

The background of the book cover is a dark, textured surface. It is adorned with various wedding-themed elements: a pink measuring tape with white markings is coiled in the upper left; a bouquet of white and pink flowers is in the upper right; a large, vibrant red flower is on the left; and a large, light pink flower is in the lower right. In the lower left, there is a faint, ethereal image of a bride in a long white gown.

M. Thomas,2004 This book captures the extraordinary experiences of living and travelling across Japan and is intended to change the way we view Japan s modern society It reveals the two Japans that exist alongside one another one familiar the other hidden and almost invisible to most foreigners It moves from the gentle rhythms of the Inland Sea and the grave of a long dead British naval officer to the sins and abasements in the heart of Tokyo where any fetish is on tap The Japanese define their relations with society based on tatema their external obligations to society and honne their inner and hidden aspirations This applies not only to the way people conduct their lives but also to many aspects of Japan s contemporary society Much is sanitised for everyday external consumption The other world is hidden only seen occasionally if at all by the visiting foreigner This is not though a book of ancient versus modern or rural versus urban The puzzle is more complex and in attempting to unravel it conventional wisdom is challenged The author found a people who whilst sharing much in common living in an amorphous middle class society actually live life experiencing significant and contradictory modes of behaviour modes that they find increasingly unsettling Their voices and fears are in the book as they strive to make sense of their own life in the twenty first century Musical Opinion and Music Trade Review ,1911 Literature Criticism from 1400 to 1800 ,2003 First Editions of Works of Nathaniel Hawthorne and Others ,1906 Publishers' circular and booksellers' record ,1886 The English Catalogue of Books: v.
