Teaching and Study of Islam in Western Universities Paul Morris, William Shepard, Paul Trebilco, Toni

Tidswell, 2013-11-26 Public interest in the religion of Islam and in Muslim communities in recent years has generated an impetus for Western Universities to establish an array of Institutes and programs dedicated to the study of Islam Despite the growth in number of programs dedicated to this study very little attention has been paid to the appropriate shape of such programs and the assumptions that ought to underlie such a study The Teaching and Study of Islam in Western Universities attempts to address two central questions that arise through the teaching of Islam Firstly what relation is there between the study of the religion of Islam and the study of those cultures that have been shaped by that religion Secondly what is the appropriate public role of a scholar of Islam After extensive discussion of these questions the authors then continue to address the wider issues raised for the academic community having to negotiate between competing cultural and philosophical demands This edited collection provides new perspectives on the study of Islam in Western Institutions and will be an invaluable resource for students of Education and Religion in particular Islamic Studies The ^Islamic

Understanding of Death and Resurrection Jane Idelman Smith, Yvonne Yazbeck Haddad, 2002-11-21 This book provides a thorough and accessible guide to belief about the afterlife in the Sunni Muslim tradition Drawing on the Qur'an traditions creeds and theological commentaries as well as interviews with Muslim clerics the authors offer an overview of the Islamic eschatological narrative describing the understanding of events beginning with the death of the individual and ending with habitation in the final abodes of recompense Rise of Islamic Political Movements and Parties Esen Kirdis, 2019-05-09

Although regarded as a single community of Islamists Islamic political movements utilise vastly different means to pursue their goals This book examines why some Islamic movements facing the same socio political structures pursue different political paths while their counterparts in diverse contexts make similar political choices Based on qualitative fieldwork involving personal interviews with Islamic politicians journalists and ideologues conducted both before and after the Arab Spring author Esen KirdiAY draws close comparisons between six Islamic movements in Jordan Morocco and Turkey She analyses how some Islamic movements decide to form a political party to run in elections while their counterparts in the same country reject doing so and instead engage in political activism as a social movement through informal channels More broadly the study demonstrates the role of internal factors ideological priorities and organisational needs in explaining differentiation within Islamic political movements and discusses its effects on democratisation Which Degree Guide

, 2003 Mapping Islamic Studies Azim Nanji, 1997 Since its founding by Jacques Waardenburg in 1971 Religion and Reason has been a leading forum for contributions on theories theoretical issues and agendas related to the phenomenon and the study of religion Topics include among others category formation comparison ethnophilosophy hermeneutics methodology myth phenomenology philosophy of science scientific atheism structuralism and theories of religion From time to time the series publishes volumes that map the state of the art and the history of the discipline Curriculum Renewal for Islamic Education Nadeem A. Memon, Mariam Alhashmi, Mohamad Abdalla, 2021-05-10 This book demonstrates why and how it is necessary to redesign Islamic Education curriculum in the K 12 sector globally From Western public schools that integrate Muslim perspectives to be culturally responsive to public and private schools in Muslim minority and majority contexts that teach Islamic studies as a core subject or teach from an Islamic perspective the volume highlights the unique global and sociocultural contexts that support the disparate trajectories of Islamic Education curricula Divided into three distinct parts the text discusses current Islamic education curricula and considers new areas for inclusion as part of a general renewal effort that includes developing curricula from an Islamic worldview and the current aspirations of Islamic education globally By providing insights on key concepts related to teaching Islam case studies of curriculum achievements and pitfalls and suggested processes and pillars for curriculum development contributors present possibilities for researchers and educators to think about teaching Islam differently This text will benefit researchers doctoral students and academics in the fields of secondary education Islamic education and curriculum studies Those interested in religious education as well as the sociology and theory of religion more broadly will also enjoy this volume Imams in Western Europe Mohammed Hashas, Jan Jaap Ruiter, Niels Valdemar Vinding, 2025-10-01 As European Muslims and Muslims in the Middle East diverge imams in Europe have emerged as major agents of religious authority who shape Islam's presence in Western societies This volume examines the theoretical and practical questions concerning the evolving role of imams in Europe To what extent do imams act as intermediaries between European states and Muslim communities Do states subsidise imam training How does institutionalisation of Islam differ between European states Research in Education, 1968 Preventing Bullying Among Children With Special Educational Needs Siddiqui, Sohni, Kamran,

Mahwish, 2024-12-31 Bullying constitutes a broad concept encompassing various essential components It is characterized by hostile and repetitive behavior directed by an individual or a collective group The essence of bullying lies in an inherent power imbalance and is rooted in a conscious deliberate and intentional pursuit of causing harm to the targeted individual Bullying is acknowledged as a pervasive enduring and significant issue present in schools worldwide spanning various national contexts Unfortunately the prevalence of bullying extends beyond typical schools reaching institutions designed to support students with special needs Further research may increase our academic understanding of the frequency and nature of bullying among students receiving special education support Preventing Bullying Among Children With Special Educational Needs delves into the strategies employed by schools or institutions to address these regrettable instances of bullying involving children with special needs It also explores the current global status of bullying and the interventions implemented to counteract such occurrences This book covers topics such as neurodiversity K 12 education and special education and is a useful resource for educators academicians psychologists sociologists scientists and researchers
