Africa and Globalization Kelebogile T. Setiloane, Abdul Karim Bangura, 2020-10-24 This edited volume examines the challenges of globalization in light of the need to revisit and reconceptualize the notion of Pan Africanism The first part of the book examines globalization and Africa s socioeconomic and political development in this century by using the Diopian Pluridisciplinary Methodology This approach is imperative because the challenges faced by Africa vis vis globalization and socioeconomic development are so multiplexed that no single disciplinary approach can adequately analyze them and yield substantive policy recommendations The chapters in the second part analyze the imperatives for Africa s global knowledge production development and economic transformation in the face of the pressures of globalization Part two demonstrates an urgent need for Africa s significant participation in the global knowledge economy in order to meet the continent s modern transformation and development aspirations The final part examines lessons from old and new Pan Africanism and how they can be utilized to deal with the challenges emanating from the forces of modern globalization With its multidisciplinary approach to a wide range of pressing modern issues for the African content this book is essential reading for scholars across the social sciences interested in where Africa is now and where it should go in this increasingly globalized world

Deanship in the Global South Oliver J.J. Seale,2021-02-08 The university today is a postmodern neo liberal competitive boundary less knowledge conglomerate a far cry from its historical traditional classical and collegial roots There is a body of literature on deanship that points to its evolving nature in the contemporary academe characterised by complexity and change Balancing academic demands simultaneously with the requirements for effective performance leadership and management lies at the heart of this very challenging bridging role nowadays Deans are generally former academics emerging from a traditional collegial space and often catapulted into the relatively unknown domain of executive management with its related problems Deans nowadays are required to be more than collegial intellectual leaders They are also meant to be fiscal and human resource experts fundraisers politicians and diplomats Deanship in the Global South Bridging Troubled Waters is about the deans lived reality as they try to balance the demands of both the academe from which they emerge and the administration to whom they now need to account Their lack of preparation and inadequate support points to the need for a more strategic integrated approach to leadership development within their critical bridging roles between the academe and administration

G20 Entrepreneurship Services Report Jian Gao, Ruitao Jia, Qing Su, 2022-01-05 This book focuses on the progress of G20 members on entrepreneurship services since the G20 Entrepreneurship Action Plan was issued at the G20 Hangzhou Summit in China. The authors analyse the similarities and differences of policy measures taken by G20 members from five aspects of entrepreneurship services: government services, fiscal and financial supports, entrepreneur services, entrepreneurship education, and fair competition for SMEs. The book aims to bridge academic research with the multilevel and diverse practice in entrepreneurial activities and explores how national policies and conditions can promote entrepreneurship among G20 members. This book will inspire the policy makers, stakeholders in the entrepreneurship ecosystems, and scholars on entrepreneurship research as well on how to promote the entrepreneurship as an effective way to stimulate employment growth, boost innovation, development, and realize economic recovery in the post COVID 19 era.

Critical Perspectives on Work-Integrated Learning in Higher Education Institutions Nirmala Dorasamy, Renitha Rampersad, 2018-11-30 Governments around the world are committed to enhancing students' graduateness. Work integrated learning (WIL) is one of the many programmes which Higher Education Institutions (HEIs) can develop to promote this facet of student life. The incorporation of work integrated learning in curriculum design and development can produce reciprocal benefits for students, workplaces, professions, and communities. Any curriculum design and development endeavour relating to WIL requires appropriate resources to support curriculum development. This book serves to explore WIL programmes and experiences for the student, WIL coordinator, and supervisor. It further integrates practical, relevant, and reflective industry experience within the higher education curriculum to enhance student development. WIL has no uniform or specific framework or approaches since it is an emerging field and is generally influenced by contextual factors. In view of the diversity in theory and practice and different purposes, whether pragmatic or practical, driving the adoption of one approach over another, this book highlights the diverse approaches that encapsulate WIL in South Africa.

Plant Genetic Resources, Inventory, Collection and Conservation Siva Ramamoorthy, Inocencio Jr. Buot, Rajasekaran Chandrasekaran, 2022-06-22 This edited book deals with plant genetic resources and their status, availability, and ecological niche in natural habitat. Usage and conservation practices followed by various tribal communities and their rationale are also discussed in the book. The book explores application of biological tools to conserve plant species and optimization protocols for conservation and elicitation of secondary metabolites and other value addition products. The book is organized into sub-themes covering: i) Ecological status of plant genetic resources; ii) Traditional ethnobotanical knowledge and conservation practices; iii) Ex situ conservation practices and bioprospecting. Globally, plant genetic resources are deeply rooted in culture and economy. Since the early 1990s, the changing socio-economic situation has increasingly put pressure on plant genetic resources in some cases, leading to a severe loss of their diversity. For this reason, most vulnerable areas are at risk of genetic erosion have been demarcated and protected by forest laws and regulations Therefore this book brings to light the opinions of leading experts in the area of ecology conservation biodiversity ethnobotany and bioprospecting of plant genetic resources The book is for use by graduate and advanced undergraduate students and researchers in plant physiology molecular biology biochemistry and agriculture Additionally it is extremely useful as a general reference on conservation of flora and large scale cultivation
