

Background information given:

Topic: Short-term trading, international accounting, short-term debt financing

Background:

Southampton plc has been negotiating a contract with a potential customer in Russia. Before the negotiation started, the Russian company requested that it should be allowed to make the statement of Southampton. These statements were included the costs of sending the technical staff to Russia. This is the first report under the company's new contract with a new customer. The previous contract under which the customer was trading started the first strategy was to concentrate on business in the UK.

The sales department has proposed the following statement showing that the contract will make a profit. It is required for the sales department to provide the statement in English to be implemented in the first 10 years.

Obviously the management accountant will also be asked to comment on the statement prepared by the sales department. As this order is different and may need to be for other business in the future the sales manager asked the management accountant to comment on the statement below.

Statement prepared by sales department

Costs including direct at £100,000 (cost order)	£100,000
Admin (cost order)	20,000
Overhead (cost order)	20,000
Design (contract order)	10,000
Manufacturing charges (cost order)	20,000
Materials (cost order)	20,000
Depreciation on machinery (cost order)	10,000
Total	£190,000

After the completion of management accountant prepared a profit report. The costs given are summarized below:

Summary from management accountant

Notes 1: This report will be found in the attached.

Notes 2: This report will include £100,000 of costs for goods that have already been received. This is the cost of sending engineers to Russia to help with the negotiations.

Notes 3: This is 10% of the cost of the equipment. It is suggested that the equipment will be used about half the time in the contract. This cost has been included in £10,000 because the the equipment is not completely completed yet.
