Vaal Undergraduate Application Form 2016:

Nanohybrid Materials for Water Purification Sarat K. Swain, 2022-08-12 This book comprehensively reviews the key topics in the area of nanocomposites and hybrid materials used for waste water treatment and purification. It covers materials chemistry, various synthesis approaches, and properties of these nanomaterials for the different water purification techniques. It provides new direction to the readers to better understand the chemistry behind these materials and the methods to improve their properties. This book will be a very valuable reference source for graduates and postgraduates, engineers, research scholars, primarily in the field of material science, water nanoscience, and nanotechnology, material scientists, researchers in the water-related area, scientists working in water treatment plants, and pollution mitigation industries.

Redefining Education and Development Kaitano Dube, 2024-10-18 The book aligns with the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs), particularly Goal 4, which focuses on quality education. It explores the evolving role of education as a critical driver for achieving all 17 SDGs by providing a platform for discussing innovative educational models and theories that foster sustainable development. The book takes an interdisciplinary approach, merging educational theory, developmental practice, and human psychology to address complex global challenges hindering sustainable development. The book includes case studies and empirical research, such as exploring student entrepreneurship in the agricultural sector and the factors bridging the gap between entrepreneurial intention and venture creation. These examples provide readers with practical applications of theoretical concepts and demonstrate the real-world impact of educational innovations, which is at the core of education delivery for all and how education touches on other areas of the SDGs. The book offers valuable insights for policymakers, educators, and development practitioners by presenting research and theory-based analyses. It suggests ways to improve the academic environment to foster entrepreneurship and innovation, which are key to economic development and job creation, especially in regions with high youth unemployment rates. The content suggests educational reforms that are responsive to the changing societal and economic landscapes. The book's blend of theory and practice targets a broad audience, including academic scholars, students, development agencies, non-governmental organisations, and policymakers. It seeks to engage these diverse readers in a conversation about the future of education and its role in achieving sustainable development. In summary, the book seeks to provide a comprehensive exploration of the nexus between education, development, and human needs in the context of the SDGs, offering innovative perspectives and practical solutions to equip readers to contribute to sustainable global development.

Paper-based Diagnostics Kevin J. Land, 2018-12-11 This book explores the status of paper-based diagnostic solutions or Microfluidics 2.0. The contributors explore how paper-based tests can be widely distributed and utilized by semi-skilled personnel, how close to commercial applications the technology has become, and what is still required to make paper-based diagnostics the game changer it can be. The technology is examined through the lens of the World Health Organization's ASSURED criteria for low-resource countries: Affordable, Sensitive,

Specific User friendly Rapid and robust Equipment free and Deliverable to end users Its applications have to include health technology environmental technology food safety and more This book is appropriate for researchers in these areas as well as those interested in microfluidics and includes chapters dedicated to principles such as theory of flow and surface treatments components such as biomarkers and detection and current methods of manufacturing Discusses how paper based diagnostics can be used in developing countries by comparing current diagnostic tests with the World Health Organization s ASSURED criteria Examines how paper based diagnostics could be integrated with other technologies such as printed electronics and the Internet of Things Outlines how semi skilled personnel across a variety of fields can implement paper based diagnostics

Additive Manufacturing: Materials, Processes, Quantifications and Applications Jing Zhang,Yeon-Gil

Jung,2018-05-17 Additive Manufacturing Materials Processes Quantifications and Applications is designed to explain the engineering aspects and physical principles of available AM technologies and their most relevant applications It begins with a review of the recent developments in this technology and then progresses to a discussion of the criteria needed to successfully select an AM technology for the embodiment of a particular design discussing material compatibility interfaces issues and strength requirements The book concludes with a review of the applications in various industries including bio energy aerospace and electronics This book will be a must read for those interested in a practical comprehensive introduction to additive manufacturing an area with tremendous potential for producing high value complex individually customized parts As 3D printing technology advances both in hardware and software together with reduced materials cost and complexity of creating 3D printed items these applications are quickly expanding into the mass market Includes a discussion of the historical development and physical principles of current AM technologies Exposes readers to the engineering principles for evaluating and quantifying AM technologies Explores the uses of Additive Manufacturing in various industries most notably aerospace medical energy and electronics

Life in Transit: Theological and Ethical Contributions on Migration Manitza Kotzé,Riaan Rheeder,2020-12-31 Migration is an issue that is under discussion worldwide and affects South Africa the United States of America and Germany in a distinctive way This book reflects academically on this significant and topical subject of migration from the often neglected perspective of the fields of theology and Christian ethics While the majority of contributions are from the South African context there are also chapters reflecting on the topic from the other two aforementioned contexts While numerous publications have recently appeared on the subject reflection from theology and Christian ethics are often lacking As such this scholarly publication wants to add ethical value to the local and global conversations on the theme from a theological perspective The book reflects on migration from the perspectives originated in the disciplines of biblical studies the Hebrew Bible and the New Testament systematic theology ecumenical studies Christian ethics practical theology and missiology It presents new and innovative inquiries primarily from a qualitative methodological viewpoint The book unveils new themes for deliberation and provides novel interpretations and

insights into existing research Advanced Functional Materials and Methods for Photodegradation of Toxic Pollutants Ajay Kumar Mishra, Pardeep Singh, Pankaj Raizada, S. Vadivel, Rangabhashiyam Selvasembian, 2023-09-20 Advanced Functional Materials and Methods for Photodegradation of Toxic Pollutants addresses the potential role of visible active photocatalytic methods for the removal of various emerging and persistent organic pollutants POPs Describing the classification sources and potential risks of emerging organics in water bodies and the environment the book covers the different synthesis methods of visible active structured photocatalysts and structure related properties to their applications in photocatalytic processes for the removal of antibiotics pharma and heavy metal pollutants This book provides an invaluable reference to academics researchers and technicians in chemical engineering chemistry and environmental science In addition the mechanistic insights associated with the interaction of advanced functional materials and water pollutants along with the possible reaction pathway occurring during the visible light induced photocatalytic processes together with toxicity are discussed in detail along with the reutilization of catalysts supporting the inherent reaction conditions performed with natural conditions Covers the recent progress in nano photocatalytic materials Explores the mechanism of photocatalytic degradation of pollutants Includes the controlled synthesis of nanostructured photocatalysts and their modifications for targeted pollutants The Palgrave Handbook of Motivation for Language Learning Martin Lamb, Kata Csizér, Alastair Henry, Stephen Ryan, 2020-01-11 This handbook offers an authoritative one stop reference work for the dynamic and expanding field of language learning motivation The 32 chapters have been specially commissioned from the field s most influential researchers and writers Together they present a compelling picture of the motivations people have for learning languages the diverse ways we can research motivation and the implications for promoting and sustaining learners motivation The first section outlines the main theoretical approaches to language learning motivation the next section presents ways in which motivation theory has been applied in practice the third section showcases examples of motivation research in particular contexts and with particular types of language learners and the final section describes the exciting directions that contemporary research is taking promising important new insights for academics and practitioners alike

Exploring the link between poverty and human rights in Africa Edited by Ebenezer Durojaye and Gladys Mirugi-Mukundi, 2020-01-01 About the publication This book addresses poverty one of the important issues confronting Africa from a multi disciplinary approach With contributions from eminent scholars from diverse backgrounds the book explores poverty from a human rights perspective Its central message is that poverty is not necessarily a failure on the part of an individual but rather caused by the actions or inactions of governments which are often exacerbated by structural inequalities in many African societies This in turn requires a more pragmatic approach grounded in respect for human rights Exploring the link between poverty and human rights in Africa will be useful to researchers policymakers students activists and others interested in addressing poverty Table of Contents PREFACE viii ACKNOWLEDGMENTS x CONTRIBUTORS xi 1 images of dysfunction are everywhere Student protests Violence Police presence Rubber or real bullets Class disruptions

Burning tyres Damaged buildings Injury and sometimes death Reports of wholesale corruption Year after year often in the same set of universities the problem of routine instability seems insoluble The financial academic and reputational costs of ongoing dysfunction are high especially for those universities caught up in the never ending struggle to overcome apartheid legacies Any number of explanations have been ventured including a lack of resources shortage of capacity rural location corrupt officials and endemic conflict Corrupted takes a deeper look at dysfunction in an attempt to unravel the root causes in a sample of South African universities At the heart of the problem lies the vexed issue of resources or more pertinently the relationship between resources and power who gets what and why Whatever else it aspires to be commonly a place of teaching learning research and public duty a university in an impoverished community is also a rich concentration of resources around which corrupt staff students and those outside of campus all vie for access Taking a political economic approach Jonathan Jansen describes the daily struggle for institutional resources and offers accessible sensible insights He argues that the problem won't be solved through investments in capacity building alone because the combination of institutional capacity and institutional integrity contributes to serial instability in universities Rather durable solutions would include the depoliticisation of university councils and appointments of academics with integrity and capacity to manage and lead these fragile institutions This groundbreaking and long overdue study will offer a promising way forward for universities to better serve their communities and the country more broadly

Speaking Subjects in Multilingualism Research Judith Purkarthofer, Mi-Cha Flubacher, 2022-07-22 This book discusses salient moments of multilingual encounters and brings together contributions focused on the interplay between language use by individuals and societies and language related inequalities or opportunities for speakers The chapters demonstrate how biographical and speaker centred approaches can contribute to an understanding of linguistic diversity how researchers can empirically account for lived experiences of languages and how such accounts are embedded in a larger discussion on social inequality Together the chapters make a powerful case for the importance of speaker centred methodologies in multilingual and multilingualism research The book is a rich source of theoretical and methodological reflections and will thus be a valuable resource for both experienced researchers and students beginning to explore biographical research methods

Public-Private Partnerships in Africa Thekiso Molokwane, Muhiya Tshombe Lukamba, Alex Nduhura, Innocent Nuwagaba, 2023-12-06 In the twenty first century governments around the world began to engage the private sector with the objective of achieving public service delivery targets and the African continent has as such been experiencing transformation particularly since the introduction of public private partnerships PPP as a measure of reform and method of procurement Unfortunately there is a mixed bag of successes and challenges through this implementation of PPPs causing a gap in infrastructure leaving more than 640 million Africans without access to energy Muhiya Tshombe Lukamba Thekiso Molokwane Alex Nduhura and Innocent Nuwagaba in Public Private Partnerships in Africa Exploring Africa's Growth Potential explore ways in which the government can collaborate with the private sector in order to close these gaps The chapters analyze the implementation of PPPs and provide case studies on the use of PPPs in different African countries and industry sectors This book unearths new findings on PPPs within Africa and provides solutions that are beneficial to scholars the government and the PPP industry through the theoretical underpinning of various contemporary issues

South Africa's Water Predicament Anja du Plessis,2023-01-13 The book provides a critical evaluation of South Africa s freshwater resources to illustrate the way in which its freshwater resources water access services and infrastructure have continued to decline over the past three decades The continued decline of water governance management water service delivery dilapidated water infrastructure dysfunctional local governments and overall excessive water degradation is illustrated and emphasized using real life examples and case studies from various contexts within the country The main argument of the book is that South Africa s freshwater resources have declined to such an extent that it can be described as a predicament Questionable water governance decisions and reactive water management practices have led to no improvement and or increased degradation of freshwater resources An overall lack of service delivery exists across the country in various contexts leading to further water and social decline An inter disciplinary evaluation of South Africa s current water predicament is provided major water crises are prioritized and suitable recommendations are given to transform its predicament into problems which can be addressed Suitable background information is given to emphasize the necessity of good water governance management and service delivery South Africa s freshwater resources are evaluated with specific focus on the decline of informed water governance management service delivery and water quality Factors requiring urgent attention are determined and suitable recommendations and or actions are provided An evaluation and overall synthesis focused on the transformation of the predicament into problems is provided Primary water problems are prioritized according to urgency and suitable recommendations are given to assist in transforming the country s current complex water predicament into simpler water problems Political will collaboration with researchers stakeholders non governmental organizations and cooperation of civil society is required South Africa s already scarce freshwater resources and decaying infrastructure will persist and possibly collapse if no major actions or interventions are implemented
