

Spring

Cloze text with solution

Spring is one of the four seasons. It is the season when nature awakens from the winter sleep with vibrant colors and fresh green and only meteorological changes, but not a change of vegetation for plants in the north.

One of the most characteristic signs of spring is the melting of the snow cover. In the north, the snow cover is thicker and lasts longer. In the south, it is thinner and melts earlier. The melting of the snow cover is a sign of the beginning of the growing season.

Spring is also the time for animals. Many species of animals wake up from their winter hibernation. Birds sing in the trees. The first birds to appear are the robins. They are the first to sing in the morning.

The first spring weather is usually cold. It is often windy and rainy. The weather is usually cloudy. The first rain is a sign of the beginning of the growing season.

Spring festivals and traditions are held in many countries. The most famous are the Easter festivals. They are held in the month of April. They are a time for people to celebrate the beginning of the new year.

The changes in spring are a sign of the beginning of the growing season. They are a time for people to celebrate the beginning of the new year.

In addition to all the signs of spring, there are also meteorological changes. The weather is usually cloudy. The first rain is a sign of the beginning of the growing season.

Conclusion: Spring is a time of change and new beginnings. It is a season when nature awakens and the weather is usually cloudy. The first rain is a sign of the beginning of the growing season.
