change Striving to present a comprehensive study of climate perception in Africa and South Asia this volume presents seven in depth case studies from Cameroon the Eastern Himalayas Kenya Nepal and Zimbabwe In order to combat climate change effective communication is essential in order to educate persuade warn and mobilize the masses Therefore climate change communication is shaped not only by our different experiences and beliefs but also by the underlying cultural and politic values of a country Within this volume climate change communication is examined from Cameroonian Kenyan and Zimbabwean perspectives From the role of stakeholders to practical field experiences the individual case studies present an interesting and informative portrait of climate change communication It is often the poorest and most vulnerable people who are most affected by the impacts of climate change Therefore community based adaptation is an approach that is aimed at empowering communities in the process of planning for and coping with climate change In this book this progressive and innovative approach is examined from a grass roots perspective that looks to both the Eastern Himalayas and Zimbabwe Readers are presented with case studies that investigate the importance of indigenous knowledge community based research and the role of social workers in climate change mitigation This high quality resource puts forward a well informed and accessible discussion of climate change perception that will be of interest to both students and scholars alike Musical Observer ,1916

Law as an Artifact Luka Burazin,Kenneth Einar Himma,Corrado Roversi,2018-08-08 This volume assembles leading scholars to examine how their respective theoretical positions relate to the artifactual nature of law It offers a complete analysis of what is ontologically entailed by the claim that law including legal systems legal norms and legal institutions is an artifact and what consequences if any this claim has for philosophical accounts of law Examining the artifactual nature of law draws attention to the role that intention function and action play in the ontological structure of law and how these attributes interact with rules It puts the role of author and authorship at the center of its analysis of legal ontology and widens the scope that functional analysis can legitimately have in legal theory emphasizing how the content of law depends on how it is used Furthermore the appeal to artifacts brings to the fore questions about the significance of concepts for the existence of law and makes available new tools for legal interpretation The notion of artifactuality offers a starting point from which to approach the basic dilemma of whether it is meaningful to search for essential necessary and sufficient features of law a question that in current legal theory is put when deciding what kind of enterprise legal theory is from a methodological point of view namely whether it is descriptive or prescriptive This volume unearths insights and observations of value to all those looking to deepen their understanding of how the law is understood and experienced
