Planet of Slums Mike Davis, 2007-09-17 The profound brilliant account of the rise of the world s slums and the failures of modern urbanization by the world s leading urbanist Arundhati Roy activist and Booker Prize winning author According to the United Nations more than one billion people now live in the slums of the cities of the South In this brilliant and ambitious book Mike Davis explores the future of a radically unequal and explosively unstable urban world From the sprawling barricadas of Lima to the garbage hills of Manila urbanization has been disconnected from industrialization and even from economic growth Davis portrays a vast humanity warehoused in shantytowns and exiled from the formal world economy He argues that the rise of this informal urban proletariat is a wholly unforeseen development and asks whether the great slums as a terrified Victorian middle class once imagined are volcanoes waiting to erupt

Integral Urbanism Nan Ellin, 2013-10-18 Integral Urbanism is an ambitious and forward looking theory of urbanism that offers a new model of urban life Nan Ellin s model stands as an antidote to the pervasive problems engendered by modern and postmodern urban planning and architecture sprawl anomie a pervasive culture and architecture of fear in cities and a disregard for environmental issues Instead of the reactive and escapist tendencies characterizing so much contemporary urban development Ellin champions an integral approach that reverses the fragmentation of our landscapes and lives through proactive design solutions

Remaking History Jerome De Groot, 2015-07-30 Remaking History considers the ways that historical fictions of all kinds enable a complex engagement with the past Popular historical texts including films television and novels along with cultural phenomena such as superheroes and vampires broker relationships to history while also enabling audiences to understand the ways in which the past is written structured and ordered Jerome de Groot uses examples from contemporary popular culture to show the relationship between fiction and history in two key ways Firstly the texts pedagogically contribute to the historical imaginary and secondly they allow reflection upon how the past is constructed as history In doing so they provide an accessible and engaging means to critique conceptualize and reject the processes of historical representation The book looks at the use of the past in fiction from sources including Mad Men Downton Abbey and Howard Brenton's Anne Boleyn along with the work of directors such as Terence Malick Quentin Tarantino and Martin Scorsese to show that fictional representations enable a comprehension of the fundamental strangeness of the past and the ways in which this foreign exotic other is constructed Drawing from popular films novels and TV series of recent years and engaging with key thinkers from Marx to Derrida Remaking History is a must for all students interested in the meaning that history has for fiction and vice versa The Publisher and Bookseller, 1928 Official organ of the book trade of the United Kingdom Managing Global Risks in the Urban Age Yee-Kuang

Heng, 2016-03-03 The first full length exposition of what it terms a global city global risks nexus this volume crosses disciplinary boundaries to draw upon research from Security Studies Geography Sociology and Urban Studies Innovative in its approach integrating theories about Global Cities with those positing a Global Risk Society Yee Kuang Heng positions this research in the midst of two concurrent global trends that will gain more significance in coming years The world is experiencing the consequences of not only rapid globalisation but also urbanization In 2008 the UN declared that more than half the world's population was now urban At the same time highly connected global cities like New York London Tokyo and Singapore also face rapidly spreading global risks such as pandemics and financial crises Unique in developing a typology of global risks that threaten a global city like Singapore beyond its Asian focus the book also draws out thematic and policy lessons pertinent to other global cities Global cities do not simply materialize They are dependent on a range of stakeholders at various levels that produce and re produce its command and control capabilities in the face of global risks Singapore's experiences managing global risks in the financial aviation and maritime domains are common concerns shared by many countries and cities that have or aspire to develop similar critical infrastructure The Bookman, 1898 Survey, 1917

The Survey, 1917 Annotating Modernism Amanda Golden, 2020-05-04 Making extensive use of archival materials by Sylvia Plath John Berryman and Anne Sexton Amanda Golden reframes the relationship between modernism and midcentury poetry While Golden situates her book among other materialist histories of modernism she moves beyond the examination of published works to address poets annotations in their personal copies of modernist texts A consideration of the dynamics of literary influence Annotating Modernism analyzes the teaching strategies of midcentury poets and the ways they read modernists like T S Eliot James Joyce Ezra Pound Virginia Woolf and W B Yeats Situated within a larger rethinking of modernism Golden's study illustrates the role of midcentury poets in shaping modernist discourse
