

THE NATIONAL HEALTH POLICY

The National Health Policy, 2017, is a landmark document that outlines the vision and strategy for the health system of India. It is a comprehensive policy that covers all aspects of health, from primary care to tertiary care, and from prevention to treatment. The policy is based on the principles of equity, accessibility, and quality, and it aims to achieve the following objectives:

- To ensure that all citizens have access to essential health services.
- To improve the quality of health services and ensure that they are safe, effective, and people-centred.
- To strengthen the health system and ensure that it is resilient and sustainable.
- To promote health and well-being, and to prevent and control non-communicable diseases (NCDs) and communicable diseases.
- To address the health needs of vulnerable populations, including the elderly, the disabled, and the poor.
