national security adviser Hadley wanted to know if Gates would be open to replacing Donald Rumsfeld as the Secretary of Defense Gates owing to a sense of duty to the troops fighting in Iraq and Afghanistan said yes A short time later Gates had a clandestine interview with George W Bush This was the first meeting between the two men even though Gates had served first as Deputy National Security Adviser and then as the Director of Central Intelligence under Bush's father George H W Bush The meeting went well with both men expressing their concerns about the dual wars in Iraq and Afghanistan That same day Gates learned that George W Bush intended to go forward with plans to make Gates Secretary of Defense On November 8 2006 Gates flew to Washington D C where he took part in a press conference announcing the President's decision to name him the new Secretary of State Gates then started the process of being confirmed by Congress which included filling out countless forms and questionnaires Gates also spent time visiting key senators learning how unhappy Congress had become in regards to the President and his policies in Iraq and Afghanistan On December 5 2006 Gates attended his confirmation hearing It was a pinnacle moment in his life as he thought about his humble beginnings in Kansas the son of an opinionated Republican and a quiet spoken Democrat Gates answered all the questions he was asked openly and honestly almost getting himself into hot water by answering one question too honestly When asked if we were winning in Iraq Gates simply answered no The following afternoon on December 6 2006 Robert Gates was confirmed as the secretary of defense with a vote of 95 to 2 with three senators abstaining After being confirmed Gates chose to take twelve days to complete his obligations at Texas A M Gates wanted to preside over the December commencement ceremonies It was a difficult time because he deeply enjoyed his time at Texas A M and was sad to see it come to an end As Gates began his role as secretary of defense he found himself overwhelmed with people wanting to see him or send him briefs Gates turned to several friends for advice including Collin Powell former Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff

The Wolf of Wall Street by Jordan Belfort Instaread Summaries,2014-02-01 With InstaRead Chapter by Chapter Summaries you can get the essence of a book in 30 minutes or less We read every chapter and summarize it in one or two paragraphs so you can get the information contained in the book at a much faster rate This is an InstaRead Summary of The Wolf of Wall Street by Jordan Belfort Below is a preview of the earlier sections of the summary Prologue A Babe in the Woods It is May 1987 and Jordan Belfort is being led through the boardroom of LF Rothschild for the first time Jordan feels out of place in his cheap blue suit The room is filled with young arrogant and expensively dressed stockbrokers He might have just landed a job albeit as a lowly connector The lowest of the low a connector spends the day dialing phone numbers and trying to get past the secretaries of potential clients If successful the call will be transferred to a broker who will sell them stock Jordan's new boss Scott reminds the new recruit that he is unlikely to make it through the six months of grueling training At the moment twenty four year old Jordan is down on his luck and facing huge debt from a failed business He is hoping he can get past the stockbroker training and start making as much as the brokers that are surrounding him even more than Scott As Jordan sits down to wait for the markets to open he is greeted by the firm's most successful broker Mark Hanna Mark is already impressed with Jordan who had started to pitch stock advice already at his job interview Mark advises Jordan to take plenty of breaks during the day and to take cocaine to help him dial faster At 9 30am the markets open and Jordan begins his first day on Wall street The noise in the room is deafening as stocks are sold over the phone to some of the wealthiest people in the USA Jordan is exhausted by the time he is allowed to take a lunch break Mark Hanna has noticed the high number of calls Jordan had passed to him during the morning As a sign of gratitude he invites the connector to join him for lunch in the penthouse restaurant Mark doesn't eat anything He just drinks hard liquor and snorts cocaine He offers both to Jordan When the new recruit politely declines Mark assures him that eventually Jordan will be using these vices to get through the day In a few years he will have been correct Jordan will be making even more than Mark did now and employing many of the brokers that worked for LF Rothschild This book is a reconstruction of a wild ride that occurred in Wall street history It is told through the internal voice which Jordan often speaks of in the book The voice is often how he justified many of the manipulative and self serving behaviors in which he engages Jordan grew up in middle class Queens New York He wants the reader to know that he was not brought up to behave the way he did during the 80s and 90s Today he is a loving father committed to his children He hopes that his serves as a cautionary tale to anyone who considers misusing their talents for greedy and evil purposes
