

The main character in Things Fall Apart

4 pages | 881 words

Is Okonkwo a better man than his father? Why or why not? Were the Christian missionaries good men or not? Explain

The main character in Things Fall Apart is a man whose name is Okwonkwo. Okwonko's father is Unoka. He is characterized as a lazy, with the burdens of unaccountable debts, and with no titles to owning any land. These certain titles were basically the measurement of one's success during their lifetime. In Okwonko views his father as a failure and is relectant to following the footsteps of becoming a failure like his father.

Unlike Umofia, Okonkwo is a strong, hard-working, respected, and well known man in his village. Okonkwo bases his life and focuses his entire life on his will and desire to prove that he was a better man than his old man was. It is evident for readers to observe that Okonkwo is indeed very much ashamed of his father, for he was weak and died with no major accomplishments that were fulfilled through his life.

Due to Okonwo's fear of failure, weakness, and ending up like his own father, he worked hard to achieve a better life. However, because of this same reason, his very own life starts to "fall apart" when certain things happen throughout the story. Like any other character in any story, Okonkwo has many character setbacks. In order to demonstrate his masculinity and manliness, he uses rage, anger, and violence. These are the certain characteristics that later on will see through to his own destruction.

By taking a quick look at Okonkwo's life, it is evident to see that Okonkwo was a failure. Beginning with the death of Ikemefuna, where his family blames Okonkwo. Okonkwo is greatly affected. Not only does he become sleepless and restless, but he begins to drink away his sorrows, which contributes to his life slowly falling apart. Then, Okonkwo was evicted from his clan for several years, which caused him to lose his land and animals. Slowly, Okonkwo is seen slipping farther and farther away from his goals and dreams of being a successful being. Lastly, when his oldest and most favored son, Nwoye converts to the religion of Christianity, Okonkwo's life was coming to a ruin. One can clearly see that Okonkwo has not only lost hope and faith in his friends and family, but in himself.

Ironically, at the end of the novel, Okonkwo ends up killing himself. It is obvious to see that he did not accomplish any goals and that he was doomed, due to the fact that he had become just like the person he did not want to be, his father, a failure. Even though Okonkwo disagreed and despised his father's beliefs and way of life, both father and son died unhappy and by themselves.

I think that the Christian missionaries had good intentions and are not necessarily bad men, however, because the novel is based on the perspective of the tribe, the Christian missonaries are put in a spot to...
