Southern Cross The Dog:

Southern Cross the Dog Bill Cheng, 2013 As the Great Flood of 1927 bursts the levees of Mississippi and sweeps away rural homes eight year old Robert Chatham is separated from his parents and his friends Dora and GD He is entirely alone Robert s adventures through the brooding swamplands from the infamous brothel at the Hotel Beau Miel to imprisonment by hunters are full of danger endurance and courage And as the days roll into years this small lost boy becomes a young tough man At the edge of his vision following him everywhere is the black dog of melancholy But there is love too and brutal beauty and at last at the tender age of twenty a kind of homecoming This astonishing debut novel is epic in every sense Inspired by the delta blues it builds against a landscape of myth and menace a story of loss tenacity and great humanity that will resonate everywhere

Where Southern Cross the Dog Allen Whitley, 2010 In the late 1930s Jim Crow walked unopposed in Mississippi and Europe was preparing for war But even though an ocean apart the threads of hate and fear bound them together Set in Clarksdale Mississippi Where Southern Cross the Dog begins with the tragic slaying of a day laborer and the chance meeting of its two main characters Travis Montgomery a new graduate of Millsaps College and Hannah Morgan a young educated affluent African American woman who returns to the South to assist her ailing grandmother As their initial wariness turns to friendship and then romance Travis and Hannah unravel the secrets behind the murder which include a conspiracy that runs from Clarksdale to pre war Europe

Nature as Resource, Aesthetic Experience, and Ecological Challenge Herta Nagl-Docekal,Maria Löschnigg,2025-12-14 Approaching concepts of nature through a multidisciplinary lens Nature as Resource Aesthetic Experience and Ecological Challenge assembles essays by scholars from the Americas Africa and Europe Bringing together perspectives in philosophy theology literary studies cultural ecology art history and the bio sciences the volume engages with crucial concerns regarding perceptions of nature in the Anthropocene and the increasing social and ethnic inequalities in the wake of environmental damage The essays address aesthetic and ethical questions about nature providing novel perspectives on representations of nature in literature and the visual and performative arts They investigate nature as threatened by human interference and resulting issues of social justice and they explore the potential of decolonial approaches to nature The volume treads new ground by combining expertise from a wide spectrum of research fields and cultural backgrounds with the aim of fostering the development of new ethical principles and ways of planetary thinking It thus adds an innovative perspective to existing discourses on ecologically sustainable forms of coexistence between human and nonhuman or more than human nature

Sentient Flesh R. A. Judy, 2020-10-02 In Sentient Flesh R A

Judy takes up freedman Tom Windham's 1937 remark we should have our liberty cause us is human flesh as a point of departure for an extended meditation on questions of the human epistemology and the historical ways in which the black being is understood Drawing on numerous fields from literary theory and musicology to political theory and phenomenology as well as Greek and Arabic philosophy Judy engages literary texts and performative practices such as music and dance that express knowledge and conceptions of humanity appositional to those grounding modern racialized capitalism Operating as critiques of Western humanism these practices and modes of being in the world which he theorizes as thinking in disorder or poesis in black foreground the irreducible concomitance of flesh thinking and personhood As Judy demonstrates recognizing this concomitance is central to finding a way past the destructive force of ontology that still holds us in thrall Erudite and capacious Sentient Flesh offers a major intervention in the black study of life

The Past as Present in the Drama of August Wilson Harry Justin Elam, 2009-05-21 Pulitzer prizewinning playwright August Wilson author of Fences Ma Rainey's Black Bottom and The Piano Lesson among other dramatic works is one of the most well respected American playwrights on the contemporary stage The founder of the Black Horizon Theater Company his self defined dramatic project is to review twentieth century African American history by creating a play for each decade Theater scholar and critic Harry J Elam examines Wilson's published plays within the context of contemporary African American literature and in relation to concepts of memory and history culture and resistance race and representation Elam finds that each of Wilson's plays recaptures narratives lost ignored or avoided to create a new experience of the past that questions the historical categories of race and the meanings of blackness Harry J Elam Jr is Professor of Drama at Stanford University and author of Taking It to the Streets The Social Protest Theater of Luis Valdez and Amiri Baraka The University of Michigan Press
