men's fashion and grooming practices the decrease in formal dress codes and the relaxing of traditional ideas about masculinity white collar men feel constrained in their choices about how to embody professionalism They strategically embrace conformity in clothing as a way of maintaining their gender and class privilege Across categories of race sexual orientation and occupation men talk about blending in and looking the part as they aim to keep their jobs or pursue better ones These white collar workers accounts show that greater freedom in work dress codes can ironically increase men's anxiety about getting it wrong and discourage them from experimenting with their dress and appearance What Can I Take Off Your Plate? Jill Handley, Lara Donnelly, 2024 The authors provide school leaders with strategies to counter teacher burnout and implement structural changes that support and retain all teachers Redesigning HR for Strategic Advantage Tony Miller (Management consultant), Tony Miller, 2000 This briefing shows you how to redesign your HR department to deliver measurable value to your organisation Through case studies tools and models it details the steps you need to take to change your HR function from a process orientated function to one involved in strategic decision making at the highest level

Gender and Public Relations Christine Daymon, Kristin Demetrious, 2013-08-15 Although there is a small body of feminist scholarship that problematizes gender in public relations gender is a relatively undefined area of thinking in the field and there have been few serious studies of the socially constructed roles defining women and men in public relations This book is positioned within the critical public relations stream Through the prism of gender and public relations it examines not only the manipulatory but also the emancipatory subversive and transformatory potential of public relations for the construction of meaning Its focus is on the dynamic interrelationships arising from public relations activities in society and the gendered lived experiences of people working in the occupation of public relations There are many previously unexplored areas within and through public relations which the book examines These include the production of social meaning and power relations advocacy and activist campaigns for social and political change the negotiation of identity diversity and cultural practice celebrity bodies fashion and harassment in the workplace notions of managing reputation and communicating policy In extending the field of inquiry this edited collection highlights how gender is accomplished and transformed and thus how power is exercised and inequality re produced or challenged in public relations The book will expand thinking about power relations and privilege for both women and men and how these are affected by the interplay of social cultural and institutional practices Winner of the Outstanding Book PRide Award awarded by the National Communication Association NCA Help Yourself Jill Ritchie,1995 The Maritime Monthly ,1873 Where to Educate, 1898-1899 Grace Powers Thomas,1898 Planning a Theme-based Curriculum Carla F.
