Library,1993 Things Fall Apart? Pauline von Hellermann,2013-09-01 Governance failure and corruption are increasingly identified as key causes of tropical deforestation In Nigeria s Edo State once the showcase of scientific forestry in West Africa large scale forest conversion and the virtual depletion of timber stocks are invariably attributed to recent failures in forest management and are seen as yet another instance of how things fall apart in Nigeria Through an in depth historical and ethnographic study of forestry in Edo State this book challenges this routine linking of political and ecological crisis narratives It shows that the roots of many of today s problems lie in scientific forest management itself rather than its recent abandonment and moreover that many illegal local practices improve rather than reduce biodiversity and forest cover The book therefore challenges preconceptions about contemporary Nigeria and highlights the need to reevaluate current understandings of what constitutes good governance in tropical forestry standards into diverse legal and cultural contexts The volume contributes to our understanding of the challenges of transplantation from the Global North and how the Global South is steering within the constraints created by the FATF It advocates for a comprehensive understanding of the nuanced compliance challenges of developing countries It further proposes practical solutions to address them emphasizing the importance of risk based understanding accountability capacity building and coordination in achieving effective anti money laundering and counter terrorist financing measures The collection will be essential reading for researchers academics and policy makers working in financial crime regulation and international economic law English Journal ,1999 Nsukka Library Notes ,1975 Things Fall Apart Chinua Achebe,199? Black African Literature in English Bernth Lindfors,1986 Chinua Achebe Toyin Falola,2024-10-17 An imaginative narratological reading of Chinua Achebe s novels stories poetry and essays through a literary and historical framework Toyin Falola analyzes fictional and historical cartographies of Africa in Achebe s literary works to offer a critical representation of Africa s present and future In particular he focuses on the historical valuation of a full range of the writer s works novels including Things Fall Apart but also short stories poems and essays as important materials that have contributed to the political events in Nigeria and by extension Africa The raw creativity found in Achebe s stories and his ability to tell the Nigerian story precolonial colonial and postcolonial have endeared him to many including readers and those critical of him and his works Chinua Achebe Narrating Africa in Fictions and History analyzes all of the writer s works dwelling on the Nigerian political context upon which many if not all of his narratives lie As a result it examines methodologies of narration and ideologies that allow his works to resonate with the imagination of Africa Chinua Achebe and the Igbo-African World Chima J. mainstream thinking about sustainable development and offers a critique of the ideas behind them It draws a link between theory and practice by discussing the nature of the environmental degradation and the impacts of development It argues that ultimately green development has to be about political economy about the distribution of power and not about environmental quality Its focus is strongly on the developing world The fourth edition retains the broad structure of previous editions but has been updated to reflect advances in ideas and changes in international policy Greater attention has been given to the political ecology of development market based and neoliberal environmentalism and degrowth This fully revised edition discusses the origins of thinking about sustainability and sustainable development and its evolution to the present day the ideas that dominate mainstream sustainable development including natural capital the green economy market environmentalism and ecological modernisation critiques of mainstream ideas and of neoliberal framings of sustainability and alternative ideas about sustainability that challenge business as usual thinking such as arguments about limits to growth and calls for degrowth the dilemmas of sustainability in the context of forests desertification food and farming biodiversity conservation and dam construction the challenge of policy choices about sustainability particularly between reformist and radical responses to the contemporary global dilemmas Green Development offers clear insights into the challenges of environmental sustainability and social and economic development It is unique in offering a synthesis of theoretical ideas on sustainability and in its coverage of the extensive literature on environment and development around the world The book has proved its value to generations of students as an authoritative thought provoking and readable guide to the field of sustainable development

Clinical Trials and the African Person Ike Iyioke, 2018-05-23 Clinical Trials and the African Person aims to position the African notion of the self person within the clinical trials context As opposed to autonomy based principlism this other regarding communalist perspective is the preferred alternative model This tactic draws further attention to the inadequacy of the principlist approach particularly in multicultural settings It also engenders a rethink stimulates interest and re assesses the failed assumptions of universal ethical principles As a novel attempt that runs against much of the prevailing Euro American intellectual mood this approach strives to introduce the African viewpoint by making explicit the import of the self in a re contextualized arena meaning within the community and a given milieu Thus research ethics must go beyond autonomy based considerations for the individual to rightly embed him her within his her community and the environment

The Archaeology of Slavery in Early Medieval Northern Europe Felix Biermann, Marek Jankowiak, 2021-11-18 This volume is the first comprehensive study of the material imprint of slavery in early medieval Europe While written sources attest to the ubiquity of slavery and slave trade in early medieval British Isles Scandinavia and Slavic lands it is still difficult to find material traces of this reality other than the hundreds of thousands of Islamic coins paid in exchange for the northern European slaves This volume offers the first structured reflection on how to bridge this gap It reviews the types of material evidence that can be associated with the institution of slavery and the slave trade in early medieval northern Europe from individual objects such as e.g. shackles to more comprehensive landscape approaches. The book is divided into four sections. The first presents the analytical tools developed in Africa and prehistoric Europe to identify and describe social phenomena associated with slavery and the slave trade. The following three sections review the three main cultural zones of early medieval northern Europe: the British Isles, Scandinavia, and Slavic central Europe. The contributions offer methodological reflections on the concept of the archaeology of slavery. They emphasize that the material record, by its nature, admits multiple interpretations. More broadly, this book comes at a time when the history of slavery is being integrated into academic syllabi in most western countries. The collection of studies contributes to a more nuanced perspective on this important and controversial topic. This volume appeals to multiple audiences interested in comparative and global studies of slavery and will constitute the point of reference for future debates.
