מנחם שמלצער, 2006 Collected Essays Shir Hama'alot l'David (Song of the Steps) and Ktav Hitnazzelut l'Darshanim

(In Defense of Preachers) David Darshan, 1984-12-31 David Darshan of Cracow was the first of the itinerant Jewish preachers whose works were published He was a Renaissance man in a very real sense Preacher scholar artist healer scribe mystic editor commentator and bibliophile and father of five daughters he tried in vain to establish an academy but failed because he was on the wrong side of the establishment He was involved in the reintroduction of the printing of Hebrew books in Poland in 1569 He wrote a commentary on the Jerusalem Talmud as well as a spirited defense of preaching and the preacher's art and copied and illustrated a magnificent Kabbalistic manuscript He wandered through Germany Bohemia and Russia spent time in Italy during the period of the printing of the Zohar and the banning of the Talmud served as scholar in residence at the home of a wealthy Jewish banking family returned to Cracow to become the town darshan and set out for Safed to join the community of Kabbalists and await the Messiah This account of his background and translation of two almost forgotten books Shir haMa'alot l David and Ktav Hitnazzelut l Darshanim a collection of sermons response poems model letters to distinguished persons efforts to fund an academy a sourcebook for would be preachers and a defense of the craft lifts the curtain on the inner life of the Jewish world in the late Middle Ages The reproduction of the Hebrew texts of two books that have all but disappeared places a valuable resource in the hands of scholars The cover illustration for the volume is by David Darshan and appears in the manuscript of Perush hYeri'ah haG'dolah a commentary on the Ten Spheres which he copied illustrated and signed in Modena in 1556 It depicts Rabbi Akiva surrounded by the four creatures of Ezekiel's chariot vision standing between the sketch of the universe and the spherot tree The manuscript is evidence of David's skill as scribe and artist

Studies in Medieval Arabic and Hebrew Poetics Somekh, 2023-07-10 Thy Father's Instruction Naomi Feuchtwanger-Sarig, 2021-12-06 The Nuremberg Miscellany Germanisches Nationalmuseum Nürnberg Bibliothek 8 Hs 7058 Rl 203 is a unique work of scribal art and illumination Its costly parchment leaves are richly adorned and illustrated with multicolour paint and powdered gold It was penned and illustrated in southern Germany probably Swabia in 1589 and is signed by a certain Eliezer ben Mordechai the Martyr The Miscellany is a relatively thin manuscript In its present state it holds a total of 46 folios 44 of which are part of the original codex and an additional bifolio that was attached to it immediately or soon after its production The book is a compilation of various Hebrew texts most of which pertain to religious life Others are home liturgies Biblical exegeses comments on rites and customs moralistic texts homiletic and ethical discourses and an extensive collection of home liturgies its major part being dedicated to the life cycle The unparalleled text compilation of the Nuremberg Miscellany on the one hand and the naïve untrained illustrations on the other hand are puzzling Its illustrations are hardly mindful of volume depth or perspective and their folk art nature suggests that an unprofessional artist possibly even the scribe himself may have executed them Whoever the illustrator was his vast knowledge of Jewish lore unfolds layer after layer in a most intricate way His sharp eye for detail renders the images he executed a valid representation of contemporary visual culture The iconography of the Nuremberg Miscellany with its 55 decorated leaves featuring 25 text illustrations falls into two main categories biblical themes and depictions of daily life both sacred and mundane While the biblical illustrations rely largely on artistic rendering and interpretation of texts the depictions of daily life are founded mainly on current furnishings and accoutrements in Jewish homes The customs and rituals portrayed in the miscellany attest not only to the local Jewish Minhag but also to the influence and adaptation of local Germanic or Christian rites They thus offer first hand insights to the interrelations between the Jews and their neighbors Examined as historical documents the images in the Nuremberg Miscellany are an invaluable resource for reconstructing Jewish daily life in Ashkenaz in the early modern period In a period from which only scanty relics of Jewish material culture have survived retrieving the pictorial data from images incorporated in literary sources is of vital importance in providing the missing link Corroborated by similar objects from the host society and with descriptions in contemporary Jewish and Christian written sources the household objects as well as the ceremonial implements depicted in the manuscript can serve as effective mirrors for the material culture of an affluent German Jewish family in the Early Modern period The complete Nuremberg Miscellany is reproduced in the appendix of this book

Social and Religious History of the Jews Salo Wittmayer Baron, 1965 This book explores the puzzling phenomenon of new veiling practices among lower middle class women in Cairo Egypt Although these women are part of a modernizing middle class they also voluntarily adopt a traditional symbol of female subordination How can this paradox be explained An explanation emerges which reconceptualizes what appears to be reactionary behavior as a new style of political struggle as accommodating protest These women most of them clerical workers in the large government bureaucracy are ambivalent about working outside the home considering it a change which brings new burdens as well as some important benefits At the same time they realize that leaving home and family is creating an intolerable situation of the erosion of their social status and the loss of their traditional identity The new veiling expresses women's protest against this MacLeod argues that the symbolism of the new veiling emerges from this tense subcultural dilemma involving elements of both resistance and acquiescence
