Blythe, 2014-05-21 This study treats the Victorian Antipodes as a compelling site of romance and satire for middle class writers who went to New Zealand between 1840 and 1872 Blythe's research fits with the rising study of settler colonialism and highlights the intersection of late Victorian ideas and post colonial theories Allegory Studies Vladimir Brljak, 2021-08-30 Allegory Studies Contemporary Perspectives collects some of the most compelling current work in allegory studies by an international team of researchers in a range of disciplines and specializations in the humanities and cognitive sciences The volume tracks the subject across disciplinary cultural and period based divides from its shadowy origins to its uncertain future and from the rich variety of its cultural and artistic manifestations to its deep cognitive roots Allegory is everything we already know it to be a mode of literary and artistic composition and a religious as well as secular interpretive practice As this volume attests however it is much more than that much more than a sum of its parts Collectively the phenomena we now subsume under this term comprise a dynamic cultural force which has left a deep imprint on our history whose full impact we are only beginning to comprehend and which therefore demands precisely such dedicated cross disciplinary examination as this book seeks to provide

A History of Displaced Knowledge: Austrian Refugees from National Socialism in Australia Philipp Strobl, 2025-04-07 This book follows ideas and knowledge that migrated in the cultural baggage of Austrian refugees who fled to Australia in 1938 and 1939 because of National Socialism By telling and comparing the stories of twenty six different lives it highlights the processes of acquisition transportation translation and adaption of ideas knowledge and cultural capital This provides a unique and colourful insight into the impact of a group of refugees on their host society over several decades As the book shows there were many different ways in which displaced people relied upon their social and cultural capital to first escape their oppressive homeland and then build new lives Once they had arrived in Australia they used very different approaches to negotiate and promote their knowledge and to exercise agency

The Polar Regions Adrian Howkins, 2015-11-20 The environmental histories of the Arctic and Antarctica are characterised by contrast and contradiction These are places that have witnessed some of the worst environmental degradation in recent history But they are also the locations of some of the most farsighted measures of environmental protection They are places where people have sought to conquer nature through exploration and economic development but in many ways they remain wild and untamed They are the coldest places on Earth yet have come to occupy an important role in the science and politics of global warming Despite being located at opposite ends of the planet and being significantly different in many ways Adrian Howkins argues that the environmental histories of the Arctic and Antarctica share much in common and have often been closely connected This book also argues that the Polar Regions are strongly linked to the rest of the world both through physical processes and through intellectual and political themes As places of inherent contradiction the Polar Regions have much to contribute to the way we think about environmental history and the environment more generally

Philosophy, Ethics and a Common Humanity Christopher Cordner, 2012-04-27 The work of Raimond Gaita in books such as Good and Evil An Absolute Conception A Common

Humanity and The Philosopher's Dog has made an outstanding and controversial contribution to philosophy and to the wider culture. In this superb collection an international team of contributors explore issues across the wide range of Gaita's thought including the nature of good and evil, philosophy and biography, the unthinkable, Plato and ancient philosophy, Wittgenstein, the religious dimensions of Gaita's work, aspects of the Holocaust and aboriginal reconciliation in Australia. Athenaeum and Literary Chronicle, 1854

History and Political Economy Peter D. Groenewegen, 2004. This book brings together a collection of essays in honour of Peter Groenewegen, one of the most distinguished historians of economic thought. His work on a wide range of economic theorists approaches a level of near insuperability. Virtual Voyages Paul Longley Arthur, 2011. Virtual Voyages is a fascinating account of the European discovery of the elusive great south land, told through the literature of imaginary voyages. Written at the height of the era of European maritime exploration, these bizarre and captivating tales, with their wildly imaginative visions of antipodean inversion and strangeness, reveal a hidden history of attitudes to colonization. By exposing the relationship between myth and reality in the antipodes, this book casts new light on the power of fiction to influence history. The Australian Christian Commonwealth, 1903
