These Mortal Remains Milton T. Burton, 2013-07-16 When an African American deputy is shot on a roadside Texas Caddo County Sheriff Bo Handel uncovers a white supremacist hate campaign being staged from a compound on the edge of town The Gentleman's Magazine, 1830 The Gentleman's magazine section is a digest of selections from the weekly press the Trader's monthly intelligencer section consists of news foreign and domestic vital statistics a register of the month's new publications and a calendar of forthcoming trade fairs Good Words and Sunday Magazine, 1876 An Outline History of Orange County Samuel Watkins Eager, 1846 Plastic Pasts Christopher Leffler, 2023-11-20 This book uses plasticity as a metaphor for understanding how the past endures and evolves within the landscape and the ways in which remembering shapes the sites we occupy and use The plastic site is characterised both by its resilience its form never entirely altered from an earlier mould and by its malleability which ensures that whatever persists is inevitably transformed Embodied in its present configuration are the many moments that have produced it over time and these are continually supplemented and modified Surveying examples from Paris Algiers and Marseille and media as diverse as literature film photography blogs and video games Plastic Pasts interrogates how different communities and cultural producers have grappled with the present past in space as an enduring and dynamic memory It argues that understanding sited memory as plastic entails recognising a multiplicity of immutable pasts that exist in a permanent state of ongoing evolution The English Illustrated Magazine: "The Gift of the Sea", 1897 Sketches of Portuguese Life, Manners, Costume, and Character A. P. D. G., 1826 Description of the Portuguese way of life in Lisbon and Rio de Janeiro by the anonymous author A P D G The author discusses Portuguese manners and customs religion the Court the army civil institutions Negroes and many other topics with the intention to satirize and make fun of Portugal Brazil and the Portuguese way of life Carved in Stone, Etched in Memory Amila Buturovic, 2016-03-03 Despite the recent history of violence and destruction Bosnia Herzegovina holds a positive place in history marked by a continuous interweaving of different religious cultures The most expansive period in that regard is the Ottoman rule that lasted here nearly five centuries As many Bosnians accepted Islam the process of Islamization took on different directions and meanings only some of which are recorded in the official documents This book underscores the importance of material culture specifically gravestones funerary inscriptions and images in tracing and understanding more subtle changes in Bosnia's religious landscape and the complex cultural shifts and exchange between Christianity and Islam in this area Gravestones are seen as cultural spaces that inscribe memory history and heritage in addition to being texts that display in image and word first hand information about the deceased In tackling these topics and ideas the study is situated within several contextual theoretical and methodological frameworks Raising questions about religious identity history and memory the study unpacks the cultural and historical value of gravestones and other funerary markers and bolsters their importance in understanding the region's complexity and improving its visibility in global discussions around multiculturalism and religious pluralism Drawing upon several disciplinary methods the book has much to offer anyone looking for a better understanding of the intersection of Christianity and Islam as well as those with an interest in death studies

Dickens, Death, and Christmas Robert L.
