

Things Fall Apart Research Paper

For this assignment, you are going to combine literary analysis with outside research. When you wrote your previous essay on Things Fall Apart, you only included evidence from the text itself and did not do any outside research. For this essay, you are going to include examples from the book AND research from other sources.

This paper will be used to be 3-4 pages in Times New Roman, 12 point font, double-spaced.

There are multiple prompts to choose from below. You will need to pick ONE of them:

- Prompt 1- Research the effects of the British colonization of Nigeria. Then, discuss how we see these effects portrayed in Things Fall Apart.
- Prompt 2- Research the traditional roles of women (or men) in the Igbo culture. Then, discuss how we see these roles portrayed in Things Fall Apart.
- Prompt 3- Research the traditional religious beliefs of the Igbo tribe. Then, discuss how we see these beliefs in Things Fall Apart and how the introduction of Christianity changed the Igbo's way of life.
- Prompt 4- Research the Igbo's beliefs about justice and crime. Then, discuss how we see these topics handled in Things Fall Apart. You should also discuss how these topics are handled differently once they are colonized by the British.
- Prompt 5- Research the roles and traits of tragic heroes throughout literature. Then, discuss how Chinua Achebe displays the characteristics of a tragic hero in Things Fall Apart.
- Prompt 6- If you have your own idea for a prompt, please see me before or after class. Your prompt will need to be approved by me before you begin your paper.

Formatting Criteria:

Credibility for outside sources:

Miller, 2013 The publication of this book could hardly be more timely it fills a gap in present day discussion of the reasons for the recent ongoing financial crises and who was responsible The balance between the governance and regulation of the international finance market underpins how securely we proceed into the future At a time when sovereign defaults dominate public discussion this issue is of quintessential importance The editors are to be congratulated for this important publication Christoph Paulus Humbolt University of Berlin Germany This thought provoking book adds a new perspective to the analysis of how regulation should respond to the global financial crisis of 2008 2009 It focuses on the private as opposed to public aspect of regulation and highlights the works of the public private dialectic in regulation and enforcement The expert authors examine what is perhaps the single most important sector in which public and private regulation and enforcement intersect the arena of banking and global finance The detailed analysis of these particular areas of finance thus provides a means for investigating aspects of the important topic of private regulation and enforcement in financial markets A number of pertinent questions are addressed including How does private regulation and enforcement enhance or detract from the legitimacy of the process by which these market segments are managed and controlled How does private regulation and enforcement manifest independence of action and judgment as compared with public regulation How does private regulation and enforcement measure up along dimensions of quality relative to public regulation and finally What forms of accountability characterize private as opposed to public regulation and enforcement Illustrating the works of the public private dialectic in regulation and enforcement this challenging book will prove a fascinating read for academics scholars and practitioners with an interest in regulation and governance issues and in financial and banking law Unlocking the chains of knowledge Monwabisi K Ralarala, Suren

Pillay, Zannie Bock, Russell H. Kaschula, 2025-02-28 Unlocking the chains of knowledge Understanding the challenges remaking pedagogies and curriculum renewal addresses the complex yet imperative task of reshaping the colonial legacy embedded within South African higher education and beyond. The book confronts the historical and ideological bindings that have entrenched European centric knowledge within the fabric of academia in Africa propelling a transformative journey within the Arts and Humanities. At its core this work presents a tripartite focus firstly understanding the deep seated issues ingrained in the traditional university structure secondly remaking pedagogical practices and lastly renewing the curriculum. Recognising the historical dominance of Eurocentric ideas the book explores various movements theories and practices from negritude to postcolonial theory aiming to emancipate and amplify the voices and knowledge of those historically excluded. With a commitment to a pluralistic approach the book scrutinises the power dynamics of language the importance of diverse perspectives and the challenging task of inclusion without replicating the divisive structures of the past. Prof Christine Winberg Research Chair in Work integrated Learning Cape Peninsula University of Technology. In Unlocking the chains of knowledge Understanding the challenges remaking pedagogies and curriculum renewal the editors provide a decisive and detailed reflection and profound understanding of complexities of knowledge generation in Southern Africa. Unlike many volumes that address these intricate complexities this volume not only navigates the intricate complexities of the long history of epistemic injustices and intolerance in the Southern African higher education environment but delves deeper into the core of what is required for curriculum transformation and renewal. The groundbreaking volume addresses the urgent need for linguistic inclusivity consciousness about decoloniality as well as embedding social justice in South African and Zimbabwean education and by doing so presents strategies that can be used by the rest of the African continent in addressing the scourge of coloniality. Authoritarian reassertion following the Arab uprisings in the Middle East has restrained Islamists political participation and challenged their survival as both opposition groups and rulers. In light of national sociopolitical variations across the region this book explores Islamists means of adaptation and resilience in the face of this political exclusion unpacking Islamists sociopolitical persistence and ideological sustainability. In doing so this book sheds light on the following questions: How did Islamists adapt to contextual restrictions in terms of repression and stigmatization? How did the Arab uprisings impact their internal debates ideological revisions and reconsideration of tools of action? Individual chapters explore similarities and divergences among Islamist groups and parties in terms of ideological affiliations means of survival and political participation strategies drawing on comparative cases from across the MENA region. Examples include the Muslim Brotherhood in Egypt Al Nahda in Tunisia the AKP Justice and Development Party in Turkey Hezbollah in Lebanon Hamas in Palestine and the Islamic State in Syria.
