Challenging the Representation of Ethnically Divided Cities Giulia Carabelli, Aleksandra Djurasovic, Renata Summa, 2021-05-24 The book Challenging the Representation of Ethnically Divided Cities Perspectives from Mostar questions the existing overrepresentation of Mostar as an ethnically divided city While acknowledging the existence of internal borders the chapters in this book assert that they are not solid nor fixed and by exploring how they become material or immaterial the book offers a deeper understanding of the city s complex dynamics Accordingly the chapters in this book are attentive to how ethnic divides materialise or lose importance because of socio political contingencies Events groups and spaces that promote reconciliation from the bottom up are examined not necessarily to assess their success and failures but rather to look at how they create networks gain trust and form platforms that generate novel understandings of ethnic loyalties and party memberships Further and drawing both on the empirical data and theoretical reflections this volume contributes to broader debates about divided cities by suggesting the need to engage with these cities in their complexities rather than reducing them to their ethno national divisions The book engages with socio political and economic complexities in order to shed light on how ethnic conflicts and resulting spatial partitioning are often just the surface of much more complex dynamics that are far less easy to disentangle and represent The chapters in this book were originally published in Space and Polity

From Hope to Action through Knowledge Ramesh Bharuthram, Larry Pokpas, 2020-10-27 Its November 2001 A university in dire straits financially bankrupt burdening a debt in excess of R100 million a disillusioned and demoralised staff complement still reeling from the trauma of retrenchments coupled with an academic project facing collapse as student numbers dwindle by a third to less than 10 000 Is there a future for such an institution described by some as a basket case with very bleak prospects of survival This was the landscape that confronted the newly appointed Vice Chancellor and Chief Executive Officer CEO of the University of the Western Cape Fast forward to December 2014 The CEO retires from office bestowing upon his successor a financially sound institution with a flourishing academic project recording unprecedented achievements enriching the lives of more than 20 000 students and widely acknowledged as a research led university This book narrates how visionary leadership with the steadfast belief that your past does not determine your future galvanised an entire organisation into believing that a better outcome was indeed achievable and the will to move forward as a collective with a redefined purpose and commitment to achieve that which was once deemed impossible

Transformation of Archives and Heritage Education in Post-apartheid South Africa Geraldine Frieslaar, Olusegun Morakinyo, 2023-06-10 Although there have been significant strides to transform the demographics of archive and museum personnel develop new museums and heritage institutions and heritage training initiatives in post apartheid South Africa the Eurocentric model of the archive museum and heritage sector has largely remained intact Despite the euphoria around the transformation of heritage in the beginnings of post apartheid South Africa it can be argued that the transformation of heritage institutions has been superficial and cosmetic with the ideological foundation of the colonial archive and museum as well as Eurocentric modalities of heritage education remaining solid largely unmoved and under continuing challenge This is the thrust of this book which reflects on the transformation of archives and museum and heritage education in South Africa and argues for meaningful transformation of the sector through a decolonisation from its Eurocentric mooring

The Attempted Erasure of the Khoekhoe and San Jacob Cloete,2023-11-22

The Attempted Erasure of the Khoekhoe and San delves into the complex issue of problematic coloured identity and the ongoing erasure of the Khoekhoe and San people in South Africa Despite the end of apartheid this erasure continues to persist today starting as far back as 1652 There were two types of erasure that took place genocide and bureaucratic While the former is acknowledged by President Thabo Mbeki in his I Am an African speech the latter began in 1828 with Ordinance 50 in the Cape Colony From this point the Khoekhoe and San were bureaucratically erased culminating in the 1950 Population Registration Act Despite these attempts the Khoekhoe and San people resisted and fought for their identity resulting in their continued existence in the present day This book documents their painful journey highlighting their struggles against subjugation and erasure since 1652

Multilingual Youth Practices in Computer Mediated Communication Cecelia Cutler,Unn Røyneland,2018-09-20 With an eye to the playful reflexive self conscious ways in which global youth engage with each other online this volume analyzes user generated data from these interactions to show how communication technologies and multilingual resources are deployed to project local as well as trans local orientations With examples from a range of multilingual settings each author explores how youth exploit the creative heteroglossic potential of their linguistic repertoires from rudimentary attempts to engage with others in a second language to hybrid multilingual practices Often their linguistic orthographic and stylistic choices challenge linguistic purity and prescriptive correctness yet in other cases their utterances constitute language policing linking standardness or correctness to piety trans local affiliation or national belonging Written for advanced undergraduates postgraduates and researchers in linguistics applied linguistics education and media and communication studies this volume is a timely and readymade resource for researching online multilingualism with a range of methodologies and perspectives

Entangled Discourses Caroline Kerfoot,Kenneth Hyltenstam,2017-01-20 This book uniquely explores the shifting structures of power and unexpected points of intersection entanglements at the nexus of North and South as a lens through which to examine the impact of global and local circuits of people practices and ideas on linguistic cultural and knowledge systems The volume considers the entanglement of North and South on multiple levels in the contemporary and continuing effects of capitalism colonialism and imperialism in the form of silenced or marginalized populations such as refugees immigrants and other minoritised groups and in the different orders of visibility that make some types of practices and knowledge more legitimate and therefore more visible It uses a range of methodological and analytical frames to shed light on less visible histories practices identities repertoires and literacies and offer new understandings for research and for language health care education and other policies and practices The book brings together an exciting mix of voices of both established and new scholars in multilingualism and diversity from a range of social political and historical contexts and provides coverage of areas previously underrepresented in current research on multilingualism globalization and mobility including Brazil South Africa Australia East Timor Wallis and Mayotte Cape Verde and Guinea Bissau This volume is key reading for scholars researchers and graduate students in multilingualism globalisation sociolinguistics mobility and development studies applied linguistics and language and education policy Chapter 2 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license

Academic Biliteracies David M. Palfreyman, Christa van der Walt, 2017-03-02 Research on academic literacy within higher education has focused almost exclusively on the development of academic literacy in English This book is unique in showing how students use other languages when they engage with written academic content whether in reading discussing or writing and how increasingly multilingual higher education campuses open up the possibility for students to exploit their multilingual repertoires in and around reading writing for academic purposes Chapters range from cases of informal student use of different written languages to pedagogical institutional and disciplinary strategies leveraging multilingual resources to develop biliteracy They are ordered according to two dominant themes The first includes accounts of diverse multilingual contexts where biliteracy practices emerge in response to the demands of academic reading and writing The second theme focuses on more deliberate attempts to teach biliteracy or to teach in a way that supports biliteracy The collection will be of interest to researchers higher education practitioners and students of multilingual higher education and academic literacy

Dear Comrade President

André Odendaal, 2022-08-01 In his annual presidential address on 8 January 1986 ANC president Oliver Tambo called on South Africans to make apartheid ungovernable through armed action and militant struggle But unknown to the world on that very day the quiet spoken mathematics teacher and aspirant priest turned reluctant revolutionary had also set up a secret think tank in Lusaka which he named the Constitution Committee giving it an ad hoc unique exercise that had no precedent in the history of the movement Knowing that all wars end at a negotiating table and judging the balance of forces to be moving in favour of the liberation movement Tambo wanted the ANC to hold the initiative after the fall of apartheid Assisted by Pallo Jordan he instructed his new think tank to formulate the principles and draft the outlines of a constitution that could unite South Africa when the time came to talk in the fledgling days of freedom and democracy The seven member team including Albie Sachs Kader Asmal and Zola Skweyiya started deliberating and reporting to Tambo In correspondence

they typically addressed him as Dear Comrade President Drawing on the personal archives of participants Dear Comrade President explains how the purposeful first steps were taken in the making of South Africa's Constitution Why and how did this process happen What were the first written words When and where were they put on paper By whom What values did they espouse And how did the committee's work fit into the broader struggle This book answers these questions in new paradigm shifting ways

Beyond the Information Commons Charles Forrest, Martin Halbert, 2020-08-22 In the closing decades of the twentieth century academic libraries responded to rapid changes in their environment by acquiring and making accessible a host of new information resources developing innovative new services and collaborative partnerships and building new kinds of technology equipped spaces to support changing user behaviors and emerging patterns of learning The Information Commons or InfoCommons blossomed in a relatively short amount of time in libraries across North America and around the world particularly in Europe and the British Commonwealth This book is more than a second edition of the 2009 book A Field Guide to the Information Commons which documented the emergence of a range of facilities and service programs that called themselves Information Commons This new book updates this review of current practice in the Information Commons and other new kinds of facilities inspired by the same needs and intents but goes beyond that by describing the continued evolution This new book is an attempt to answer the question What might be the next emerging concept for a technology enabled user responsive mission driven form of the academic library Like its predecessor Beyond the Information Commons is structured in two parts First a brief series of essays explore the Information Commons from historical organizational technological and architectural perspectives The second part is a field guide composed of more than two dozen representative entries describing various Information Commons using a consistent format that provides both perspective on issues and useful details about actual implementations Each of these includes photos and other graphics

The Responsive University and the Crisis in South Africa, 2021-05-31 Around the world higher education is faced with a fundamental question what is the basis for our claim of societal legitimacy In this book the authors go beyond the classical response regarding teaching research and community engagement Instead the editor puts forward the proposition that the answer lies in responsiveness the extent to which universities respond or fail to respond to societal challenges Moreover because of its intractable legacy issues and crisis of inequality the question regarding the societal legitimacy of universities is particularly clearly manifested in South Africa one of the most unequal countries in the world The Responsive University brings together contributions on the issue of responsiveness from a number of international university leaders half of them specifically addressing the South African situation within the context of the international situation as presented by the other authors In the global discussion about the role of universities in society this book provides a conceptual framework for a way forward
