

Background information given:

Topic: Short-term trading, international accounting, short-term debt financing

Background:

Southampton plc has been negotiating a contract with a potential customer in Mexico. Before the negotiation started, the Mexican company requested that it should be allowed to study the accounts of Southampton. These documents were described as useful in assessing the technical credit standing. This is the first request under the company's new accounts credit policy. Unfortunately, the previous credit policy under the previous management described the credit strategy used by companies as outlined in the list.

The sales department has proposed the following statement showing that the contract will make a profit if it results in the sales department's revenue and expenses as follows being set as independent of the type of order.

Obviously the management accountant will also be asked to comment on the statement prepared by the sales department. As this order is different and may result in a different outcome, it may be that management should be management's statement is required for the statement below.

Statement prepared by sales department

Costs, including direct £100,000 (cost order)	£
Variable costs order 1	20,000
Overhead costs order 1	10,000
Variable overhead costs order 1	5,000
Administrative charges (cost order 1)	10,000
Variable costs order 1	10,000
Overhead costs order 1	10,000
Administrative charges (cost order 1)	10,000
Profit	10,000

After the negotiation the management accountant prepared a profit report. The costs given are summarized below.

Summary of management accounts

- Order 1 This report will be used for the contract.
- Order 2 This report will include £100,000 of costs for goods that have already been received. This is the cost of operating expenses to produce a good with the negotiation.
- Order 3 This is £100 of the cost of a contract. It is estimated that the negotiation will result in a profit of £100,000 for the company. It is estimated that the cost of the contract is £100,000 for the company. It is estimated that the cost of the contract is £100,000 for the company.
