 Tuyl,2021-08-23 The oldest and most prestigious children s literature award the Newbery Medal has since 1922 been granted annually by the American Library Association to the children s book it deems most distinguished Medal books enjoy an outsized influence on American children s literature figuring perennially on publishers lists on library and bookstore shelves and in school curricula As such they offer a compelling window into the history of US children s literature and publishing as well as into changing societal attitudes about which books are best for America s schoolchildren Yet literary scholars have disproportionately ignored the Medal winners in their research This volume provides a critically and historically grounded scholarly analysis of representative but understudied Newbery Medal books from the 1920s through the 2010s interrogating the disjunction between the books omnipresence and influence on the one hand and the critical silence surrounding them on the other Dust Off the Gold Medal makes a case for closing these scholarly gaps by revealing neglected texts insights into the politics of children s literature prizing and by demonstrating how neglected titles illuminate critical debates currently central to the field of children s literature In particular the essays shed light on the hidden elements of diversity apparent in the neglected Newbery canon while illustrating how the books respond sometimes in quite subtle ways to contemporaneous concerns around race class gender disability nationalism and globalism The Teacher's Calendar School Year

African American Vernacular English as a Literary Dialect Sophia Huber, 2018-06-13 Knowledge about one's linguistic background especially when it is different from mainstream varieties provides a basis for identity and self. Ancestral values can be upheld, celebrated and rooted further in the consciousness of its speakers. In the case of African American Vernacular English (AAVE) the matter is not straightforward and ultimately the social implications its speakers still face today are unresolved. Through detailed analysis of the four building blocks: phonology, morphology, syntax and vocabulary, Sophia Huber tries to trace the development of AAVE as a literary dialect. By unearthing in what ways AAVE in its written form is different from the spoken variety, long established social stigmata and stereotypes which have been burned into the consciousness of the USA through an initially white dominated literary tradition will be exposed. Analysing fourteen novels and one short story featuring AAVE it is the first linguistic study of this scope.

Creating Writers Vicki Spandel, 2005 Creating Writers Fourth Edition is the most comprehensive exploration of the 6 trait approach to writing yet. Written by the pioneer of 6 trait writing this Fourth Edition brings everything up to date offering a comprehensive overview of the best education strategies and philosophies from the worlds of writing assessment and instruction. It provides clear guidelines on helping students draft, assess and revise their writing as well as explicit criteria to show students precisely what they must do to succeed as writers in virtually any situation. Widely used at the state level, school districts are incorporating the 6 traits into their state standards or assessments. This is the only book on the market that effectively helps teachers of writing prepare their students for success on state tests. New format and organization is designed to make the content clear and simple. New and revised checklists for genre specific writing instruction to separate key elements in narrative writing, literary analysis and persuasive writing. New and creative ways to use 6 trait writing in classrooms are explored including adaptations for kinesthetic learners and second language learners. Ringing Endorsements for CREATING WRITERS: Not only is Creating Writers the most comprehensive book ever on 6 trait writing instruction and assessment it's also a practical, inspirational guide for any writing classroom. It's one of those rare professional books that both teachers and administrators read cover to cover and you'll find the well worn copies on their desks to prove it. This extensively revised edition with voluminous examples from students and literature draws the strongest link yet between writing assessment and instruction. No writing classroom should be without it. Barry Lane, Author of After THE END Teaching and Learning Creative Revision The Reviser's Toolbox and The Portfolio Sourcebook. Spandel has done it again. In Creating Writers Fourth Edition she shares her current thought and unparalleled skill framed around the traits of writing. The originator once again inspires us with practical, enriched instruction and assessment applications promising practices for teaching and learning at its zenith. On behalf of classroom teachers everywhere. Thank you Vicki. Dr Donna Flood, Director of Staff Development and Instructional Improvement, Millard Public
