Rethinking Khoe and San Indigeneity, Language and Culture in Southern Africa Julie Grant, Keyan G. Tomaselli, 2022-09-19 The San hunter gatherers and Khoe herders of southern Africa were dispossessed of their land before during and after the European colonial period which started in 1652 They were often enslaved and forbidden from practicing their culture and speaking their languages In South Africa under apartheid after 1948 they were reclassified as Coloured which further undermined Khoe and San culture forcing them to reconfigure and realign their identities and loyalties Southern Africa is no longer under colonial or apartheid rule the San and Khoe however continue in the struggle to maintain the remnants of their languages and cultures and are marginalised by the dominant peoples of the region The San in particular continue to command very extensive research attention from a variety of disciplines from anthropology and linguistics to genetics They are however usually studied as static historical objects but they are not merely peoples of the past as is often assumed they are very much alive in contemporary society with cultural and language needs This book brings together studies from a range of disciplines to examine what it means to be Indigenous Khoe and San in contemporary southern Africa It considers the current constraints on Khoe and San identity language and culture constantly negotiating an indeterminate social positioning where they are treated as the inconvenient indigenous Usually studied as original anthropos but out of their time this book shifts attention from the past to the present and how the San have negotiated language literacy and identity for coping in the period of modernity It reveals that Afrikaans is indeed an African language incubated not only by Cape Malay slaves working in the kitchens of the early Dutch settlers but also by the Khoe and San who interacted with sailors from passing ships plying the West coast of southern Africa from the 14th century The book re-examines the idea of literacy its relationship to language and how these shape identity The chapters in this book were originally published in the journal Critical Arts South North Cultural and Media Studies

Civil Wars in Africa Kelechi A. Kalu, George Klay Kieh Jr., 2022-05-05 Civil Wars in Africa edited by Kelechi A Kalu and George Klay Kieh Jr examines civil conflicts throughout various African countries They argue that civil wars in Africa are by products of the contradictions and crises engendered by the post colonial state building and nation building projects in Africa With few exceptions the post colonial states in Africa have failed to build societies that invest in the material well being of their citizens protect their political civil and other rights promote accountability transparency the rule of law judicial independence and the holding of free and fair elections and promote ethnic pluralism tolerance mutual respect and peaceful co existence among others In addition the contributors show that the post colonial states in Africa have been ruled by corrupt and autocratic leaders who are obsessed with the maintenance of state power as the pathway to ensuring the private accumulation of wealth through sundry illegal means including bribery extortion and theft of public funds In sum this volume addresses how the failure of the post colonial African state to shepherd the process of building democratic societies based on the centrality of human security has led to the erosion of the legitimacy of the state and its custodians Thus once the contradictions and crises reached their crescendo these post colonial societies than implode into civil wars even at the micro level Military Assistance on Request and the Use of Force Erika De Wet,2020-03-26

In countries such as Syria Iraq South Sudan and Yemen internationally recognized governments embroiled in protracted armed conflicts and with very little control over their territory have requested direct military assistance from other states These requests are often accepted by the other states despite the circumvention of the United Nations Security Council and extensive violation of international humanitarian law and human rights In this book Erika De Wet examines the authority entitled to extend a request for or consent to direct military assistance as well as the type of situations during which such assistance may be requested notably whether it may be requested during a civil war Ultimately De Wet addresses the question of if and to what extent the proliferation of military assistance on the request of a recognized government is changing the rules in international law applying to the use of force Zimbos Never Die? ,2023-05-08 This book seeks to explore how the Zimbabwean society and its institutions have survived if not succumbed to continuous economic crises in the country From the 1990s Zimbabwe experienced a sustained economic decline challenged by both internal and external strains Coupled with internal mis governance and corruption the nation plunged into a political and economic crisis which culminated in the second highest world inflation rate for an economy that is not at war In the face of the harsh and continuously deteriorating economic environments Zimbabweans as individuals as well as part of institutions adopted various strategies to negotiate and survive the economic scourge Contributors include Wellington Bamu Nathaniel Chimhete Anusa Daimon Innocent Dande Sylvester Dombo Tinotenda Dube Rudo Gaidzanwa Tafara Evelyn Kombora Ushehweku Kufakurinani Bernard Kusena Eric Kushinga Makombe Albert Makochehanwa Blessed Masawi Ivo Mhike Joseph P Mtisi Joseph Mujere Wesley Mwatwara Pius S Nyambara Tinashe Nyamunda Mark Nyandoro Takesure Taringana and Nicola Yon Mutimurefu

Civil Protection and Domestic Security in Contemporary Hybrid Warfare Wojciech Wróblewski, Michał Wiśniewski, Jędrzej Bieniasz,2025-05-22 Civil Protection and Domestic Security in Contemporary Hybrid Warfare presents a comprehensive approach to civil protection and domestic security in contemporary hybrid armed conflict Hybrid warfare encompasses a number of dimensions such as military political psychological cognitive space social economic informational or technological Current conflicts show that hybrid warfare despite regional differences is based on a common operational framework that combines conventional and unconventional tactics targeting not only military structures but also largely targeting civilians societies All this makes threats more diffuse subtle and difficult to predict They also often take the form of networked actions and have cascading effects in which they can produce complex secondary effects affecting a range of spheres of society and key infrastructure In response to this spectrum of threats individual states need to adapt their security and civil protection systems to the type of threat involved However most existing solutions are fragmented resulting in a reduced ability to coordinate and adequately prepare civilians for hybrid threat conditions Given these challenges the book establishes a common language that helps shape coherent risk management and protective mechanisms in dealing with hybrid attacks It also points in a new direction in ensuring the reliability of information provided to civilians which is crucial in a hybrid war environment where disinformation is used as one of the main tools of destabilisation Drawing on theoretical knowledge and practical experiences from around the world the book provides tools to effectively respond to existing and future conflicts and hybrid wars Above and beyond this bridging the gap between concrete knowledge of hybrid warfare and operational needs this book explores how public administrations public services NGOs local communities and other actors play a key role in protecting the population during such non traditional armed conflicts Civil Protection and Domestic Security in Contemporary Hybrid Warfare is a vital resource to government and civilian specialists responsible for population security and protection helping them and their civilian populations to strategise and oftentimes to individually mitigate the risk of loss of life or health as has been demonstrated in the Russia Ukraine conflict

The End of an Era? Robert Mugabe and a Conflicting Legacy Munyaradzi, Mawere, Marongwe, Ngonidzashe, 2018-11-17 Arguably one of the most polarising figures in modern times has been Robert Gabriel Mugabe the former President of the Republic of Zimbabwe The mere mentioning of his name raises a lot of debate and often times vicious if not irreconcilable differences both in Zimbabwe and beyond In an article titled Lessons of Zimbabwe Mahmood Mamdani succinctly captures the polarity thus It is hard to think of a figure more reviled in the West than Robert Mugabe and his land reform measures however harsh have won him considerable popularity not just in Zimbabwe but throughout southern Africa This together with his recent stylised ouster speaks volumes to his conflicted legacy The divided opinion on Mugabe's legacy can broadly be represented first by those who consider him as a champion of African liberation a Pan Africanist an unmatched revolutionary and an avid anti imperialist who literally spoke the truth to Western imperialists On the other end of the spectrum are those who seemingly paying scant regard to the predicament of millions of black Zimbabweans brutally dispossessed of their land and human dignity since the Rhodesian days have differentially characterised Mugabe as a rabid black fascist an anti white racist an oppressor and a dictator Drawing on all these opinions and characterisations the chapters ensconced in this volume critically reflect on the personality leadership style and contributions of Robert Mugabe during his time in office from 1980 to November 2017 The volume is timely in view of the current contested transition in Zimbabwe and with regard to the ongoing consultations on the Land Question in neighbouring South Africa It is a handy and richly documented text for students and practitioners in political science African studies economics policy studies development studies and global studies

Into Action Dan Harvey, 2017-03-13 Into Action is the story of the Irish Defence Forces role as international peacekeepers since 1960 While primarily posted to uphold the transition towards peace in overseas conflicts they have at times inevitably been forced to fight back against often aggressive opposition Dan Harvey's fascinating and accessible history follows the major military incidents in the peacekeepers sixty year campaign from Niemba the Siege at Jadotville and Elizabethville in the Congo to At Tiri in Lebanon and Durbol in Syria These are to name just a few of the military engagements that involved supreme bravery on behalf of the Irish Defence Forces and at times ended in terrible tragedy Dan Harvey's detailed account of the military operations they were involved in reveal the defence forces effective responses to crisis and conflict how they stood firm during ethnically motivated rioting in Gracancia or intervened in the midst of a clash between Chadian government forces and rebel attackers and how the Irish nation was halted into mourning in November 1960 by news that nine soldiers of the 33rd Irish Battalion had been killed by Baluba warriors near Niemba in the Congo These are the deeds and tragedies that have come to define Ireland s role in international peacekeeping Into Action reveals the true story of this role and the immense courage that have underlined its operations from the beginning
