Osinga, 2017-07-14 With a foreword by Major General Nico Geerts Commander Netherlands Defence Academy Breda The Netherlands International conflict resolution increasingly involves the use of non military power and non kinetic capabilities alongside military capabilities in the face of hybrid threats In this book counter measures to those threats are addressed by academics with both practical and theoretical experience and knowledge providing strategic and operational insights into non kinetic conflict resolution and on the use of power to influence affect deter or coerce states and non state actors This volume in the NL ARMS series deals with the non kinetic capabilities to address international crises and conflicts and as always views matters from a global perspective Included are chapters on the promise practice and challenges of non kinetic instruments of power the instrumentality of soft power information as a power instrument and manoeuvring in the information environment Russia s use of deception and misinformation in conflict applying counter marketing techniques to fight ISIL using statistics to profile terrorists and employing tools such as Actor and Audience Analysis Such diverse subjects as lawfare the Law of Armed Conflict rules for non kinetic cyber attacks navigation warfare GPS spoofing maritime interception operations and finally as a prerequisite innovative ways for intelligence collection in UN Peacekeeping in Mali come up for discussion The book will provide both professionals such as foreign policy makers and those active in the military services academics at a master level and those with an interest in military law and the law of armed conflict with useful and up to date insights into the wide range of subjects that are contained within it Paul A L Ducheine and Frans P B Osinga are General Officers and full professors at the Faculty of Military Sciences of the Netherlands Defence Academy in Breda The Netherlands Specific to this volume in the Series Written by academics with both practical and theoretical experience Addresses counter measures to hybrid crises Offers both strategic and operational insights to non kinetic conflict resolution

Counter-Insurgency in Nigeria Akali Omeni, 2017-09-08 This book offers a detailed examination of the counter insurgency operations undertaken by the Nigerian military against Boko Haram between 2011 and 2017 Based on extensive fieldwork conducted with military units in Nigeria Counter Insurgency in Nigeria has two main aims First it seeks to provide an understanding of the Nigerian military s internal role a role that today as a result of internal threats pivots towards counter insurgency The book illustrates how organizational culture historical experience institutions and doctrine are critical to understanding the Nigerian military and its attitudes and actions against the threat of civil disobedience today and in the past The second aim of the book is to examine the Nigerian military campaign against Boko Haram insurgents specifically plans and operations between June 2011 and April 2017 Within this second theme emphasis is placed on the idea of battlefield innovation and the reorganization within the Nigerian military since 2013 as the Nigerian Army and Air Force recalibrated themselves for COIN warfare A certain mystique has surrounded the technicalities of COIN operations by the Army against Boko Haram and this book aims to disperse that veil of secrecy Furthermore the work s analysis of the air force s role in counter insurgency is unprecedented within the literature on military warfare in Nigeria This book will be of great interest to students of military studies counter insurgency counter terrorism African politics and security studies in general

Military Assistance on Request and the Use of Force Erika De Wet,2020-03-26 In countries such as Syria Iraq South Sudan and Yemen internationally recognized governments embroiled in protracted armed conflicts and with very little control over their territory have requested direct military assistance from other states These requests are often accepted by the other states despite the circumvention of the United Nations Security Council and extensive violation of international humanitarian law and human rights In this book Erika De Wet examines the authority entitled to extend a request for or consent to direct military assistance as well as the type of situations during which such assistance may be requested notably whether it may be requested during a civil war Ultimately De Wet addresses the question of if and to what extent the proliferation of military assistance on the request of a recognized government is changing the rules in international law applying to the use of force

Encyclopedia of Christianity in the Global South Mark A. Lamport,2018-06-01 Christianity has transformed many times in its 2 000 year history from its roots in the Middle East to its presence around the world today From the mid twentieth century onward the presence of Christianity has increased dramatically in Asia Africa and Latin America and the majority of the world's Christians are now nonwhite and non-Western. The Encyclopedia of Christianity in the Global South traces both the historical evolution and contemporary themes in Christianity in more than 150 countries and regions. The volumes include maps, images, and a detailed timeline of key events. The phrases Global Christianity and World Christianity are inadequate to convey the complexity of the countries and regions involved; this encyclopedia, with its more than 500 entries, aims to offer rich perspectives on the varieties of Christianity where it is growing, how the spread of Christianity shapes the faith in various regions, and how the faith is changing worldwide. Parliamentary Papers Great Britain.
