EXECUTORS OF CRUDEN v NEALE Superior Court of North Carolina May 1 1796 When a change of government takes place from a monarchical to a republican government the old form is dissolved Those who lived under it and did not choose to become members of the new had a right to refuse their allegiance to it and to retire elsewhere By being a part of the society

subject to the old government they had not entered into any engagement to become subject to any new form the majority might think proper to adopt That the majority shall prevail is a rule posterior to the formation of government and results from it It is not a rule binding upon mankind in their natural state There every man is independent of all laws except those prescribed by nature
