men like Damien and Star don t die old in their beds and they don t get a happy ever after With everything against them nothing will come easy Especially not love The Impact of Complex Trauma on Development Cheryl Arnold,Ralph Fisch,2011-10-16 The Impact of Complex Trauma on Development describes what happens cognitively and emotionally behaviorally and relationally to people who are repeatedly traumatized in childhood Part One brings together trauma theory with a number of theories of human development It directly addresses and describes developmental pathology and its origins Through powerful examples it conveys to the reader the pain and destruction caused by ongoing trauma abuse and continuous stress Part Two written from the perspective of a clinician who has worked extensively with traumatized children and adults is primarily directed to mental health professionals and graduate students These chapters are devoted to describing how to recognize the pathological consequences of trauma and how to intervene and remediate these developmental deficits The overarching theory is psychoanalytically based and developmental but other treatment approaches are integrated into the therapy when
