Edie,2025-03-14 The second half of the nineteenth century in Russian philosophy sees it more or less definitive triumph of Westernizing currents over the Slavophiles There is no doubt that both Nihilism and Populism as successive schools of Russian philosophy are the authentic progeny of the senior Westernizers though in the development of their philosophical doctrine they owe much less to German Romanticism than to British utilitarianism French positivism and the socialism of left wing Hegelians Toward the end of the century these philosopher come increasingly under the influence of the scientific socialism of Karl Marx American Educational History Journal J. Wesley Null,2007-08-01 The American Educational History Journal is a peer reviewed national research journal devoted to the examination of educational topics using perspectives from a variety of disciplines The editors of AEHJ encourage communication between scholars from numerous disciplines nationalities institutions and backgrounds Authors come from a variety of disciplines including political science curriculum history philosophy teacher education and educational leadership Acceptance for publication in AEHJ requires that each author present a well articulated argument that deals substantively with questions of educational history Unesco Sources ,1996-07 Jewish Culture in Early Modern Europe Richard I. Cohen,Natalie B. Dohrmann,Elchanan Reiner,Adam Shear,2014-12-31 David B Ruderman s groundbreaking studies of Jewish intellectuals as they engaged with Renaissance humanism the Scientific Revolution and the Enlightenment have set the agenda for a distinctive historiographical approach to Jewish culture in early modern Europe from 1500 to 1800 From his initial studies of Italy to his later work on eighteenth century English German and Polish Jews Ruderman has emphasized the individual as a representative or exemplary figure through whose life and career the problems of a period and cultural context are revealed Thirty one leading scholars celebrate Ruderman s stellar career in essays that bring new insight into Jewish culture as it is intertwined in Jewish European Ottoman and American history The volume presents probing historical snapshots that advance refine and challenge how we understand the early modern period and spark further inquiry Key elements explored include those inspired by Ruderman s own work the role of print the significance of networks and mobility among Jewish intellectuals the value of extraordinary individuals who absorbed and translated so called external traditions into a Jewish idiom and the interaction between cultures through texts and personal encounters of Jewish and Christian intellectuals While these elements can be found in earlier periods of Jewish history Ruderman and his colleagues point to an intensification of mobility the dissemination of knowledge and the blurring of boundaries in the early modern period These studies present a rich and nuanced portrait of a Jewish culture that is both a contributing member and a product of early modern Europe and the Ottoman Empire As director of the Herbert D Katz Center for Advanced Judaic Studies at the University of Pennsylvania Ruderman has fostered a community of scholars from Europe North America and Israel who work in the widest range of areas that touch on Jewish culture He has worked to make Jewish studies an essential element of mainstream humanities The essays in this volume are a testament to the haven he has fostered for scholars which has and continues to generate important works of scholarship across the entire spectrum of Jewish history A Reference Guide for English Studies Michael J. Marcuse,1990-01-01 This text is an introduction to the full range of standard reference tools in all branches of English studies More than 10 000 titles are included The Reference Guide covers all the areas traditionally defined as English studies and all the field of inquiry more recently associated with English studies British and Irish American and world literatures written in English are included Other fields covered are folklore film literary theory general and comparative literature language and linguistics rhetoric and composition bibliography and textual criticism and women s studies The American West and Its Interpreters Richard W. Etulain,2023-05-01 Distinguished historian Richard W Etulain brings together a generous selection of essays from his sixty year career as a specialist on the US West in this essential volume Each essay provides an invaluable overview of the rise of western literary history and historiography including insightful evaluations of individual historians revealing summaries of regional literature and discussions of western stories yet to be told Together these writings furnish readers with useful considerations of important subjects about the American West All those interested in the American West and its interpreters will find these illuminative moments of literary history and historiography especially appealing
