American Independent Cinema Geoff King, Claire Molloy, Yannis Tzioumakis, 2013 The American independent sector has attracted much attention in recent years an upsurge of academic work on the subject being accompanied by wider public debate But many questions remain about how exactly independence should be defined and how its relationship might be understood with other parts of the cinematic landscape most notably the Hollywood studios Edited and written by leading authors in the field American Independent Cinema indie indie wood and beyond offers an examination of the field through four sections that range in focus from broad definitions to close focus on particular manifestations of independence. A wide variety of examples are included but within a framework that offers insights into how these are related to one another. More specifically, this collection offers an account of recent developments as well as reviewing, reassessing, and revising a number of central positions, approaches, and arguments relating to various parts of the independent and/or indie sector. Individual case studies that range from the distinctive qualities of the work of established quality filmmakers such as Wes Anderson, Steven Soderbergh, and Rebecca Miller to studies of horror genre production at the more disreputable end of the independent spectrum. Examples of the limits of independence available in some cases within Hollywood, including studies of the work of Stanley Kubrick and Hal Ashby. Case studies of under-researched areas in the margins of American independent cinema, including the Disney nature films and Christian evangelical filmmaking. A number of wider overview chapters that examine contemporary American independent cinema from a number of perspectives. Together, the chapters in the collection offer a unique contribution to the study of independent film in the United States.

Mediamorphosis

Roger F. Fidler, 1997. This book is about technological change within human communication and the media. However, it is not technical but an overview and evaluation of new communication technologies. Roger Fidler demystifies emerging media technologies and provides a structure for understanding their potential influences on the popular forms of mainstream media such as newspapers, magazines, television, and radio.

Targeted Advertising Technologies in the ICT Space Christian Schlee, 2013-10-01. In recent years, the field of information and communication technology has started to change dramatically. Carriers are threatened by high revenue losses, requiring them to identify new revenue potentials beyond their core business. Targeted advertising can be one of these revenue opportunities. Christian Schlee provides a broad overview of the latest developments and trends in targeted advertising in the ICT space. The author focuses on the technological aspects of targeted advertising but also covers business and legal aspects. He analyzes the most interesting use cases in the Web, IPTV, the mobile environment, and in converged scenarios, and examines important technological key building blocks.

States of Emergency Patricia Rodden Zimmermann, 2000. ITV Handbook Edward M. Schwalb, 2004.
