South African Army Bursaries 2016:

Pacifism and Pentecostals in South Africa Marius Nel, 2018-06-27 Most of the early twentieth century Pentecostal denominations were peace churches that encouraged a stance of conscientious objection. However, since the Second World War, Pentecostals have largely abandoned their pacifist viewpoint as they have taken on a more literal Biblical hermeneutic from their interaction with Evangelical denominations. This book traces the history of nonviolence in Pentecostalism and suggests that a new hermeneutic of the Bible is needed by today's Pentecostals in order for them to rediscover their pacifist roots and effect positive social change. The book focuses on how Pentecostalism has manifested in South Africa during the twentieth century. Much of the available academic literature on hermeneutics and exegesis in the field of Pentecostal Studies is of an American or British European origin. This book redresses this imbalance by exploring how the Bible has been used amongst African Pentecostals to teach on the apparent paradox of a simultaneously wrathful and loving God. It then goes on to suggest that how the Bible is read directly affects how Pentecostals view their role as potential reformers of society. So it must be engaged seriously and thoughtfully. By bringing Pentecostalism's function in South African society to the fore, this book adds a fresh perspective on the issue of pacifism in world Christianity. As such, it will be of great use to scholars of Pentecostal Studies, Theology and Religion, and Violence, as well as those working in African Studies.

Reimagining Social Justice Scholarship Tamara Shefer, Carmine Rustin, Floretta Boonzaier, 2025-09-25 Showcasing creative decolonial feminist and critical social justice scholarship located in a South African context, this book works across modalities and disciplines and within art and activism to challenge hegemonic and oppressive forms of gender and sexuality. In the wake of decolonial activism in higher education and civil society since 2015 and the larger struggle for equality and justice, Shefer, Rustin, Boonzaier, and their contributors draw primarily from the work of local research and pedagogical projects directed at alternative imaginaries of gender and sexual justice with global import. Increasingly, scholars are engaging in collaborative, dialogical, and creative work that foregrounds performance, art, music, crafts, literature, as well as embodied affective and relational engagements in the making of knowledge. This book shares some of these diverse counter-hegemonic pedagogies and research approaches that bring an intersectional and decolonial feminist lens to contemporary efforts to decolonise higher education and larger civil society. Producing lines of thought and sharing praxis that destabilises, disrupts, and opens up new possibilities for justice scholarship, the book provides a space for going beyond critical reflexivity in research and practice related to gender and sexual inequalities. It seeks to make a scholarly intervention founded on rethinking its own grounds through collaborations with knowledges often deployed by those outside the authoritative expert domains of academia, aligning it with feminist and decolonial aims. This book is a valuable resource for students and scholars of gender, sexuality, and intersectionality, particularly those with a focus on the global South.

Everyday State and Democracy in Africa Wale Adebani, 2022-07-12 Bottom-up case studies drawn from the perspective of ordinary Africans' experiences with state bureaucracies structures and services reveal how citizens and states define each other This volume examines contemporary citizens everyday encounters with the state and democratic processes in Africa The contributions reveal the intricate and complex ways in which quotidian activities and experiences from getting an identification card genuine or fake to sourcing black market commodities to dealing with unreliable waste collection both re produce and re constitute the state and democracy This approach from below lends gravity to the mundane and recognizes the value of conceiving state governance not in terms of its stated promises and aspirations but rather in accordance with how people experience it Both new and established scholars based in Africa Europe and North America cover a wide range of examples from across the continent including bureaucratic machinery in South Sudan Nigeria and Kenya infrastructure and shortages in Chad and Nigeria disciplinarity subjectivity and violence in Rwanda South Africa and Nigeria the social life of democracy in the Congo Cameroon and Mozambique education welfare and health in Ethiopia the Democratic Republic of Congo and Burkina Faso

NL ARMS Netherlands Annual Review of Military Studies 2020 Frans Osinga, Tim Sweijs, 2020-12-03 This open access volume surveys the state of the field to examine whether a fifth wave of deterrence theory is emerging Bringing together insights from world leading experts from three continents the volume identifies the most pressing strategic challenges frames theoretical concepts and describes new strategies The use and utility of deterrence in today s strategic environment is a topic of paramount concern to scholars strategists and policymakers Ours is a period of considerable strategic turbulence which in recent years has featured a renewed emphasis on nuclear weapons used in defence postures across different theatres a dramatic growth in the scale of military cyber capabilities and the frequency with which these are used and rapid technological progress including the proliferation of long range strike and unmanned systems These military strategic developments occur in a polarized international system where cooperation between leading powers on arms control regimes is breaking down states widely make use of hybrid conflict strategies and the number of internationalized intrastate proxy conflicts has quintupled over the past two decades Contemporary conflict actors exploit a wider gamut of coercive instruments which they apply across a wider range of domains The prevalence of multi domain coercion across but also beyond traditional dimensions of armed conflict raises an important question what does effective deterrence look like in the 21st century Answering that question requires a re appraisal of key theoretical concepts and dominant strategies of Western and non Western actors in order to assess how they hold up in today s world Air Commodore Professor Dr Frans Osinga is the Chair of the War Studies Department of the Netherlands Defence Academy and the Special Chair in War Studies at the University Leiden Dr Tim Sweijs is the Director of Research at The Hague Centre for Strategic Studies and a Research Fellow at the Faculty of Military Sciences of the Netherlands Defence Academy in Breda

A Church Militant Michael Snape,2022 This is a study of the relationship between Anglicans and the armed forces of the military heritage and history of the Anglican Communion and the changing nature of this relationship between the mid Victorian period and the 1970s This era spanned a period of imperial expansion and colonial conflict round the turn of the twentieth century the two World Wars the Cold War wars of decolonisation and Vietnam In terms of armed conflict it was the bloodiest period in the history of humanity and marked the advent of weaponry that had the capacity to extinguish human civilization This book assesses the contribution of an expansive Anglican Communion to the armed forces of the English speaking world examines the ways in which this has been remembered and explores its challenging legacy for the twenty first century Church of England

Protected Areas and Tourism in Southern Africa Lesego Senyana Stone,Moren Tibabo Stone,Patricia Kefilwe Mogomotsi,Goemeone E.J. Mogomotsi,2022-03-23 This volume discusses the complex relationship between Protected Areas and tourism and their impact on community livelihoods in a range of countries in Southern Africa Protected areas and tourism have an enduring and symbiotic relationship While protected areas offer a desirable setting for tourism products tourism provides revenue that can contribute to conservation efforts This can bring benefits to local communities but it can also have a negative impact with the establishment of protected areas leading to the eviction of local communities from their original places of residence while also preventing them from accessing the natural resources they once enjoyed Taking a multi disciplinary approach this book addresses the opportunities and challenges faced by communities and other stakeholders as they endeavour to achieve their conservation goals and work towards improving community livelihoods Case studies from Botswana Malawi Namibia South Africa Tanzania Zambia and Zimbabwe address key issues such as human wildlife conflicts ecotourism wildlife based tourism landscape governance wildlife crop raiding and trophy hunting including the high profile case of Cecil the lion Chapters highlight both the achievements and positive outcomes of protected areas but also the challenges faced and their impact on how protected areas are viewed and also conservation priorities more generally The volume gives these issues affecting protected areas local communities managers and international conservation efforts centre stage in order inform policy and improve practice going forward This book will be of great interest to students and scholars of conservation natural resource management tourism sustainable development and African studies as well as professionals and policymakers involved in conservation policy

British Royal Visits and Black Loyalism in Twentieth-century Southern Africa Hilary Sapiro, 2024-10-31 Exploring the entwined histories of British royal visits to Southern Africa in the twentieth century this book analyses the clashing voices of dissent and cheering crowds that accompanied royal tours providing insight into the shifting nature of Black loyalism Originating in the Indigenous empire loyalism of eighteenth century Canada Black loyalism encompassed loyalty to the British crown and a shared ideology of rights and entitlements which positioned the crown as a source of protection against white settler rapacity colonial violence and racial oppression However expressions of monarchical devotion were often double edged and addressed the fundamental contradiction of a crown that was both the source of rights and complicit in colonial conquest appropriation and misrule It was on royal occasions such as jubilees coronation celebrations and especially royal visits when the sovereign was literally amongst their more distant subjects that loyalist sentiment was rekindled reinvented and made directly relevant to the concerns of the day By analysing change and continuity in Black perspectives towards both the British and Indigenous African monarchy during these visits this book offers a fruitful way into examining an array of Black Southern African discourses on governance political values and cultural identities across the region It argues that the refashioning of British imperial monarchy in the twentieth century was profoundly shaped by African initiatives and re imaginings and provides valuable reading for those researching imperialism popular attitudes to the British monarchy in the twentieth century and the diverse politics and identities of southern Africa

The Handbook of African Defence and Armed Forces Evert Kleynhans,Marco Wyss,2025-03-01 The Handbook of African Defence and Armed Forces provides the first in depth and multifaceted analysis of the evolution and current state of national defence policies strategies doctrines capabilities security challenges and strategic responses of African states and their armed forces Geographically these aspects are investigated at the national sub regional and regional levels Chronologically they are analysed against the backdrop of the superpower withdrawal from the continent in the 1990s and the so called New Scramble for Africa which has seen a crescendo of renewed great power interest in the continent s resources as well as its strategic role location and relevance since the 2000s The book takes a bottom up and African centric approach and is organized around five key themes i the differing security outlooks and defence policies of African powers within the region and the different sub regions ii the strategies doctrines transformation and employment of African armed forces iii the relationship between African armed forces with sub regional regional and international organizations iv the challenges that African states and their armed forces have been facing and their strategic responses and v the position of African perspectives and agency in the context of continental and international security and defence Understanding African security and defence especially in terms of each individual nation s ability to contribute to peacekeeping operations counterterrorism border security and internal security requires a focus on the national level of armed forces and defence policies this in turns sheds light on sub regional and regional divergences challenges and cooperation Based on this framework the chapters in this volume offer comprehensive African perspectives on African and international security and defence and in doing so show the agency of the continent s countries and armed forces in International Security and Relations

African Non-Military Conflict Intervention Practices Antonia Witt,Christof Hartmann,Ulf Engel,2025-12-17 Ever since the African Peace and Security Architecture APSA was initiated in the early 2000s political and research interest has tended to focus on its military components rather than the more quantitatively important non military interventions This book scrutinizes the enactment and effects of African non military conflict interventions from a range of different perspectives and contexts Research suggests that non military interventions through the African Union and Regional Economic Communities are highly impactful despite being typically under resourced and less institutionally embedded within APSA This book provides a comprehensive empirical mapping of the many mostly informal practices of non military interventions and the complex interfaces between the African Union and Regional Economic Communities their external partners and national and local actors Covering various cross cutting themes such as the involvement of civil society and the role of African special envoys in non military interventions the book considers the variation and dynamics of such practices across time and space as well as their intended or unintended effects This timely new assessment of African non military conflict interventions will be an important read for peacebuilding practitioners and think tanks as well as researchers working across African International Relations peace and conflict studies

Policing Criminality and Insurgency in Africa Dawud Muhammad Dawud, Usman A. Tar, 2022-11-14 Policing Criminality and Insurgency in Africa Perspectives on the Changing Wave of Law Enforcement provides critical insights into the trends and patterns of crime and insurgency in contemporary African society In Africa criminals and insurgents are becoming more resourceful smart and connected as criminal syndicates are increasingly deploying modern technologies to commit crimes in ways and manners that are profoundly daring and on a transnational and global scale Meanwhile the capacity of local state and security forces to stem the tide of crimes and insurgencies is decimated by dwindling resources on the part of the state due to official corruption down sizing of public institutions and a fierce competition for resources between security and other developmental agencies In this volume the contributors who are expert academics in policing and security in Africa as well as security practitioners provide detailed explanations of the new wave of crime characterized by cyber insecurity terror financing the proliferation of small arms and light weapons and transnational networking among criminal syndicates The volume forensically explores how these complex waves and emerging trends of criminality and insurgency impact on the socio economic and political development of Africa Editors Usman A Tar and Dawud Muhammad Dawud highlight how these factors affect and shape policing and law enforcement in an era of smart crimes and insurgency within the continent
