Yearbook of International Organizations 2014-2015, Volumes 1a & 1b (Set) Union of International Associations, 2014-06-16 Volume 1 A and B covers international organizations throughout the world comprising their aims activities and events Management and Military Studies Joseph Soeters, 2020-03-24 This book connects findings and insights authored by famous scholars in management and organization studies with challenges the military is facing today One assumes that management and organization studies is only about the rational predictable and manageable and that military action is predominately irrational unpredictable and unmanageable both assumptions are wrong This book argues that the discipline of management and organization studies is highly relevant for the military in both peace and wartime conditions and for any situation in between In all conditions the giant and complex military organization needs to be structured processed administrated led and accounted for Each chapter presented in this volume focuses on the contributions of founding thinkers in management and organization studies with their work translated and applied to the military setting These scholars are drawn from a variety of backgrounds including organizational sociology economics political science psychology and engineering Although the work of only a few explicitly refers to the military the contributions of all these scholars are relevant in order to come to grips with security and military affairs Together with many other academics work the contributions of these 18 scholars constitute the core of the field of management and organization studies This book will be of much interest to students of military studies management studies and organization studies Index Medicus, 2004 Mainstreaming the Tribal Areas (ex-FATA) of Pakistan Bordering Afghanistan Asghar Khan, 2022-08-23 The book addresses why the Pakistani state is facing persistent challenges in extending and consolidating its governance authority throughout its territories especially in the former Federally Administered Tribal Areas ex FATA Even after the de jure merger the question still remains valid that how Pakistani state could establish its governance in these tribal areas Through multi dimensional approaches and multi pronged analysis of state centric top down society centric bottom up and state in society mixed horizontal approaches the book explains factors and dimensions that pose challenges to Pakistani state governance in ex FATA The main hypothesis is that societies where state governance is absent turn to informal governance and create informal institutions as a substitute for the weak central state governance thereby challenging the domination and control authority of the state The book presents policy recommendations for bringing these tribal areas into the mainstream governance system of Pakistan The House of Beauty Arabelle Sicardi, 2025-10-14 When I tell you that beauty is a monster I need you to know it is my favorite kind So begins Arabelle Sicardi s blazingly original collection of essays A former beauty editor Arabelle has devoted their entire adult life to the subject of beauty they have analyzed it criticized it praised it benefited from it loathed it Now in The House of Beauty they get to the contradictions at the heart of it beauty and horror two sides of the same coin With their signature blend of intellectual rigor and poetic sensibility Arabelle explores how beauty myths are crafted sold and weaponized from corporate boardrooms to your local nail salon Follow alongside Arabelle as they trace the global trail of the shimmering mica in your beauty products choose your own adventure style or journey into the past to unearth the sinister connection between fragrance and fascism Bear witness as they visit a tech convention focused on the next horrifying frontier of body modification or as they ask what s at stake in the braids we weave in our hair Sharp yet tender in their observations Arabelle challenges readers to reconsider beauty as more than a product of consumption inviting a vision of beauty rooted in community and self care one that transcends industry driven ideals Equal parts expos and cultural reckoning The House of Beauty cracks open an industry that sells dreams and wields power Once you have encountered Arabelle s words there is no looking back

Geography of Health Swati Rajput,2024-01-01 This book is an attempt to understand the basics of health in geographical perspective The book is based on the curriculum of CBCS LOCF and NEP UGCF of geography of various universities in India The subject is also taught in many foreign universities outside India as a part of their curriculum and research The book explains in detail the concept of health and wellbeing Health geography has its crux in spatial distribution of various geographical phenomena influencing multiple aspects of human health The book thus discusses the aetiology of human health It also elaborates on human development processes and their impact on environment and human health The book tries to put forth the spatial epidemiology of communicable and non communicable diseases in India and the world based on authentic published sources of national and international organizations The book devotes one full chapter on types of mental health and their prevalence in the world based on authentic sources of information The last chapter of the book talks about Global Health Organizations and agencies It also discusses Healthcare system in India its merits and drawbacks The geographical variations generate complexity in understanding cause and effect relationship between environment and human health The book thus is organized in a simplified way and tries structure the complex aspects for the readers I hope readers get benefitted from the book and get encouraged working on one of the most dynamic and extremely relevant theme of Geography of Health Congressional Record Index ,1985 Includes history of bills and resolutions Ethical Economics and Sustainable Development Devi Datt Tewari,Kehinde Damilola Ilesanmi,2025-11-04 As societies strive for economic progress they often prioritize metrics like GDP growth technological innovation and industrial expansion However amid the rush for material progress something important yet frequently overlooked comes into focus the influence of moral capital on the trajectory of economic expansion This book explores the role of moral capital and its relationship with economic growth It emphasises how investment in moral frameworks can promote social well being and sustainable development The book is divided into two sections The first part focuses on the theorisation of the moral capital and African economic sustainability nexus while the second part is devoted to some selected empirical studies on the impact of moral capital on African economic policies The book argues that firm growth is crucial not only for stakeholders but also for the broader economy underpinning the sustainability of the ecosystem and by adhering to ethical principles organisations can make a positive impact on social economic and environmental issues Furthermore they can proactively address societal concerns promote fairness and justice and engage in sustainable practices Through their actions institutions become agents of positive change helping to shape a more inclusive equitable and sustainable world The key message of the book is that the cultivation of moral capital requires a collective effort from all stakeholders involved in institutional development governments institutions civil society and individuals must collaborate to create an ecosystem that incentivises and rewards ethical behaviour It includes diverse perspectives and combines conceptual theoretical and empirical research addressing contemporary issues in African economic policy and sustainability It presents global case studies to make the case for the importance of moral capital in addressing African leadership problems The book will appeal to academics students and researchers in economics ethics development studies and sustainability The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license

Interconnecting the Violences of Men Kate Seymour,Bob Pease,Sofia Strid,Jeff Hearn,2024-11-04 This book aims to expand and enrich understandings of violences by focusing on gendered continuities interconnections and intersections across multiple forms and manifestations of men's violence In actively countering both the compartmentalisation of studies of violence by type and form and the tendency to conceptualise violence narrowly it aims to flesh out not delimit understandings of violence Bringing together cross disciplinary indeed transdisciplinary perspectives this book addresses how what are often seen as specific and separate violences connect closely and intricately with wider understandings of violence how there are gendered continuities between violences and how gendered violences take many forms and manifestations and are themselves intersectional Grounded by the recognition that violence is itself a form of inequality the contributors to this volume traverse the intersectional complexities across both experiences of violent inequality and what is seen to count as violence The international scope of this book will be of interest to students and academics across many fields including sociology criminology psychology social work politics gender studies child and youth studies military and peace studies environmental studies and colonial studies as well as practitioners activists and policymakers engaged in violence prevention

Understanding West Africa's Ebola Epidemic Ibrahim Abdullah, Ismail Rashid, 2017-10-15 From 2013 to 2015 over 11 000 people across West Africa lost their lives to the deadliest outbreak of the Ebola virus in history Crucially this epidemic marked the first time the virus was able to spread beyond rural areas to major cities overturning conventional assumptions about its epidemiology With backgrounds ranging from development to disease control the contributors to this volume some of them based in countries affected by the Ebola epidemic consider the underlying factors that shaped this unprecedented outbreak While championing the heroic efforts of local communities and aid workers in halting the spread of the disease the contributors also reveal deep structural problems in both the countries and humanitarian agencies involved which hampered the efforts to contain the epidemic Alarming they show that little has been learned from these events with health provision remaining underfunded and poorly equipped to deal with future outbreaks Such issues they argue reflect the wider challenges we face in tackling epidemic disease in an increasingly interconnected world

Handbook of BRICS and Emerging Economies P. B. Anand, Shailaja Fennell, Flavio Comim, 2021 Ever since Jim O'Neill at Goldman Sachs coined the term BRICS in 2001 there have been many different assessments of these major emerging economies with some even proclaiming that the promise of the BRICS comprising Brazil Russia India China and South Africa is over However the so called arranged marriage still seems to be working well with the club having become a formal international forum with summit declarations ministerial meetings and numerous BRICS wide fora Is this euphoria misplaced Is there a BRICS model of economic and human development Are inequalities increasing and is this the denouncement of the economic successes The Handbook of BRICS and Emerging Economies presents a comprehensive and multi faceted analysis of the BRICS countries and other emerging economies exploring their economic social environmental and governance dimensions and other challenges It brings together multi disciplinary perspectives from more than fifty authors to examine how education contributed to the emergence of BRICS how BRICS are impacting African economies and how other emerging economies including Chile Mexico Turkey and others in Africa and Central Asia compare It observes the impact of governance challenges both within individual countries and in the forum for co operation amongst them what issues related to gender and identity based violence are prevalent and what the security implications are and the role of BRICS is in contributing to peace keeping operations
