Illusions of Location Theory: Consequences for Blue Economy in Africa Francis Onditi, Douglas Yates, 2021-01-05 Illusions of Location Theory Consequences for Blue Economy in Africa questions the relevance of location theory in explaining the coastal hinterland continuum and the implications for the utilization of blue economy ecosystem in such a contested space in Africa It pays more attention to territorial contestations maritime disputes vulnerabilities of landlocked states and expansionist policies as displayed through spatial organizational regimes These areas of investigation have previously been largely studied from the narrow perspective of location unduly focusing on comparative advantages of distance while neglecting the influence of forces such as technology ideology and the power of mental mapping in spatial decision making This volume puts forward the argument that the harmonious relationship between states and efficient exploitation of the blue economy ecosystem in ways that promote peace between states lies not only in the structural transformation of markets but also in bridging the spatial and social divide between the coastal and hinterland societies. Thus this work proffers possibilities for a holistic regime for managing Africa's coastal hinterland continuum through innovative strategies such as SMART blue economies and the infusion of the geopolitical dimension into the management of maritime and territorial diplomacy. The combination of theoretical and empirical analysis buttressed by in depth case studies of what works in the management of blue economy ecosystem and what does not work make this volume ideal for researchers students and practitioners interested in African regional studies African political economy political geography strategic military studies governance of seas and oceans and maritime science diplomacy

The Eastern Fleet and the Indian Ocean, 1942-1944 Charles Stephenson, 2022-04-06 A study of the British Royal Navy's activities in the Indian Ocean during World War II led by Admiral Sir James Somerville The story of the British Eastern Fleet which operated in the Indian Ocean against Japan has rarely been told Although it was the largest fleet deployed by the Royal Navy prior to 1945 and played a vital part in the theatre it was sent to protect it has no place in the popular consciousness of the naval history of the Second World War So Charles Stephenson's deeply researched and absorbing narrative gives this forgotten fleet the recognition it deserves British pre war naval planning for the Far East is part of the story as is the disastrous loss of the battleship Prince of Wales and battlecruiser Repulse in 1941 but the body of the book focuses on the new fleet commanded by Admiral Sir James Somerville and its operations against the Japanese navy and aircraft as well as Japanese and German submarines Later in the war once the fleet had been reinforced with an American aircraft carrier it was strong enough to take more aggressive actions against the Japanese and these are described in vivid detail Charles Stephenson's authoritative study should appeal to readers who have a special interest in the war with Japan in naval history more generally and Royal Navy in particular Praise for The Eastern Fleet and the Indian Ocean 1942 1944 This meticulously researched outstandingly clear well written and absorbing account is long overdue and will most likely become a standard work The text is most helpfully supported by over 80 pages of detailed end notes referenced to each chapter and a detailed index This is not only a book for naval historians but also for anyone with an interest in the War in the Indian Ocean region Highly recommended Military Historical Society I enjoyed this book it gives us an account of an often neglected part of the war at sea and of the achievements of Admiral Somerville who kept his fleet intact in the face of a potentially overwhelming opponent then was willing to acknowledge that his fleet needed to improve massively before it could take on the Japanese Dr John Rickard author and webmaster of the Military History Encyclopedia on the Web
