Southeast Asian Muslims In The Era Of Globalization:

Southeast Asian Muslims in the Era of Globalization K. Miichi, O. Farouk, 2014-12-15 This volume investigates the appropriate position of Islam and opposing perceptions of Muslims in Southeast Asia The contributors examine how Southeast Asian Muslims respond to globalization in their particular regional national and local settings and suggest global solutions for key local issues Islam in Southeast Asia K. S. Nathan, Mohammad Hashim Kamali, 2005 Examines the role relevance and challenges as well as the political and strategic dimensions of Islam in contemporary Southeast Asia

Southeast Asian Education in Modern History Pia Jolliffe, Thomas Bruce, 2018-10-30 How particular has Southeast Asia's experience of educational development been and has this led to an identifiably distinct Southeast Asian approach to the provision of education Inquiry into these questions has significant consequences for our understanding of the current state of education in Southeast Asia and the challenges it has inherited This book contributes to a better understanding of the experience of educational development in Southeast Asia by presenting a collection of micro historical studies on the subject of education policy and practice in the region from the emergence of modern education to the end of the twentieth century The chapters fathom the extent to which contest over educational content in schools has occurred and establish the socio cultural political and economic bases upon which these contestations have taken place and the ways in which those forces have played out in the classrooms In doing so the book conveys a sense of the extent to which modern forms of education have been both facilitated and shaped by the region's specific configurations its unique demographic religious social environmental economic and political context Conversely they also provide examples of the sorts of obstacles that have prevented education making as full an impact on the region's recent modern transformation as might have been hoped or expected This book will be of interest to academics in the field of Southeast Asian Studies Asian Studies education nationalism and history Hamka and Islam Khairudin Aljunied, 2018-09-15 Since the early twentieth century Muslim reformers have been campaigning for a total transformation of the ways in which Islam is imagined in the Malay world One of the most influential is the author Haji Abdul Malik bin Abdul Karim Amrullah commonly known as Hamka In Hamka and Islam Khairudin Aljunied employs the term cosmopolitan reform to describe Hamka's attempt to harmonize the many streams of Islamic and Western thought while posing solutions to the various challenges facing Muslims Among the major themes Aljunied explores are reason and revelation moderation and extremism social justice the state of women in society and Sufism in the modern age as well as the importance of history in reforming the minds of modern Muslims Aljunied argues that Hamka demonstrated intellectual openness and inclusiveness toward a whole range of thoughts and philosophies to develop his own vocabulary of reform attesting to Hamka's unique ability to function as a conduit for competing Islamic and secular groups Hamka and Islam pushes the boundaries of the expanding literature on Muslim reformism and reformist thinkers by grounding its analysis within the Malay experience and by using the concept of cosmopolitan reform in a new context The Minority Muslim Experience in Mainland Southeast Asia John Goodman, 2021-07-14 This book examines the lives of the Malay and Cham Muslims in Thailand Cambodia and Vietnam and examines how they co exist and live in societies that are dominated by an alternative consensus and are illiberal and non democratic in nature Focusing on two major Muslim communities in Southeast Asia both of whom live as minorities in societies that are not democratic and have a history of hostility and repression towards non conforming ideas the book explains their circumstances the choices and life decisions they have to make and how minorities can thrive in an unfriendly monocultural environment Based on original field work and research the author analyses how people live and how they adapt to societies which are not motivated by Western liberal ideals of multiculturalism The book also offers a unique perspective on how Islam develops in an environment where it is seen as alien and disloyal A useful contribution analyzing historical and post colonial experiences of Muslim minorities and how they survive and evolve over the course of state monopoly in mainland Southeast Asia this book will be of interest to academics working on Muslim minorities Asian Religion and Southeast Asian Studies Routledge

Handbook of Islam in Southeast Asia Syed Muhammad Khairudin Aljunied, 2022-03-03 This handbook explores the ways in which Islam as one of the fastest growing religions has become a global faith for both Muslims and non Muslims in Southeast Asia with its universality inclusivity and shared features with other Islamic expressions and manifestations It offers an up to date wide ranging comprehensive concise and readable introduction to the field of Islam in Southeast Asia With specific themes of pertinent contemporary relevance the contributions by experts in the field provide fresh insights into the roles of states societies scholars social movements political parties economic institutions sacred sites and other forces that structured the faith over many centuries The handbook is structured in three parts Muslim Global Circulations Marginal Narratives Refashioning Pieties This handbook stands out as a single and synergistic reference work that explores the ebb and flow of Islam seeking to decenter many existing assumptions about it in Southeast Asia It will be an indispensable resource for scholars students and policymakers working on Islam Muslims and their interactions with other communities in a plural setting Indonesians and Their Arab World Mirjam Lücking, 2021-01-15 Indonesians and Their Arab World explores the ways contemporary Indonesians understand their relationship to the Arab world Despite being home to the largest Muslim population in the world Indonesia exists on the periphery of an Islamic world centered around the Arabian Peninsula Mirjam Lücking approaches the problem of interpreting the current conservative turn in Indonesian Islam by considering the ways personal relationships public discourse and matters of religious self understanding guide two groups of Indonesians who actually travel to the Arabian Peninsula labor migrants and Mecca pilgrims in becoming physically mobile and making their mobility meaningful This concept which Lücking calls guided mobility reveals that changes in Indonesian Islamic traditions are grounded in domestic social constellations and calls claims of outward Arab influence in Indonesia into question With three levels of comparison urban and rural areas Madura and Central Java and migrants and pilgrims this ethnographic case study foregrounds how different regional and socioeconomic contexts determine Indonesians various engagements with the Arab world Shari'a and Politics in Modern Indonesia Arskal Salim,Azyumardi Azra,2003 After the fall of President Soeharto there have been heightened attempts by certain groups of Muslims to have sharia Islamic law implemented by the state Even though this burning issue is not new it has further divided Indonesian Muslims The introduction of Islamic law would also affect the future of multi cultural and multi religious Indonesia So far however the introduction of sharia nationwide has been opposed by the majority of Indonesian Muslims This book gives an overview of sharia from post Independence in 1945 to the most recent developments in Indonesia at the start of the new millennium

Navigating Religious Authority in Muslim Societies Asif Mohiuddin,2023-11-09 Globalisation stands as an indispensable lens through which to analyse current cultural political and social transformations This prevailing paradigm acknowledged by its advocates and critics profoundly shapes our environment Within this global landscape Islam s position is noteworthy often perceived as rejecting globalisation and its secular underpinnings This book offers a perspective of the global resurgence of religion in general and the revival of Islam in particular as crucial features of globalisation Furthermore the book deeply explores how Islamist groups strategically challenge religious authority utilising social media and the internet to reshape their spheres of influence By exploring these dynamics the book aims to provide comprehensive insights into the interplay between Islamist strategies digital platforms and religious institutions within our interconnected world The Politics of Religion, Nationalism, and Identity in Asia Jeff Kingston,2019-07-30 This comprehensive book provides a comparative analysis of religious nationalism in contemporary globalized Asia Exploring the nexus of religion identity and nationalism Jeff Kingston assesses similarities and differences across the region focusing on how religious sentiments influence how people embrace nationalism and with what consequences Kingston shows that in the age of the internet this has become an especially volatile mix that breeds violence and poses a significant risk to secularism diversity civil liberties democracy and political stability This extremist tide has swept across Asia with tragic results as witnessed by 730 000 Rohingya Muslims driven out of Myanmar 70 000 Kashmiris slaughtered in India and Islamic State affiliates terrorizing Bangladesh Indonesia the Philippines and Sri Lanka Who could have imagined Buddhist monks inciting violence and intolerance or setting themselves on fire Or pious vigilantes beheading atheist bloggers Or clerics defeating and jailing powerful politicians on blasphemy allegations And what explains why one million Uighur Muslims are locked up in China Examining the causes and consequences of these varied phenomena and what they portend Kingston casts a sobering light on the prospects of the Asian Century Environmental and Climate Change in South and Southeast Asia ,2014-08-07 Based on pioneering research this volume on South and Southeast Asia offers a cultural studies perspective on the vast and largely uncharted domain of how local cultures are coping with climate changes and environmental crises The primary focus is on three countries that have high emission rates India Indonesia and Thailand Whereas the dominant discourse on climate largely reflects the view of Western cultures this volume adds indigenous views and practices that provide insight into Hindu Buddhist and Islamic responses Making use of textual materials fieldwork and analyses it highlights the close links between climate solutions forms of knowledge and the various socio cultural and political practices and agencies within societies The volume demonstrates that climate is global and plural Contributors are Monika Arnez Somnath Batabyal Joachim Betz Susan M Darlington Dennis Eucker R diger Haum Albertina Nugteren Marcus N sser Ravi Baghel Martin Seeger and Janice Stargardt

Writing Southeast Asian Security Jennifer Mustapha, 2019-01-10 This book is a critical analysis of how the discursive and material practices of the War on Terror influenced security politics in Southeast Asia after 9 11 It explores how the US led War on Terror operating both as a set of material practices and as a larger discursive framework for security influenced the security of both state and non state actors in Southeast Asia after 9 11 Building on the author s own critical security studies approach which demands a historically and geographically contingent method of empirically grounded critique Writing Southeast Asian Security examines some of the unexpected effects that the discourses and practices of the War on Terror have had on the production of insecurity in the region The cases presented here demonstrate that forms of insecurity were constructed and or abetted by the War on Terror itself and often occurred in concert with the practices of traditional state centric security This work thus contributes to a larger critical project of revealing the violence intrinsic to the pursuit of security by states but also demonstrates pragmatic opportunities for a functioning politics of theorizing security This book will be of much interest to students of critical terrorism studies critical security studies East Asian and Southeast Asian politics US foreign policy and IR in general

The Palgrave Handbook of Political Norms in Southeast Asia Gabriel Facal, Elsa Lafaye de Micheaux, Astrid Norén-Nilsson, 2024-06-07 This open access handbook aims to constitute a reference point on political norm dynamics in Southeast Asia by bringing together the array of normative repertoires that frame the possibilities for citizens to participate in set agendas for make decisions in and contest not only electoral and institutional politics but also informal and imaginary political spaces It sheds light on intersecting political and social transformations and their consequences from the vantage point of political norms While chapters lay out and analyse how political norms across Southeast Asia have been shaped in successive historical phases the core of the handbook addresses current dynamics involved in defining and transforming political norms

Power-sharing in the Divided Asian Societies Adam W. Jelonek, 2023-05-15 Many countries in Asia are inhabited by multi segment societies diversified in terms of race religion language and economic status They have repeatedly provided the basis for analysis of the search for consensus in the construction of a political scene that would ensure the participation in power of each group Regardless of the chosen model the distribution of power in multi segment societies has always been characterized by a state of unstable equilibrium Practical solutions constantly evolved between consociationalism centripetalism federalism In extreme cases they led to political disintegration of states or to permanent domination of one of the segments most often based on authoritarian solutions In this volume a group of scholars specializing in countries of the region try to point out the dynamics of the unstable equilibrium of power sharing in particular Asian countries and analyze the trends occurring in them in the 21st century

Society and Democracy in South Korea and Indonesia Brendan Howe,2022-09-03 This book is divided into three sections comprised of pairs of chapters First a section examining how Confucianism interacts with democratic resilience in South Korea compared with the societal role and challenge of Islam in Indonesian democracy The second section will conduct brief historical surveys of the role of civil society role in Korean and Indonesian democratization and debates about the appropriate role for civil society after democratization In particular the various roles of civil society non governmental organizations NGOs and popular movements will be highlighted in both countries The final section looks at socio economic conditions and distributive justice in relation to democracy in the Republic of Korea ROK and Indonesia

Mediating Islam Janet Steele,2018-03-15 Broadening an overly narrow definition of Islamic journalism Janet Steele examines day to day reporting practices of Muslim professionals from conservative scripturalists to pluralist cosmopolitans at five exemplary news organizations in Malaysia and Indonesia At Sabili established as an underground publication journalists are hired for their ability at dakwah or Islamic propagation At Tempo a news magazine banned during the Soeharto regime and considered progressive many see their work as a manifestation of worship but the publication itself is not considered Islamic At Harakah reporters support an Islamic political party while at Republika they practice a journalism of the Prophet and see Islam as a market niche Other news organizations too such as Malaysiakini employ Muslim journalists Steele a longtime scholar of the region explores how these publications observe universal principles of journalism through an Islamic idiom
