Langlands,2014-08-25 Why have so many churches started community gardens over the past decade Are they simply a fad Or do community gardens somehow connect more deeply with the mission of the churches that launch them What can churches and faith based institutions interested in starting community gardens learn from those that have started their own gardens over the past decade And what would it mean for a church to put Christ in the center of its community gardening efforts In order to discern best practices for launching Christ centered community gardens moving forward Cultivating Neighborhood begins with a brief survey of the history of community gardens in the United States and builds a constructive theological framework for community gardening grounded in the practice of Christian hospitality It continues with two case studies of church sponsored community gardens and one case study of a community garden sponsored by a Christian college all three of which were created between 2003 and 2011 The results of this research conclude with a new definition of Christ centered community gardening and an outline of fifteen best practices for launching a Christ centered community garden Catalog
