Islam in Education in European Countries. Pedagogical Concepts and Empirical Findings
Aurora Alvarez Veinguer, Gunther Dietz, Dan-Paul Jozsa, Thorsten Knauth, 2009 Relations between Muslims and the public education systems of Europe are often characterised by tensions There is often still a perceived incompatibility between the claims of individual Muslims or Muslim communities on the one hand and the aims of public education in Europe on the other The relatively recent presence of Islam in much of Europe the internal diversity of Muslim communities the lack of a centralized hierarchical church like structure different arguments are used to justify such a discriminatory treatment of one of the largest faith communities in Europe Nevertheless as this book aims to illustrate there are already rich and diverse experiences throughout Europe of how to integrate Islam into the national and regional school systems particularly in primary but also in secondary education Accordingly this book provides some analyses of the ways in which Islam is integrated in education in certain regions of Spain the Netherlands France and England These analyses are paralleled by empirical findings concerning the role of religion in the life of young Muslims their views concerning religion in school and the impact of religion in education and society in Spain the Netherlands Norway Germany France and England

The Islamic Shield Elie Elhadj, 2006 While politicians and media pundits debate the success of U S attempts to instill a democratic government in Iraq author and social scientist Elie Elhadj Ph D explains why thoughts of a democratic Arab Muslim nation are nothing but fantasy Arab people are characterized by obedience to a hierarchical authority Syrian born Elhadj states Western style democracy can never fill this cultural mandate Elhadj explains how Muslim Arab political and religious leaders raise the tenets of Islam in a shield against democracy in order to protect their power Constant preaching by Islam s religious leaders instructing Muslims to blindly obey their leaders has created an attitude of political quietism in regard to the tyranny of Arab rulers and ambivalence towards democracy Elhadj says in his book Using Syria and Saudi Arabia as the archetypal Arab governments The Islamic Shield outlines the numerous reasons why genuine democratic reforms are not likely to emerge in Arab countries for a very long time Instead Elhadj proposes that a benevolent dictatorship may be a more hopeful and realistic expectation especially since democratic elections are likely to result in the election of a theocratic dictator rather than a secular democratic one A benevolent dictatorship would fulfill the goal of reducing Arab rulers cruelty which fans the flame of Islamic extremism and Jihadism he states Jihadism and its causes are examined in detail by Elhadj He makes the case that Jihadist terrorism is fueled by the oppression and frustration of the Arab masses that results not only from tyrannical Arab rule but also from the perception of biased American policies in the Middle East Combined with the growing influence from extremist factions within Islam these oppressions form a vicious cycle of violent confrontation Elhadj says Islamist extremism alone does not cause terrorism Elhadj states What Islamist extremism does is to turn political frustrations into religious crusades The United States may even have created a set back for themselves in the effort to democratize the Middle East Elhadj says As the United States deposed the Arab World s most secular regime in Iraq a theocratic leadership aligned to Tehran emerged with potentially far reaching regional political and religious consequences

Sudan After Nimeiri Peter Woodward,2013-04-15 At the end of 1984 Sudan shot into the headlines as a result of famines floods locusts political instability and civil war In describing the collapse of Sudan s state and economy Sudan After Nimeiri emphasises the extent of the country s current predicament and explains the difficulty of potential solutions Amongst the issues discussed are environmental and ecological problems economic collapse famine debt refugees the role of Islam in Sudanese politics Nimeiri s downfall and the administrative problems facing the transitional and present governments

Fighting the Last War Jeffrey M. Bale,Tamir Bar-On,2024-01-24 The authors argue that the potential threat of a resurgence of fascism has been consistently exaggerated from 1945 until present day that the ongoing lack of conceptual and definitional clarity with respect to terms like fascism the radical right the alt right white supremacism populism racism etc has enabled ill informed or dishonest commentators to distort their meaning and abusively misapply those labels so as to delegitimize their political opponents and that the political and economic elites in charge of contemporary Western societies are now deliberately exaggerating and exploiting the threat posed by the domestic radical right in order to facilitate vilifying harassing de platforming censoring canceling and repressing disgruntled citizens no matter where they may lie along the political spectrum who openly criticize and vigorously oppose their agendas The authors also advocate the use of well established scholarly methods for carrying out research on the right and provide precise definitions of various terms in order to facilitate the development of more accurate categorizations

American and Muslim Worlds before 1900 John Ghazvinian,Arthur Mitchell Fraas,2020-02-06 American and Muslim Worlds before 1900 challenges the prevailing assumption that when we talk about American and Muslim worlds we are talking about two conflicting entities that came into contact with each other in the 20th century Instead this book shows there is a long and deep seam of history between the two which provides an important context for contemporary events and is also important in its own right Some of the earliest American Muslims were the African slaves working in the plantations of the Carolinas and Latin America Thomas Jefferson a slaveholder himself was frequently called an infidel and suspected of hidden Muslim sympathies by his opponents Whether it was the sale of American commodities in Central Asia Ottoman consuls in Washington orientalist themes in American fiction the uprisings of enslaved Muslims in Brazil or the travels of American missionaries in the Middle East there was no shortage of opportunities for Muslims and inhabitants of the Americas to meet interact and shape one another from an early period

Islam John Sabini, 2001 An introduction to Islam including its basic beliefs and laws origins and spread varieties and relationship to Judaism and Christianity

Arab-Byzantine Relations in Early Islamic Times Michael Bonner, 2017-09-08 The Byzantine Empire was the Islamic commonwealth's first and most stubborn adversary For many centuries it loomed large in Islamic diplomacy military operations and commerce as well as in Islamic representations of the world in general Moreover the ways in which early Muslims and Byzantines perceived one another both polemically and otherwise afterwards proved decisive for the mutual perceptions between the Islamic world and Christian Western Europe For these and other reasons Arab Byzantine relations have been a major concern of modern scholarship on early Islam for well over a century Arab Byzantine Relations in Early Islamic Times presents some of the most important of these contributions organized according to the following themes war and diplomacy frontiers and military organization polemics and images of the other exchange influence and convergence and martyrdom jihad and holy war An introductory essay discusses these themes within the contexts of early Islamic society politics and economy

Missiology John Mark Terry, 2015-09-01 Thoroughly updated and revised with half of the chapters new to the second edition Missiology equips the reader with a vast graduate level resource on contemporary missions

The Political Economy of Education in South Asia John Richards, Manzoor Ahmed, Shahidul Islam, 2021-12-17 With the exception of Sri Lanka South Asian countries have not achieved quality basic education an essential measure for escaping poverty inequality and social exclusion In The Political Economy of Education in South Asia John Richards Manzoor Ahmed and Shahidul Islam emphasize the importance of a dynamic system for education policy The Political Economy of Education in South Asia documents the weak core competency reading and math outcomes in government primary schools in India Pakistan Bangladesh and Nepal and the consequent rapid growth of non government schools over the last two decades It compares the training hiring and management of teachers in South Asian schools to successful national systems ranging from Singapore to Finland Discussing reform options it makes the case public good and public priorities are better served when both public and non government providers come under a strong public policy and accountability framework The Political Economy of Education in South Asia draws on the authors broad engagement in education research and practice in South Asia as well as analysis by prominent professors of education and NGO leaders to place basic education in a broad context and make the case that universal literacy and numeracy are necessary foundations for economic growth
