This book shows you how to manage your time whilst still providing healthy home-cooked meals for your growing family. Fill your freezer with portions of home-made ready meals for your hungry teenager. Dust off your slow cooker for those days when you are going to be tied up late at work. Use a pressure cooker for great meals in a fraction of the time. Fill your fridge with home-made pasta sauce for the quick and easy meal when you are tired and hungry. The emphasis of the whole book is on planning and making the most of all the time-saving appliances you have at your disposal in the kitchen. For example, whilst the Sunday roast is cooking, you fill the cooker with cakes and savouries to last you the week. The roast chicken leftovers are used to make a chicken pie, curry or stir fry. Make use of your freezer; it takes no more time to double up a recipe to make 2 or 3 extra portions, creating your own store of home-made ready meals. John Burton-Race - The Man, The Magic & The Mayhem Michael Cowton, 2020-03-20 A prodigious talent stalked by controversy, celebrity chef John Burton Race has always lived life on the edge and remains nothing if not pragmatic. I wear people down. I'm a bit of a basket case. Born in Singapore in 1957 to a British diplomat father, Burton Race helped the family chef while being exposed to global tastes and flavours that still influence his style of cooking. He worked under renowned chef Raymond Blanc at Le Manoir aux Quat Saisons and when Blanc opened Le Petit Blanc in Oxford, he turned to Burton Race to head the kitchen. Here the young aspiring chef would win his first Michelin star. Three years later he opened his own restaurant, L'Ortolan in Berkshire. Awarded two Michelin stars, the achievement was repeated in 2000 at John Burton Race Restaurant at London's Landmark Hotel. Television viewers, however, bore witness to his mercurial nature in the fly on the wall series French Leave and Return of the Chef and an appearance on I'm a Celebrity: Get Me Out of Here ended in disaster when his second wife closed his Devon restaurant while he was in the Australian bush. Possessed of an innate talent for self-destruction, John Burton Race is still driven, still complex, still controversial, still living life at 100 miles an hour. This is his story.
