

THE NATIONAL HEALTH POLICY

The National Health Policy, 2017, is a landmark document that outlines the vision and strategy for the health sector in India. It is the first comprehensive health policy since the formation of the country. The policy is based on the following principles:

- Universal Health Coverage (UHC): The policy aims to achieve UHC by 2030, ensuring that all people have access to essential health services without financial hardship.
- Primary Health Care (PHC): The policy emphasizes the importance of PHC as the foundation of the health system. It aims to strengthen the PHC system by improving the quality of services, increasing the capacity of health workers, and ensuring the availability of essential medicines and supplies.
- Health Equity: The policy aims to reduce health inequalities and ensure that all people, regardless of their socio-economic status, have access to the same quality of health services.
- Health System Strengthening: The policy aims to strengthen the health system by improving the efficiency of service delivery, increasing the capacity of health workers, and ensuring the availability of essential medicines and supplies.
- Health Financing: The policy aims to increase the investment in health and ensure that the health system is financially sustainable.
- Health Governance: The policy aims to improve the governance of the health system by ensuring transparency, accountability, and effective decision-making.
