Writing Changes: Alphabetic Text and Multimodal Composition Pegeen Reichert Powell, 2020-04-01 Writing Changes moves beyond restrictive thinking about composition to examine writing as a material and social practice rich with contradictions It analyzes the assumed dichotomy between writing and multimodal composition which incorporates sounds images and gestures as well as the truism that all texts are multimodal Organized in four sections the essays explore alphabetic text and multimodal composition in writing studies specific pedagogies that place writing in productive conversation with multimodal forms current representations of writing and multimodality in textbooks of instructors attitudes toward social media and of writing programs ideas about writing studies as a discipline in the light of new communication practices Bookending the essays are an introduction that frames the collection and establishes key terms and concepts and an epilogue that both sums up and complicates the ideas in the essays Stronger Writing Skills for Teens Gregory Berry, 2018-08-16 Stronger Writing Skills for Teens offers middle and high school teachers strategies techniques and materials for teaching adolescent writing in a variety of modes A practical and useful resource for classroom teachers the book focuses on quality writing instruction within the modes of writing as defined by Common Core State Standards Examples of student work are included to illustrate effectively designed assignments and strategies for writing and revising It includes methods for teaching vocabulary and academic language to help students improve word choice and use of language in their writing Tools for assessing and grading student writing are also included as well as suggestions and resources for effectively using writing rubrics and scoring guides Narrative expository explanatory argument and research writing are discussed with specific strategies suggested materials and ways to approach the modes Teachers will also find suggestions for helping students learn to incorporate multimodal text into their writing and successfully write in digital contexts as well as methods for helping students master timed and on demand writing Illuminating and Advancing the Path for Mathematical Writing Research Colonnese, Madelyn W., Casa, Tutita M., Cardetti, Fabiana, 2023-11-20 Mathematical writing is essential for students math learning but it is often underutilized due to unclear guidelines Mathematical writing is a mode of communication that provides teachers access to their students thinking and importantly offers students an opportunity to deepen their mathematical understanding engage in mathematical reasoning and learn a fundamental way to communicate mathematically Notably one needs to be able to judiciously combine mathematical symbols representations and text However more research is needed to exemplify the qualities of mathematical writing develop implementation methods and support teachers Illuminating and Advancing the Path for Mathematical Writing Research is a necessary comprehensive resource designed to enhance mathematical writing and promote equitable learning This research book provides a comprehensive understanding of the current state of mathematical writing and illuminates various perspectives on moving the teaching and learning of K-12 mathematical writing forward Mathematical writing is an important yet underutilized component of mathematical discourse and this book offers further insight into understanding what it means to write mathematically for mathematics educators and researchers. It informs with research-based implementation strategies and creates purposeful professional learning opportunities. Ultimately, K-12 students will benefit from a more informed field because they will have access to a vital mode of mathematical reasoning and communication.

The Reading Teacher's Book of Lists Jacqueline E. Kress, Edward B. Fry, 2015-09-28 The essential handbook for reading teachers now aligned with the Common Core. The Reading Teacher's Book of Lists is the definitive instructional resource for anyone who teaches reading or works in a K-12 English language arts-related field. Newly revised and ready for instant application, this top seller provides up-to-date reading, writing, and language content in more than 240 lists for developing targeted instruction, plus section briefs linking content to research-based teaching practices. This new sixth edition includes a guide that maps the lists to specific Common Core standards for easy lesson planning and features fifty brand-new lists on academic and domain-specific vocabulary, foundation skills, rhyming words, second language development, context clues, and more. This edition also includes an expanded writing section that covers registers, signal and transition words, and writers' craft. Brimming with practical examples, key words, teaching ideas, and activities that can be used as is or adapted to students' needs, these lists are ready to differentiate instruction for an individual student, small group, or planning multilevel instruction for your whole class. Reading is the center of all school curricula due to recent state and federal initiatives including rigorous standards and new assessments. This book allows you to skip years of curating content and dive right into the classroom armed with smart, relevant, and effective plans. Develop focused learning materials quickly and easily. Create unit-specific Common Core-aligned lesson plans. Link classroom practice to key research in reading, language arts, and learning. Adapt ready-made ideas to any classroom or level. It's more important than ever for students to have access to quality literacy instruction. Timely, up-to-date, and distinctively smart, The Reading Teacher's Book of Lists should be on every English language arts teacher's desk, librarian's shelf, literacy coach's resource list, and reading professor's radar.

Custom Guide to Writing, 2005

Understanding the Math You Teach Anita C. Burris, 2005 Teaching strategies are grounded in the NCTM standards and illustrated with real student work. In addition, the author provides a full range of concrete developmental activities that encourage future teachers to make math make sense for themselves as well as for their students. Believing that teachers who are comfortable with mathematics develop learners who are comfortable with mathematics, this author empowers preservice pre-K-4 teachers to teach math confidently by laying a solid foundation of math concepts and building on that foundation with engaging, meaningful, standards-based teaching methods. Integrated in this unique combined approach to teaching mathematics is a thorough discussion of math manipulatives as well as the use of technology, computer, and otherwise to assist today's mathematics teacher. For educators, aides, and parents responsible for teaching Pre-K to fourth-grade math.
