MultiCultural Review, 2005 The Chicano Index, 1992 Borderland Mujeres Julieta Corpus, Katherine Hoerth, 2020-11-15 Borderland Mujeres a collaborative bilingual conversation in poetry and art depicts the multifaceted experiences of women living in the borderlands of deep south Texas In this fraught political climate much has been written about the U S Mexico border but what about the people who call this place home Three women each with a different relationship to the borderlands offer their vision of the cultural linguistic and ecological landscape of a complex region that is full of both majestic beauty and stark reality The resulting poems and images explore what it means to be a woman in this contested space and hopes to spark questions and conversation about identity feminisms and the idea of cross cultural and cross genre collaboration Borderland Mujeres was created through a feminist collaborative process In some instances the images inspired the poems In others the poems inspired the images Many pieces were born from conversations between the three women about everyday life The process illustrates the complex relationship between languages translation and transference This project is an example of how permeable borders can be even in our fraught political landscape that seeks
