Reader Review: Fall in love with reading all over again with this cracking tale from Jane Lovering. An excellent reminder if one is needed of the absolute pleasure of losing yourself in a good book. Reader Review: Beyond Homelessness Steven Bouma-Prediger, Brain J. Walsh, 2008-06-03. This book is a brilliant use of metaphor that makes clear why the world leaves us feeling so uneasy. No Place Like Home David Staples, 2007-11-21. No Place Like Home examines the emergence of home-based women workers as paradigmatic figures of contemporary capitalism, neoliberal governmentality and socio-political contestation. Far from an isolated or contingent situation, home-based work constitutes today an enormous arena of invisible social and political struggles of subaltern and ethno-racially subordinated women. No Place Like Home Mary Higgins Clark, 2005-04-05. In a riveting and unputdownable thriller from the Queen of Suspense, a young woman is ensnared into returning to a place she had wanted to leave behind forever: her childhood home. At the age of ten, Liza Barton shot her mother, trying desperately to protect her from her estranged stepfather, Ted Cartwright. Despite his claim that the shooting was a deliberate act, the Juvenile Court ruled the death an accident. Many people, however, agreed with Cartwright and the tabloids compared the child to the infamous murderess Lizzie Borden, pointing even to the similarity of their names. To erase her past her adoptive parents change her name to Celia At age twenty eight a successful interior designer in Manhattan she marries a childless sixty year old widower Laurence Foster and they have a son Before their marriage she reveals to him her true identity Two years later on his deathbed he makes her swear never to tell anyone so that their son Jack will not carry the stigma of her past Two years later Celia is happily remarried Her peace of mind is shattered when her new husband surprises her with a gift the house where she killed her mother And it soon becomes clear that there is someone in the community knows Celia More and more there are signs that someone in the community knows Celia s true identity When the real estate agent who sold them the house is brutally murdered and Celia is the first on the crime scene she becomes a suspect As she fights to prove her innocence she has no idea that she and her son Jack are now the targets of a killer Best
