"ECEG2016-Proceedings of 16th European Conference on e-Government ECEG 2016 " Mitja De Man,Tina Juki,2016-06-02 Intra-Africa Migrations Inocent Moyo,Jussi P. Laine,Christopher Changwe Nshimbi,2021-02-21 This book discusses regional and continental integration in Africa by examining the management of migration across the continent It examines borders and securitisation of migration and the challenges and opportunities that arise out of reconfigured continental demographics The book offers insights on intra Africa migrations and highlights how intra continental migration creates socio economic and cultural borders It explores how these borders beyond the physical boundaries of states including the Berlin Conference constructed borders create cultural divides challenges for economic integration and cross border security and irregular migration patterns While the movement of economic goods is valued for regional economic integration the mobility of people is seen as a threat This approach to migration contradicts the intentions of true integration and development and triggers negative responses such as xenophobia that cannot be addressed by simply managing the physical border and allowing free movement This book engages in a pivotal discussion of these issues which are hitherto missing in African border studies by demonstrating the ubiquity and overreaching influence of various kinds of borders on the African continent With multidisciplinary contributions that provide an in depth understanding of intra Africa migrations and strategies for enhanced migration management this book will be a useful resource for scholars and students studying geography politics security studies development studies African studies and sociology A Global History of Anti-Apartheid Anna Konieczna,Rob Skinner,2019-04-15 This book explores the global history of anti apartheid and international solidarity with southern African freedom struggles from the 1960s It examines the institutions campaigns and ideological frameworks that defined the globalization of anti apartheid the ways in which the concept of solidarity was mediated by individuals organizations and states and considers the multiplicity of actors and interactions involved in generating and sustaining anti apartheid around the world It includes detailed accounts of key case studies from Europe Asia and Latin America which illustrate the complex relationships between local and global agendas as well as the diverse political cultures embodied in anti apartheid Taken together these examples reveal the tensions and synergies transnational webs and local contingencies that helped to create the sense of being global that united worldwide anti apartheid campaigns

Private Military and Security Contractors Gary Schaub, Jr.,Ryan Kelty,2016-06-16 In Private Military and Security Contractors PMSCs a multinational team of scholars and experts address a developing phenomenon controlling the use of privatized force by states in international politics Robust analyses of the evolving multi layered tapestry of formal and informal mechanisms of control address the microfoundations of the market such as the social and role identities of contract employees their acceptance by military personnel and potential tensions between them The extent and willingness of key states South Africa the United States Canada the United Kingdom and Israel to monitor and enforce discipline to structure their contractual relations with PMSCs on land and at sea is examined as is the ability of the industry to regulate itself Also discussed is the nascent international legal regime to reinforce state and industry efforts to encourage effective practices punish inappropriate behavior and shape the market to minimize the hazards of loosening states oligopolistic control over the means of legitimate organized violence The volume presents a theoretically informed synthesis of micro and macro levels of analysis offering new insights into the challenges of controlling the agents of organized violence used by states for scholars and practitioners alike

South Africa's Post-Apartheid Military Lindy Heineken, 2020-01-01 This timely book examines how the South African National Defence Force has adapted to the country's new security political and social environment since 1994 In South Africa's changed political state how has civilian control of the military been implemented and what does this mean for defence in a democracy This book presents an overview of the security environment how the mission focus of the military has changed and the implications for force procurement force preparation force employment and force sustainability The author addresses other issues such as the effect of integrating former revolutionary soldiers into a professional armed force the effect of affirmative action on meritocracy recruitment and retention military veterans looking at the difficulties they face in reintegrating back into society and finding gainful employment gender equality and mainstreaming the rise of military unions and why a confrontational instead of a more corporatist approach to labour relations has emerged HIV AIDS and the consequences this holds for the military in terms of its operational effectiveness In closing the author highlights key events that have caused the SANDF to become lost in transition and transformation spelling out some lessons learned The conclusions she draws are pertinent for the future of defence security and civil military relations of countries around the world

Visualising China in Southern Africa Juliette Leeb-du Toit, Ruth Simbao, Ross Anthony, Rui Assubuji, Ying Cheng, Malcolm Corrigan, Romain Dittgen, Esther Esmyol, Philip Harrison, Patricia Hayes, Binjun Hu, T Tu Huynh, Nicola Kritzinger, Mark Lewis, Khangelani Moyo, Stary Mwaba, Marcus Neustetter, Kristin NG-Yang, Gemma Rodrigues, Shuo Wang, Yan Yang, Lifang Zhang, 2023-03-01 China and Africa have long shared a history of allegiance and contact points through global political forces from the time of

colonialism and the Cold War With China's rise as the new superpower its presence in Africa has expanded leading to significant economic geopolitical and cultural shifts While issues such as trade aid and development have received much attention Chinese and African encounters through the lens of the visual arts and material culture is a neglected field

Visualising China in Southern Africa Biography Circulation Transgression is a ground breaking volume that addresses this deficit through engaging with the work of contemporary African and Chinese artists while analysing broader material production that prefigures the current relationship The essays are wide ranging in their analysis of ceramics photography painting etching sculpture film performance postcards stamps installations political posters cartoons and architecture

Visualising China in Southern Africa confines its focus to southern Africa yet even within this region the context is complex Ethnicity and nationalism the lingering influence of Cold War allegiances and colonial configurations all continue to play a role The various visual cultures discussed in this volume emphasise the commonality of these categories but also point towards other shared histories that transcend the nation state category The collection includes scholarly chapters photo essays interviews and artists personal accounts organised around four themes material flows orientations and transgressions spatial imaginaries and biographies The artists photographers filmmakers curators and collectors in this volume include Stary Mwaba Hua Jiming Anawana Haloba Gerald Machona Nobukho Nqaba Marcus Neustetter Brett Murray Diane Victor William Kentridge Kristin NG Yang Kok Nam Mark Lewis the Chinese Camera Club of South Africa Wu Jing Henion Han and Shengkai Wu

Africa and Urban Anthropology Deborah Pellow, Suzanne Scheld, 2023-03-08 This volume offers valuable anthropological insight into urban Africa covering a range of cities across a continent that has become one of the fastest urbanizing geographic areas of the globe Consideration is given to the structures social formations and rhythms that constitute the definition of an African city town or urban space and to current concepts for thinking about African cities in the twenty first century The contributors examine topics including notions of belonging the effects of globalization colonialism and transnationalism on African urban life the cultural dimensions of infrastructure and public resources mobility labor issues spatial organization language and popular culture trends among other themes The book reflects on how the ethnography of urban Africa fits within anthropology and urban studies and on new theoretical concepts and methodologies that can be created through anthropological fieldwork in African cities It will be of particular interest to scholars and students from anthropology African studies and urban studies as well as sociology and geography

For an Anti-capitalist Psychology of Community Nick Malherbe, 2022-04-22 Anti capitalist political struggle is a site of struggling psychologies Conscious political action is never far from unconscious desire and the fight for material justice is always also the fight for dignity and psychological well being Yet how might community psychologists conceive of their discipline in a way that opposes the very capitalist political economy that historically most of the psy disciplines have bolstered in return for disciplinary legitimacy In its consideration of an anti capitalist psychology of community this book does not ignore or try to resolve the contradictory position of such a psychology Instead it draws on these contradictions to enliven psychology to the shifting demands both creative and destructive of a community centred anti capitalism Using practical examples the book deals with the psychological components of building community centred social movements that challenge neoliberal capitalism as a political system an ideology and a mode of governing rationality The book also offers several theoretical contributions that grapple with how an anti capitalist psychology of community can remain attentive to the psychological elements of anti capitalist struggle what the psychological can tell us about anti capitalist politics and how these politics can shape the psychological
