11. Which is true about Native Americans before the European settlers came?

- They were few in numbers, but some tribes were constantly waging war against each other.
- High native populations were in the northeast region, but the rest of the country was mostly uninhabited.
- The entire nation was populated with many tribes of native people. The tribes were diverse in languages, customs, and ways of living.
- The Native American population comprised of the Algonquian, Iroquois and Seminole tribes. These 3 "major tribes" later branched off into many different tribes.

12. Why did European settlers come to the Americas?
