

The Things They Carried – Midterm Study Guide Part 2

Friends

Synopsis: Lee Strunk and Dave Jensen forge a relationship after their physical altercation. They make a pact to each other that if either of them is seriously wounded, the other will put them out of their misery. When Strunk steps on a landmine, he begs Jensen not to kill him. Later, he ends up dying from the wound.

Story Topic: This story is about two soldiers and their relationship to one another. It's about the things you promise people and whether you can go through with those promises. It's about how you stay loyal to people you care about.

Main Conflict: The conflict in this story is all on Jensen. Should he keep his promise and kill Strunk because he lost his leg? Should he honor Strunk's final request not to kill him as Strunk begs? How is he supposed to feel when he learns Strunk dies anyway?

1. What is a possible theme for this story?
 - a. The theme of "Friends" revolves around the complex relationships that develop among soldiers during the Vietnam War.
2. What is the main purpose of this story?
 - a. The purpose of the short story "Friends" is to provide insight into the emotional connections and support systems that develop among soldiers during times of conflict. It delves into themes of friendship, loyalty, and the impact of war on interpersonal relationships.
3. Do you think Jensen did the right thing by not killing Strunk when he had the chance? Why or why not?
 - a. Jensen was right in assuring Strunk that he would not carry out their agreement and kill Strunk, as it demonstrates the true strength of Jensen's character.

How to Tell a True War Story

Synopsis: O'Brien offers multiple vignettes of little stories in this chapter. He tells the story of how Curt Lemon died from stepping on a rigged mortar round, and how Rat Kiley dealt with losing his best friend. He told a story about Mitchell Sanders telling a story; a tale about a group of soldiers who went out on a listening post and heard strange noises. They eventually call in air strikes and bomb the whole area. He moves back to Jensen's death and Kiley's inability to cope.

Story Topic: This chapter is all about truth and storytelling. O'Brien really plays with fact and fiction here. He deconstructs storytelling to reveal what is really important when telling a story. The ultimate truth does not ultimately matter. What matters is how the story makes the reader/listener feel.

Main Conflict: This story's conflict doesn't really come from the story itself, but from the telling of the stories told. How do we reconcile what O'Brien is telling us? What do we believe to be true? Does it matter? If it doesn't, then what is the point of any of it?
